UNION REPUBLICAN TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT,
ULYSSES S. GRANT.
OF ILLINOIS.
FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
HENRY WILSON, OF MASSACHUSETTS.

THE State election in South Carolina on Wednesday last resulted in the election of the entire Republican ticket.

THE Republican party is indebted to the young men of Pennsylvania for their aid in obtaining the great victory at the last election. Young men coming of age, naturally incline to the Republican party, and and they are a great element in its growing strength. The grand history of the Republican party appeals to the love of the country burning in the hearts of the young.

Hon J. B. Packer.

PENNSYLVANIA has vindicated one soldier as few men have been vindicated in any age and in any country. The American people are now about to vindicate the greatest soldier of the time from the aspersions of a clique of depraved politicians. This assault upon Grant and Hartranft has a deeper meaning than at first appears. The policy of the Republican party is clearly that, other things being equal, the faithful soldier shall be preferred before the civilian in the appointment of place. The fight on Grant and Hartranft is only the protest of a little clique of politicians who neglected to earn a reputation either before, during, or after the war. This contemptible clique of traders in politics set out to break down the policy of the Republican party alluded to. They looked around them and saw a host of men who combined their rare intelligence with indomitable pluck, and decreed life to the republic. It was a formidable panel, in the light of Republican policy.

THROWING UP THE SPONGE.—Col McClure, the head of the Dem Liberal party in Pennsylvania, admits his party whipped, burns his correspondence, sells his baggage, and withdraws from the fight, and tells his followers to look out for themselves. The Colonel and his committee had commodious rooms in Philadelphia, splendidly furnished and adorned with flags, likenesses of Greeley and Brown, &c. No sooner did the news of the vast majority that Pennsylvania had given for Hartranft reach him, than all this splendor vanished under his orders, like a dissolving view. He ordered all correspondence to the flames, dispatched the furniture to the auction store, took down the portraits of his candidates, handed over the keys of his rooms to the landlord, and departed to his quiet home, a sadder and, most likely, a wiser man, convinced, no doubt, that the people of this country are not yet willing to be hucksterred about by intriguing politicians, whose only ambition is to gain power and emoluments. The lesson is a good one, and the brilliant intellect of the Colonel should profit by it.—Lebanon Courier.

CENTRE'S INFLUENCE.—A day or two before the election, Forney, Geist, Billingfelt, Price & Co., made a great parade and blow about the power of the "War Governor;" how, Samson-like he was going to overthrow the pillars of the temple and rear a magnificent structure, out of the fragments. He was going to march over the prostrate forms of Cameron, Hartranft, Mackey and all the Republicans of Pennsylvania, Ring-men, Lick-spittles, and all. But the election passes off and we find Centre county, the home of the "Conquering Hero," gives a greatly reduced majority, and so far as we have been able to learn, the result of his defection has been that the only one taken from us by his wonderful letter and speeches is the Adjutant General of the State, who has been quietly pocketing his salary ever since the commencement of the war, with the exception of a short time in which Gen. McCreary served during Gov. Geary's first term. We hope Governor Hartranft will relieve Aleck very soon after his inauguration—and let him go up Centre county and mourn with Poor Curtin, he, like one of [illegible] own ca[illegible] by one Thanksgiving Proclamation by the President.

WASHINGTON, Oct 11, 1872.

By the President of the United States of America.

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, The revolution of another year has again brought the time when it is usual to look back upon the past, and publicly to thank the Almighty for His mercies and His blessings; and whereas, if any people has more occasion than another for such thankfulness it is the citizens of the United States, whose government is their creature, subject to their behests: who have reserved to themselves ample civil and religious freedom and equality before the law: who during the last twelve months have enjoyed exemption from any grievous or general calamity, and to whom prosperity in agriculture, manufactures and commerce has been vouchsafed.

Now, theasefore, by these considerations, I recommend that on Thursday, the 28th day of November next, the people to meet in their respective places of worship, and their make their acknowledgments to God for his kindness and bounty.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

[L. S.] Done at the city of Washington, this eleventh day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, and of the Independence of the United States the ninety-seventh.

(Signed.) U. S. GRANT.

By the President, HAMILTON FISH, Secretary of State.

Surrendered

The Daily State Journal of the 17th inst., contains the following: At last the word has passed along the Democratic line, "ground arms." "WE SURRENDER!" By reference to our local columns it will be found that at a convention composed of delegates of straight out Democrats in Pennsylvania, held at the Bolton house, yesterday, it was confessed there is no longer a foothold for that party in this State; that the im[illegible] for the straight out Democrats to put an electoral ticket in the field to represent the Longaville nomination. This is sensible, indeed the only sane thing done by the straight out Democrats during this campaign. At the Bolton house convention it was also recommended that all straight out Democrats remain at home the day of the election, declining to vote, which is not sensible. It is the duty of all men to vote, and therefore, as the straight cannot vote for Greeley, they ought on a question of patriotism, vote for Grant, because

DON'T

Be deceived, but for coughs, colds, sore throat, hoarseness and Bronchial affection, use only

Wells' Carbolic Tablets,

Worthless imitations are on the market, but the only reliable preparation of Carbolic Acid for Lung Diseases is when combined with other well known remedies, as in these Tablets, and all parties are cautioned against using any other.

In all cases of irritation of the nose one number of these Tablets is useful to freely used, their cleansing and healing properties are astonishing.

Be warned in time and neglect a cold, it is easily cured in its incipient state, when it becomes chronic the cure is a case of many dollars. Use Wells' Carbolic Tablets and be cured.

THE GREAT SOUTH AMERICAN JURUBEBA BLOOD PURIFIER

It is not a physic which may give temporary relief to the sufferer for the first few doses, but which, from continued use brings Piles and kindred diseases to aid in weakening the invalid, nor is it a doctored liquor, which, under the popular name of "Bitters" is so extensively palmed off on the public as sovereign remedies, but it is a most powerful Tonic and alterative, pronounced so by the leading medical authorities of London Paris, and has long been used by the regular physicians of other countries with wonderful remedial results.

Dr. Wells' Extract of JURUBEBA, retains all the medical virtues peculiar to the plant and must be taken as a permanent curative agent.

If there want of action in your liver & spleen [illegible] relieved at once, the blood becomes impure by deleterious secretions, producing scrofulous or skin diseases, Blotches, Pelons, Pustules, Canker, Pimples, &c., &c.

Take Jurubeba to cleanse, purify and restor the vitiated blood to healthy action.

If you have a dyspeptic stomach! Unless Digestion is promptly aided the system is debilitated with loss of vital force, poverty of the blood, Tropical Tendency, General Weakness or Inactivity.

Take it to assist Digestion without reaction. It will impart youthful vigor to the weary sufferer.

Have you weakness of the Intestines? You are in danger of Chronic Diarrhoea or the dreadful Inflamation of the bowels.

Take it to allay Irritation and ward off tendency to Inflamation.

Have you weakness of the uterine organs? You must procure instant relief or you are liable to suffering worse than death.

Take it to strengthen organic weakness or life becomes a burden.

Finally it should be frequently taken to keep the system in perfect health or you are otherwise in great danger of malarial, miasmatic or contagious diseases.
