of Selinsgrove.
[Subject to decision of District Conference]

FOR ASSEMBLY,
G. ALFRED SCHOCH,
of Middleburg.
[Subject to Decision of District Conference.]

FOR ASSOCIATE JUDGE,
BENJ'N L. RAUDENBUSH, of Beaver Springs.

PROTHONOTARY
JEREMIAH CROUSE,
of Middleburg.

FOR REGISTER & RECORDER
JAMES M. VANZANDT,
of Middleburg.

FOR DISTRICT ATTORNEY,
L. N. MYERS,
of Middleburg.

FOR COMMISSIONER,
JOEL ROW, of Middlecreek Twp.

TREASURER,
GEO. W. ROW, of Monroe twp.

FOR JURY COMMISSIONER
A. S. HELFRICH, of W. Beaver tp.

FOR AUDITOR,
JEFFERSON HALL, of Selinsgrove

If the laws on the subject of fishing are observed for a few years, the rivers and streams of this State will abound with fish.

Walworth, who shot his father, was found guilty of murder in the 2d degree, has been sentenced to Sing Sing for life, at hard labor.

The Republicans of Union county have nominated the following ticket:
Senator—James E. Barr.
Assembly—Charles S. Wolfe.
Sheriff—L. F. Albright.
Treasurer—James Prosy.
Commissioner—Joseph Boob.
Jury Commissioner—George L. Shoary.
Auditor—Samuel A. Reed.

It is very satisfactory to know that the wholesale murder of negroes in Grant Parish, Louisiana, early last spring by a band of armed white men, has not been forgotten by the government. A series of investigations has been conducted secretly, and a vast amount of important testimony has been secured from witnesses who have been induced to commit themselves privately in such a manner that, no matter how unwilling they may be, they will be compelled to testify truthfully in a court of justice. The evidence obtained is said to be complete against a number of the participants in the butchery, and several of these have already been arrested. That they will be tried under the Ku Klux section of the Enforcement act, and if they can be proved guilty, we sincerely trust they will be punished with the utmost severity. The massacre at Colfax was one of the most brutal and horrible that ever disgraced a civilized country. Forrest's butchery at Fort Pillow was infamous, but the men who slew one hundred helpless negroes in Colfax, without any other provocation than that afforded by a political excitement, perpetrated even a more horrible crime.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Objects of Hate

The Democratic party will never forget its hate. In this respect the Northern leaders of this miserable faction are like the great majority of the old slave holders, whose fortunes were invested in human flesh, who lived and rioted on the fruits of slave labor, and who exercised a local sway which tempted them to believe their personal power was potential all over the land. The overthrow of slavery has destroyed all this wrong and remedied the social and and political evil which sprang from it; and because the government was strong enough to do this, the slave holder while he lives will hate it. There is a class of men in the South who never will be reconciled to the government for the reason that they believe all their wretchedness is due to its victories, when the fact is, all their sufferings are the result of their mad folly. Hence, these men are sullen dissatisfied and object to every act of the national government, because all such action only shows them the utter hopelessness of their cause. In the same spirit, the feelings, of the leaders of what is left of the Democratic party are controlled. Those men hate the Southern men who support the national administration, because every repentant rebel who honestly devotes himself to upholding the national administration, is so much in the sense of material taken out of the Democratic party in the South, and to that degree adds to the certainty that it can never be reorganized. There can be nothing more hateful to the Northern Democrat than an ex-rebel sincerely supporting President Grant, obeying the laws, seconding federal officers in restoring order, and doing all other acts likely to hasten the same results. When the name of such a man goes the round of the Northern press, the face of every Democratic editor becomes ashy pale with hate, and he fills his columns with execrations of him. The bitterness of these men will only end when the earth rattles on their coffin lids. They hate free government as they dispise all equalities, and they scorn and abhor the Republican party because it has commonized freedom, made all participation in the government without distinction, and preserve its franchises impartial. Such are the objects of hate of the man whom the Republican party is now forced constantly to combat.

Pennsylvania Items.

—A lead and silver mine has been discovered in Fayette county.

—The noted brewer, Lauer, has lived in Reading nearly half a century.

—A floating bath-house is to be erected in the Schuylkill river at Reading.

—Corn and oats are backward and the latter are short in Berks county.

—The tobacco crop in Bucks county has been badly injured by the drought.

—Green county claims that she furnishes to the Estern markets the best horses in the State.

