HUCK MATS.—A correspondent of the "Agriculturist" tells how to make huck mats: "Take an inch plank of the size desired, and have three-quarter inch holes through it, with their centers two inches apart. Draw into these dampened corn husks, and trim off about two inches on each side. This mat can be used either side up. It is easily made, and every one can keep his boots clean much to the gratification of the house-keeper."

As Albany, N. Y., clergyman, recently requested his congregation not to use him during the service, as the constant motion all over the church was very annoying, and presented him concentrating his thoughts.
