THE POST.

MIDDLEBURG, MAY 22, 1873.

Local News, &c.

—Do not forget the Sunday School Concert in the E. E. Church on Monday & Tuesday evenings of next week. The object is a noble one. Come one! Come all!!

—Paying militia fax is among the things that were. This tax was repealed during the past winter.

—The hornets and wasps, which are of an industrious if not affectionate disposition, are beginning to reconnoitre for summer residences.

—Last week Isaac Beaver had a very valuable milch cow run over and killed on the R. R. near this place. Charles Swengle also had a valuable mule killed near Benfer station.

For Sale at reasonable terms.—The large and furnishing Hotel in Centreville, (Wever Stand). For particulars inquire of B. T. Parks Esq., Middleburg, or P. Hartman Centreville.

H[illegible] thirteen, committed himself to [illegible] ple[illegible]ship, Schuylkill [illegible] alike for farms [illegible] on the canal.

[illegible] B. C. W[illegible] [illegible]ave ill be held on Be[illegible] house, in Franklin township, on Sun[illegible] May 25th inst., at 10 o'clock A. M. a[illegible] also in the evening. All are invited to attend.

—Taking a walk the other day, we called in to see our friend Samuel Stetler, on Miss Margaret Kramer's farm, and being rather curious, measured an oak tree, and found that its circumference three feet above the ground, was sixteen feet.

☞ "Therefore, give full measure and just weight," enjoins the Alcoren. An interesting commentary on this is that the Fairbanks scales are used considerably in the very land of the Prophet and his book. No country is too remote to be penetrated by these Universal Standard.—Ex.

BEAVER'S CORNER.—The revision, remodeling, and enlarging of this place of business has made it one of the most attractive in town. W. H. Beaver the enterprising owner has just returned from the City, where he has been laying in one of the largest and best selected stock of goods it has been his good fortune to offer the public. Do not fail to go and see his commodious store room and the mammoth and cheap stock. No one sent away dissatisfied.

—Wonder whether any of our contemporaries ever received one cent of pay, for advertising for Albert Menet. (Let the t off in the last name.) We would not give three cents for all his contracts in the State. Brethren! A column and a half for one year for nothing is rather tough.

☞ For Loss of Appedite, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Depression of Spirits and General Debility, in their various forms, Ferro-Phosporated Elixir of Calisaya made by Caswell, Hazard & Co., New York and sold by all druggists, in the best tonic. As a stimulent tonic for patients recovering from fever or other sickness, it has no equal. If taken during the season it prevents fever and ague and other intermittent fevers.

THEFT.—On the night of Tuesday last, the tool chest of Philip Smith and John Born, of this place, was broken into and tools valued at $60 stolen therefrom. The above named gentlemen were working at the new church in course of erection near Fry's School House, and were in the habit of leaving their carpenter tools in the building, on Wednesday morning, they found their chests broken open and the contents missing.

ANOTHER.—On Tuesday last, during the absence of Mr. Albright Swineford and family, the house was entered by some thief or thives and two portmonnaies rifled of their contents, the amount stolen we are informed was $35.00 it seemes the members of the family, were at work in the field and had taken the precaution to lock the front door, but left the back door open, through which the house was entered. From the fact that it was in midday, and in the heart of town it was a bold theft.

LOCKE'S NATIONAL MONTHLY for May (Locke & Jones, Toledo, Ohio,) has the concluding chapters of the great story, "One Divorce and One Death;" the opening chapters of a tragical, dramatic, romantic story, "The Murchison Mystery;" "Too Late," a pretty love story by Richard Grant; "Her Love for Him," a charming lug society story by Edgar Fawcett; &c., &c. The six numbers of the Monthly commencing with May or April will be sent to any address for fifty cents: Price per year, $1.000; single numbers, 10 cts. Address LOCKE & JONES, Toledo, Ohio.

