THE POST

Middleburg.....October 9, 1873.

The Secret Drawer.

Says the Milwaukee News: "A gentleman residing on the South Side, and for many years a resident of Milwaukee, is in daily expectation of the arrival of an aunt, on a short visit, the history of whose latter years surpasses anything in fiction. She was born and reared in New England, and has lived there all her life time, being now past sixty years of age. She married in early life to Captain Knight, a seafaring man, and bore him sons and daughters, several of whom are living, married, and comfortably settled. About sixteen years ago her husband sailed on his final voyage to Cuba, and no word from him, his vessel, or crew, has ever been received since. The ship undoubtedly foundered and carried down all on board. Mrs. Knight struggled on a few years, reared her children, who remained home at the the time of her misfortune, and, in doing so, exhausted the last remnant of property left by her husband, and finally broke down in health under the accumulated weight of years, misfortune, and poverty. Her youngest son, just married, furnished her a home for a short time and then refused to shelter her longer. Her other children each in turn declined to burden themselves with 'mother's support,' or to do anything toward procuring her a home. She finally came on the town as a pauper, and was knocked off to the lowest bidder for her support, and was for several years a poor old broken hearted creature, unable to do more than knit stockings and assist in tending children. Previous to becoming so utterly destitute, she had sold off her furniture, piece at a time, "to keep the wolf from the door," and among other articles, sold her husband's old secretary to a townsman and acquaintance. He used it a few years, and then knocked it to pieces as rubbish. In doing this he found in a secret drawer a paid-up insurance on Captain Knight's life for ten thousand dollars in the Ætna Life Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn. Being an honest man, and knowing Mrs. Knight's location and destitution, he hunted her up, took her to Hartford, and she actually procured the payment of the entire sum. The officers of the company informed her that her husband paid one hundred dollars as advance premium just before sailing, and that they had long been waiting for the presentation of the policy for payment. Her graceless children were not long in hearing of 'mother's good fortune, and have been vieing with each other ever since in kind attentions to the old lady, and pressing her to come and live with them, and make their houses her home, &c., &c. She has sense enough however, to take such professions for what they are worth, and has resolved to maintain her independence to the end of her days. The name of Mrs. Knight's nephew is known to all old settlers in the English Ward, and is at the service of any one who doubts this statement."

Dyspepsia! Dyspepsia! Dyspepsia!

Dyspepsia is the most perplexing of all human ailments. Its symptoms are most infinite in their variety, and the forlorn and despondent victims of the disease often fancy themselves the prey, in turn, of every known malady. This is due, in part to the close sympathy which exists between the stomach and the brain, and in part also to the fact that any disturbance of the digestive function necessarily disorders the liver, the bowels and the nervous system, and effects to some degree the quality of the blood.

E. F. Kunkle's Bitter Wine of Iron a sure cure. This is not a new preparation, to be tried and found wanting; it has been prescribed daily for many years in the practice of eminent physicians with unparalleled success; it is not expected or intended to cure all the diseases to which the human family is subject, but is warranted to cure Dyspepsia in its most obstinate form. Kunkle's Bitter Wine of Iron never fails to cure Symptoms of dyspepsia or loss of appetite, wind and rising of the food, dryness of the mouth, heartburn, distension of the stomach and bowels, constipation, headache, dizziness, sleeplessness and low spirits. Try the great remedy and be convinced in its merits. Get the genuine. Take only Kunkle's, which is put only in 4l bottles. Depot, 330 North Ninth street Philadelphia.

For sale by all Druggists & dealers everywh ere. 6th and 9th mos.

DR. FAHRNEY'S
Celebrated Blood Cleanser or Panacea.
The Panacea will not only cure old standing and malignant complaints, but is one of the best preventatives of such disorders ever offered to the world. You can avoid severe attacks of acute diseases, such as Cholera, Small Pox, Typhoid, Bilious, Spotted and Intermittent Fevers, by keeping your blood purified. The different degrees of all such diseases depend altogether upon the condition of the blood; for if this vital fluid is deranged you will take a disease much more readily than otherwise, and the suffering will be in proportion to the amount of foreign matter in the blood. This is so reasonable that we need not here make any illustrations.
Remember the name and don't be put off with anything else which druggists may say is just as good as the Blood Cleanser. Because they make more profits on cheaper articles.
Sold by druggists and dealers every where.

Ayer's
Cherry Pectoral,
For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Among the great discoveries of modern science, few are of more real value to mankind than this effectual remedy for all diseases of the Throat and Lungs. A vast trial of its virtues, throughout this and other countries, has shown that it does surely and effectually control them. The testimony of our best citizens, of all classes, establishes the fact, that CHERRY PECTORAL will and does relieve and cure the afflicting disorders of the Throat and Lungs beyond any other medicine. The most dangerous affections of the Pulmonary Organs yield to its power; and cases of Consumption, cured by this preparation, are publicly known, so remarkable as hardly to be believed, were they not proven beyond dispute. As a remedy it is adequate, on which the public may rely for full protection. By curing Coughs, the forerunners of more serious disease, it saves unnumbered lives, and an amount of suffering not to be computed. It challenges trial, and convinces the most sceptical. Every family should keep it on hand as a protection against the early and unperceived attack of Pulmonary Affections, which are easily met at first, but which become incurable, and too often fatal, if neglected. Tender lungs need this defence; and it is unwise to be without it. As a safeguard to children, amid the distressing diseases which beset the Throat and Chest of childhood, CHERRY PECTORAL is invaluable; for, by its timely use, multitudes are rescued from premature graves, and saved to the love and affection centred on them. It acts speedily and surely against ordinary colds, securing sound and health-restoring sleep. No one will suffer troublesome Influenza and painful Bronchitis, when they know how easily they can be cured.
Originally the product of long, laborious, and successful chemical investigation, no cost or toil is spared in making every bottle in the utmost possible perfection. It may be confidently relied upon as possessing all the virtues it has ever exhibited, and capable of producing cures as memorable as the greatest it has ever effected.
