THE POST.

MIDDLEBURG, SEPT. 4, 1873.

Local News, &c.

—Now is the time to commence advertising for the fall trade.

—We publish in this issue Trial List and list of Grand and Petit Jurors for Sep. Term.

—The coal business over the Sunbury and Lewistown railroad is rapidly increasing as winter approaches.

—The next term of the Snyder county court will commence, in this place, on the 22d inst.

—We return thanks to Hon. James Calder, President of Pennsylvania Agricultural College, for copy of Report for 1872.

—Numerous new species of worms, bugs and other insects continue to be discovered daily preying upon the fruit and vegetables.

—When your pocket book gets empty, and everybody knows it, you can put all your friends in it, and it won't "bulge out worth a cent."

—An exchange says there is not a case on record where a man who paid regular for his newspaper was ever bitten by a mad dog.

—A cow belonging to Harrisen Swartz has given birth to four fine, healthy calves within the space of fifteen months—rather prolific—who can beat that?

—One Robert Houck was convicted at Huntingdon last week for stealing railroad ties from the Penna. R. R. No doubt he is one of the same breed of thieves that robbed Miller's shoe store at this place a year ago.—Times.

Railroad trains of ore, coal, iron, etc., are now weighed on the run. The Fairbanks Track Scale, with a platform nine rods long, accomplishes this marvel. Even Wendell Phillips must allow that the art of weighing is not one "Lost Arts."

—Choice family flour for sale at the Express Office, and Clothing Store of C. G. Gutelius. Every sack guaranteed good, Sacks ¼ Bbl. 49lb, $2 00; ½ Bbl. 24½ lb's $1.00, 1-16 Bbl. 12½ lb's, 50 cents; also Bran, Chop, Oats, Corn &c., kept for sale.

—When you make a mustard plaster use no water whatever, but mix with the white of an egg, and the result will be a plaster that will "draw" perfectly, but will not produce a blister even on the skin of an infant, no matter how long it is allowed to remain upon the part.—Ex.

—The evenings grow perceptibly longer and cooler. Summer is practically ended, at least so say the weather wise, and a very endurable one it has been. We have had very few hot days, the rest having been only a degree or two above what might be regarded as comfortable summer weather.

—Alum is said to be a remedy for funder in horses. Pulverize it, draw out the tongue with one hand, (he being held by an assistant,) and with the other lay a tablespoonfull of it as far down the throat as possible, on the root of the tongue. Let the tongue loose and the alum will go down.

Pic Nic.—The Musser's Valley Sunday School will hold a pic nic in Harrison Swartz's Woods, September 6th to which a hearty invitation is extended to all. Let old and young come with baskets full of the good things, and spend a day in social pleasures. Excelent music will be furnished by Messrs. Ocker brothers. Hains and Steininger.

—The mail train west, on Monday morning, met with a slight accident, near Red Hill, resulting in the breaking of a truck axle under the engine smashing the tender considerably and tearing up the track, occasioned by a loose stone rolling down the embankment on the track. No personal injuries sustained—a little delay—that's all.

Wild Cherry Balsam.—The memory of Dr. Wistar is embalmed in the hearts of thousands whom his Balsam of Wild Cherry has cured of Coughs, colds, consumption, or some other form of pulmonary disease. It is now over 40 years since this preparation was brought before the public, and yet the demand for it is constantly increasing.

—We notice that Dr. A. C. Clark, of this place, has permanently located in Selinsgrove, Snyder county, Pa. Dr. Clark is a sober and industrious physician, and had a good practice in this vicinity. He was also employed by the different railroad companies as their physician & surgeon, at this place. His friends here will, no doubt, regret his departure. We wish him success in his new field of operations.—Sunbury American.

Scarlet Fever Cure.—As this dreaded and dreadful disease prevails at this season of the year, it may not be inopportune to state that an eminent physician claims to rob it of many of its terrors by prescribing for the patient warm lemonade, with a little mucilage, as often as is desired, and the application of warmth to the stomach. He directs that a cloth be wrung out of hot water, and laid on the stomach, renewing it as often as it cools.—With this treatment he guarantees that not one in a hundred cases will prove fatal.

A Wish Gratified.—A girl in Centre township, was given a little powder last week, and told that if she swallowed it, any wish she made would be gratified. She got it down nicely, and then began to think what she had better wish for. Before she had decided, a peculiar internal feeling made her wish for a slop basin; and as her mother was an active woman, she succeeded in getting it in time to gratify the wish and save the carpet. The girl don't have much belief in signs, wonders and love powders any more.—New Bloomfield Times.