Brainard's Musical World for May is on our table, and is an unusually attractive number. Besides the usual large amount of interesting and instructive reading matter, the present number contains three choice pieces of music which, if purchased separately, would cost more than the subscription price of the World a year. The music consists of a beautiful new song and chorus, entitled "Summer Stars," and two brilliant piano pieces by Strauss. Terms $1.00 per annum. Specimen copies 10 cts.
Address S. BRAINARD'S SONS, Cleveland, O.

☞ BARGAINS—BARGAINS TO BE HAD.—☜ JACOB AUBAND & SON are now disposing of their large assortment of Merchandise in Centreville. They purpose going into other business and will sell out their WHOLE STORE to any one wishing to engage in the Mercantile business. In the meantime GREAT BARGAINS can be had by all those in need of anything usually kept in a country store. They will retail at cost until they have disposed of their entire stock. They are reliable men and will do as they say. Give them a Call. May, 8, 4w.

THIS IS MAY.—This is May, the month we have been looking and longing for, as the time when, in all probability, there would be some coloric in the atmosphere, and some cerulean tint in the heavenly vault. May is a month of happy reputation. Few say aught against her. The poets and other writers delight in describing her as a beautiful maiden, clothed in sunshine, and scattering flowers on the earth, while she dances to the music of the birds and brooks. She decks the fields with her majestic tapestry, and arrays the valleys hills and woods in rich attire. The choristers of every grove chant carols in her praise. And all that sort of thing you know.

May has a history. She was the second month in the old Alban calendar, the third in that of Romulous, and the fifth in the one instituted by Numa Pompilius—a station it has held from that distant date to the present period. It consisted of twenty two days in the Alban, and of thirty-one in Romulus calendar; Suma deprived it of the odd day, which Julius Ceaser restored, since which it has been undisturbed. The most probable theory of the origin of its name is that which represents it as being resigned in honor of the Majores, the senate in the original constitution of Rome. The following are some of the proverbs regarding May:

"Be it weal or be it woe,
Beans blow before May doth go."

"Come in early or come in late,
In May comes the cow-quake."

"A swarm of bees in May
Is worth a load of hay."

"The haddocks are good,
When dipped in May flood.

"Mist in May, and heat in June,
Make the harvest right soon."

And, last, but not least:

"Cheese nor a clout
Till May be out."

May is the liveliest month, at least in name, the time of plants and Maypoles and all kinds of [illegible]

"FAMILY FAVORITE!"
THE "WEED"

SEWING MACHINE.
The most perfect, and generally useful machine in existence. For the family of the farmer or mechanic, where the work required of a sewing machine ranges from the heaviest garments of man's wear to the most delicate and ornamental fabrics for ladies and children, it has proved itself thoroughly efficient and entirely satisfactory. Of unequalled simplicity and compactness of construction, capable of being learned and operated with one-fourth the usual expenditure of time and labor, with a capacity for quantity, quality and variety of execution beyond its competitors, and a reputation for durability and reliability known and appreciated by thousands, it is offered to the people for the most critical inspection and comparison, with confidence that its every merits cannot fail to convince the careful examiner, of its superiority.
Not one person in TWENTY
who examine the WEED before purchasing can be induced to have any other, and agents of all other machines in rewiring this fact, employ street peddlers or canvassers to push their machines into the houses of the people and sell them before they have any opportunity to see the WEED.

LYON'S NEW SEWING MACHINE
Challenges the World!
Yet it is supplied to agents for $1.00 above the actual cost. Thus, the universal complaint of agents that they do not receive their share in the profits of the business, is effectually cured for a series of years at least; and if agents now fail to earn a competency the fault is their own. We give out agencies for towns or counties or States as may be preferred, and each agency is secured by a sealed contract. No pains or expense will be spared to add every possible improvement, that we may retain the best machine in the market, as well as in name. We have no "cheap" agencies or paramounts, thus dispensing a temptation to be deceived by lying and irresponsible peddlers.
Agents wanted everywhere. Please address
