Poetry. They will be Made White as Snow. BY SAMUEL TAYLOR. Out in the dark, and with a glow, Some lonely shiner by a brook, I would have been in weary way.

When I got into the cars again the Millerite observed, "the pen is mightier than the sword." I told him this wasn't the case with a hog pen.

A Joke on His Journey. A Cadaver a gentleman found out "What I knew about Paving in this town."

Game of what? "Seven up," said he. "There isn't so much bitterness in a ton of boiled mutton as there is in the expression of that fellow's face."

When I got into the cars again the Millerite observed, "the pen is mightier than the sword." I told him this wasn't the case with a hog pen.