—The Cumberland Valley Railroad has passed into the hands of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company.

—A child was born in Altona, a few days ago, which weighed one pound, and was eleven inches in length.

—The jury drawn for the August term of the Court at Reading consists of eight colored and four white citizens.

—The Court at West Chester has refused to admit to probate the will recently discovered upon a slate in that town.

—Lycoming county has a young giant aged nineteen years, whose feet are sixteen inches long and still growing.

—An old chap at Oil City, Pa., likely to die, has turned up sixteen thousand dollars that there may be no quarreling over his will.

—Minnequa Springs, in Bradford county, are 1,500 feet above the level of the sea, and are surrounded by mountain scenery of unsurpassed grandeur.

—Fourteen persons were baptized by immersion in Sherman's creek, at Duncannon, on Sunday a week. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Cooper.

—Berks county farmers have harvested their hay, and fine weather has given them satisfaction. An average crop has been secured in most parts of the county.

—The Mauch Chunk Gazette says: On last Saturday afternoon during the terrible storm that prevailed, the Rev. Edward Snyder, who lives near Millport, this county, was struck and killed by lightning.

—The late heavy rain storms have done considerable damage to crops in certain sections of Fayette county. The corn planted on hillside fields has in some instances been washed completely out and deposited by the road sides.

—Ground was broken last week for the new Masonic temple in Hamburg. The building will be four stories in hight; front of serpentine stone, with facings and trimmings of white marble. The estimated cost of the building is $100,000.

—Thomas Gordon, of Horsham twp., Montgomery county, informed his wife one day last week that he was going to feed the chickens. Becoming alarmed at his protracted absence she went to the barn and found him suspended by the neck and dead.

—An Altoona husband, after an extended spell of drunkenness, came home and found that his wife had practically broken up housekeeping by smashing all the furniture, including the stove and utensils, killing all the chickens, and then taking her two children and leaveng the neighborhood.

—On Sunday night a week, near Topton, a field of new mown hay along the East Pennsylvania railroad caught fire from the sparks of a locomotive and before the flames could be extinguished nearly two acres of the provender was destroyed. The neighbors residing in the vicinity of the fire went in a body and put the fire out.

—An accident of an exciting nature occurred in the Lutheran church at Newville, on Sabbath evening last. Just as the choir were about to sing the voluntary, the chandelier, which hung directly over the organ, fell with a crash and in an instant all was confusion and dismay. The burning fluid threatened instant and sure destruction to the church and all who composed the choir. Fortunately the floor was covered with heavy matting, and by a timely application of this by Capt. Derland the flames were extinguished. Several of the choir were slightly burned, among whom was Miss Drawbaugh, who made the most narrow escape, her dress having been on fire.

Chicago, July 9.—Telegraphic crop reports from numerous points in Illinois and Iowa, covering the greater part of those States, show that while recent severe rain storms have considerably damaged the wheat crop particularly in localities where it was just ready to harvest, there will be a fully average crop. Oats have suffered more, being badly lodged, and in many places will have to be removed. Corn looks well, and with favorable weather will make a full average.

New York, July 7.—The Evening Telegram says the law under which Rosenzweig, the abortionist, offended, with its penalty of seven years' imprisonment was legislated out of existence, by the new law, making malpractice, attended with fatal results, punishable with death. Rosenzweig has lain for months in the Tombs, awating a new trial, but has not been reindicted, and it is believed cannot be.

Stokes, Simmons and King will it is supposed, escape the death penalty through the new law, requiring proof of deliberate intent to kill for conviction of murder in the first degree.

Greenthal, the bond robber, was to-day sentenced to a year and a half in the State Prison.

Wes. Allen, the notorious burgular was to-day sentenced to five years at hard labor in the State Prison.

Earthquake.

The Titusville (Pa.) Courier, says in its issue of Monday morning the 7th inst. "Yesterday forenoon a shock of earthquake was felt by many here in Titusville. The inmates of Mr. Frederick Crocker's house, at the corner of Washington and Spruce streets, were somewhat alarmed, so violently was the house shaken. We were seated in our office at the time, and for a few seconds the block trembled and vibrated. We have seen and heard of a number of others who experienced the shock. Our readers will remember that a slight earthquake was experienced in this section in 1870, and that immediately afterward there was a great falling off in the production of oil. May we not hope that the earthquake of yesterday was the forerunner of a decrease in our present production of pretroleum, and a consequent advance in the price of that article? If this is so, two or three earthquakes would be quite welcome just now.