Demorest's Monthly Magazine for September is rich in literary novelties, and also gives a fine display of the new Fall Fashions. Demorest seems to outdo all his co-emporaries in the value of Premiums to his subscribers; he announces an astonling offer for 1874 of the large and celebrated chromo, "The Old Oaken Bucket," &c., &c. Send for Circular. Address W. Jennings Demorest, 838 Broadway, N. Y.

The September number of Wood's Household Magazine is on our table. We always have a good word to say for this publication—it is such a whole souled book—so wide awake, so lively and entertaining, yet always so classic and refined. It is a regular little go-ahead, too, as comparison between its numbers will prove. We learn that the firm of S. S. Wood & Co. dissolved in March last, the Co ☞ (S. E Shutes, Mayor if Newburgh,) retaining possession of the magazine and recalling H. Y. Osborne (Tennessee) as editor. So, though the public still is really changed hands, it has not suffered from the management of a new publisher or editor, but under the redoubled efforts of its energetic proprietor has gained new force and new attractiveness. Price only one dollar a year. Address Wood's Household Magazine, Newburgh, N. Y.

"Throw Physic to the Dogs."—"The Graphic" recently gave an illustration of the new Chromo issued by the Murray Hill Publishing Company, 129 East Twenty-eighth Street, from Bispham's painting "Throw Physic to the Dogs." The subject is a little girls playfellow's various specimens of the canine race. The scene is a laughable one, and the different attitudes of the dogs are exceedingly pleasing.

It was designed to illustrate Dr. Foote's aversion to drugs, and accompanies each copy of his well known work, "Plain Home Talk and Medical Common Sense." The Doctor's practice is thoroughly "New School," and in this way he stands preeminently out from the profession a successful practitioner.

The book is a volume of 912 pages and 200 illustrations, filled with facts and reason relating to mankind, and their social and physical status. The Graphic says of it: "It is an encyclopedia of useful knowledge." A noted clergyman of this city testifies to its merits remarking: "It is a library in itself." The Franklin Repository of Chambersburg, Pa., speaks of the plates, as as "a beautiful chromo, very pleasant and so enjoyable as to be almost good company."—New York Express.

Dyspepsia! Dyspepsia! Dyspepsia!

Dyspepsia is the most perplexing of all human ailments. Its symptoms are most infinite in their variety, and the forlorn and despondent victims of the disease often fancy themselves the prey, in turn, of every known malady. This is due, in part to the close sympathy which exists between the stomach and the brain, and in part also to the fact that any disturbance of the digestive functions necessarily disorders the liver, the bowels and the nervous system, and affects, to some extent, the quality of the blood.

E. F. Kunkle's Bitter Wine of Iron a sure cure. This is not a new preparation, to be tried and found wanting; it has been present ed daily for many years in the practice of eminent physicians with unparalleled success; it is not expected or intended to cure all the diseases to which the human family is subject, but is warranted to cure Dyspepsia in its most obstinate form. Kunkle's Bitter Wine of Iron never fails to cure Symptoms of dyspepsia or loss of appetite, wind and rising of the food, dryness of the mouth, heartburn, distension of the stomach and bowels, constipation, headache, dizziness, sleeplessness and low spirits. Try the great remedy and be convinced of its merits. Get the genuine. Take only Kunkle's, which is put only in 81 bottles. Depot, 529 North Ninth Street, Philadelphia.

"FAMILY FAVORITE!"

THE "WEED"

SEWING MACHINE.

The most perfect, and generally useful machine in existence. For the family of the farmer or mechanic, where the work required of a sewing machine ranges from the heaviest garments of men's wear to the most delicate and ornamental fabrics for ladies and children it has proved itself thoroughly efficient and entirely satisfactory. Of unequalled simplicity and compactness of construction, capable of being learned and operated with one-fourth the usual expenditure of time and labor, with a capacity for quantity, quality and variety of execution beyond its competitors, and a reputation for durability and reliability known and appreciated by thousands, it is offered to the people for the most critical inspection and comparison, with confidence that its obvious merits cannot fail to convince the careful examiner, of its superiority.

Not one person in

who examine the WEED before purchasing can be induced to have any other, and agents of all other machines knowing this fact, employ street peddlers or canvassers to push their machines into the houses of the people and sell them before they have any opportunity to see the WEED.