The Treaty of Washington.

This instrument, which required such immense consideration and voluminous debate, went into force on the 1st inst., the most important document that has passed between the Governments of England and the United States, since the peace which followed the recognition of the independence of our country, the treaty of Washington settles questions never before adjusted by diplomacy. It secured the payment of great sums of money claimed as damages for acts for which no nation was ever before held responsible, that of furnishing arms to a belligerent while he was at war with a power, the government thus furnishing him aid and comfort season terms of amity and peace with the latter. All the damage done by the Anglo-rebel ram Alabama, are to be paid for by the English—indeed, portions of these have already been met by that government, and the remainder of the large amount to be settled will be adjusted and paid immediately. To secure such a result without war, is an achievement well calculated to call forth the congratulations of the party making the claim as well as of the people who are to pay it.

Next in order the treaty adjusts the fishery question to establish the exact area on which the fishermen on the northeastern coast could pursue their industry. Several attempts were made to do this, all of which were unsatisfactory, because the terms of the instruments agreed upon were vague and impractical. In 1818 a new treaty was framed which expressly recognized our rights in the fisheries. Differences of opinion arose, however, as to the construction of its terms, and in 1854 what is known as the reciprocity treaty was made, which continued in force until 1866. The Treaty of Washington was framed in 1871, practically reviving the fishery provisions of the treaty of 1854, but providing further for a commission to determine the amount of any compensation which, in the opinion of its members, ought to be paid by the government of the United States to the British government in return for the privileges granted by the latter government to the citizens of the country. Certain legislation was also required on the part of the British Parliament and the legislative bodies of Canada and Prince Edward Island, and the United States Congress, before the fishery clauses could become operative, all of which has been accomplished. As we have already written, the treaty averted a great war—prevented effusion of blood and the loss of valuable lives on both sides, while the money it constrains one party to pay, would not have covered a fourth of the expenses of such a conflict. Hence the precedent thus established, that powerful nations can adjust their differences, however radical and broad, by arbitration and treaty, instead of war and destruction, will be a benefit to the whole world, and no doubt so improved upon that war will be finally rendered unnecessary.

—A report is current that the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will purchase Bedford Springs of the present owners, at the end of the season for $350,000.

NEVER
Neglect a Cough. Nothing is more certain to lay the foundation for future evil consequences.
Wells' Carbolic Tablets, are a sure cure for all diseases of the Respiratory Organs, Sore Throat, Colds, Croup, Diptheria, Coughs, Catarrh, Hoarseness, Dryness of the Throat, Winipipe, or Bronchial Tubes, and all Diseases of the Lungs.
In all cases of sudden cold, however taken, these TABLETS should be promptly and freely used. They equalize the quality of the blood, mitigate the severity of the attack, and will, in a very short time, restore healthy action to the affected organs.
Wells' Carbolic Tablets are put up only in little blue boxes. Take no substitutes. If they can't be found at your druggists, send at once to the Agent in New York, who will forward them by return mail.
Don't be Deceived by Imitations
Sold by druggists. 25cents a box.

THE GREAT SOUTH AMERICAN JURUBEBA BLOOD PURIFIER

Is the most powerful cleanser, strengthener and recovery of Glandular obstructions known to Materia Medica.
It is specially adapted to constitutions "worn down" and debilitated by the warm weather of spring and summer, when the blood is not in active circulation, consequently gather impurities from sluggishness and imperfect action of the secretive organs, and is manifested by numerous Eruptions, Blotches, Boils, pustules, carbuncles, &c., &c.
When weary and languid from overwork and dullness, drowsiness and inertia take the place of energy and vigor, the system needs a Tonic to build up and bring the vital forces to recover their reconcentrative power.
In the heat of summer, frequently the Liver and Spleen do not properly perform their functions; the outer secretory organs are inactive producing weakness of the stomach and intestines and a predisposition to billious derangement.

DR. WELLES'
EXTRACT OF JURUBEBA

Is prepared directly from the South American plant, and is peculiarly suited to all those difficulties; it will cleanse the vitiated blood, strengthen the life giving powers, and remove all obstructions from impaired and enfeebled Organs.
It should be freely taken, as Jurubeba is pronounced by medical writers the most efficient further, Tonic and Deobstruent known in the whole range of medical plants.
