THE POST.

Published every Thursday Evening by JEREMIAH CROUSE, Prop'r.

Terms of Subscription. TWO BOLLARS PER ANNUM. Pay able vithin six months, or $2.50 if non paid within the year. No paper dis-continued until all arrearages are paid unless at the option of the pub-

isher. Subscriptions outside of the county PAYABLE IN ADVANCE. ber Persons lifting and using papers ad are liable for the price of the paper

N	PEECH
	ot

HON. JOHN B. PACKER,

MIDDLEBURG. SNYDER COUNTY, PA., APRIL 29, 1874

Congress, upon his quoto of doeu agents, 1 commissioner of fish and ments, if charged at the present rates, 8921.87 per annum. This cal. collectors of internal revenue, 26 per taing to postage and the sending per taing to postage and the sending benefit, in facilitating their commu rates, $921.87 per annum. This cal-culation is based, however, upon the whole number of documents actually sent; and as they include some lying over from former years, I have pro-cured from the folding-room a state-of clerks and assistants of these of the manument and assistants of these of the manument and the increased rev-proper rial facilities of the public, or it is customary, when the correspon-it is customary, when the correspon-it is customary, when the correspon-tione form the folding-room a state-cured from the folding-room a state-In the House of Representatives. ment of the number properly allot ficers to whom they are thus intrusted tage. In athority of Congress, and of such by the officer or person sending it mandants of the several navy-yards Senators, Representatives, and Del. prevent the officers designated, or ers. For the same reason I should authority of Congress, and of such packages of seeds cuttings, roots, and rendezvous, receiving ships, and of the several navy yards sentence, all printed entropy of the several navy yards of the several navy yards and rendezvous, receiving ships, and of such by the mail, and practically that plan and rendezvous, receiving ships, and of the several navy yards of the several nav ablication ; leaving that question therefore, fully recognized and acted folk, and San Francisco ; naval sta ments, being heads of Bureaus or Let we have now, sir, in the fold-grooms of this Honse, hound fold and ready for distribution, about a hundred and thirty-three thou-inshed by the Government Printer and volumes of the mathematical or the mathematical or the distribution of the same and and for-mished by the Government Printer and refer the authority of Congress. In the public document room of the a public document room of the a public document room of the a public document room of the and a clerk who affixes the stamps to and a clerk who affixes the and of great interest to the believed, stand the tost of a com- the chief clerk of the Burgar of the Burgar of the Burgar of the Superior of That these books belong to the copie there can be no question. That these books belong to the copie there can be no question. That these books belong to the copie there can be no question. That these books belong to the copie there can be no question. The copie there can be no question and the copie there can be no question. The copie there can be no question and the copie there can be no question. The copie there can be no question and the copie there can be no question. The copie there can be no question and the copie there can be no question. The copie there can be no question and the copie there can be no question. The copie there can be added there can be added the

In the lause Alegerentiation of the Tonis of any one else, from making an impro- now vote against its re enactment, in do not believe, sir, that the most signature upon the wrapper or enve or perverted to improper or unan- and have so successfully met the thorized purposes.

Advertising T

One column one year, One-half, column, one year, One-fourth column, one year One square (10 lines) 1 inser-Every additional insertion, Professional and Business cards not more than 5 lines, per year, Auditor, Executor, Administrator and Assignce Notices, Editorial notices per line, All advertisements for a shorter pe-ried than one year are payable at the time they are ordered, and if not paid the person ordering them will be held responsible for the money.

marking stamps, blanks, stamped en during the same period, and, what velopes, &c., the daily average of which is, I understand, in the neigh-barbood of half a ton in weight. If ence to the wonderful development their night to have them cannot be doubted ; while the letters, almost without numl er, coming to us from car constituents by every mail attest their anxious desire to have them. Heretower Decare provision to enable up artmental, or official-stamp system is any constituents by every mail attest the system it because provision to enable the system it cannot be partmental, or official-stamp system. Upon the sholition of the franking privilege of course it because necess-their anxious desire to have them.

Heretofore, as their representa-the several Departments to transmit placed in charge of one clerk of class and I submit, sir, if all these thou-res, members of Congress have their official mail matter through the two.

ive could not be expected to pay cost of sending these publications or by mail or by express or other of the Executive Departments ; and said ther by mail or by express, or other cans of tracs; ortation, to the con-tuents to whom they belong. As partment to all persons under its direction then by mail or by express, or other stamps and stamped envelopes shall be then is tracs; ortation, to the con-supplied by the proper officer of said De-tuents to whom they belong. As the asked to furnish the paper upon the beak to furnish the beak tof the beak to furnish the beak to furnish to ks, or to contribute a portion of December, 1873, a period of five gers, and 33,780 postmasters; a to would be difficult to prove a negaks, or to contribute a portion of the prepa-expenses incurred in the prepa-ion of the different works for pub tion. It is true, the distribution of the nominal value of $1,190,478.-in the Secretary's office the official post-in constituents and not for the benefit of limited number of documents, 02. ple would not fail to recognize the by them. The Secretary of the Treasury, in sands of officers, and tens of thou-when charged with the duty, some mails, and therefore it was enacted by the fourth section of the act mak distribution of the quota of distribution of the quota of the concess, &c., approved Mar. 3, 1873... That the following amounts, er sa much section of the Chief of Engineers, the ment believe model and in the following amounts, er sa much section of the chief of Engineers, the ment believe model and in the following amounts, er sa much section of the chief of Engineers, the ment believe model and in the following amounts, er sa much section of the chief of Engineers, the ment believe model and the following amounts of the chief of Engineers and the ment believe model and the following amounts of the chief of Engineers and the following amounts of the chief of Engineers and the ment believe model and the following amounts of the chief of Engineers and the terms of the chief requirements distribution of the quota of the second of the second distribution of the quota of the second distribution, and bene-tarking this distribution, and of second distribution, and of point of site $85,000; for Point of the second distribution of the quota of the second distribution of the second distribution of the second distribution of the quota of the second distribution of the quota of the second distribution distribution distribution distribution distribution distribution distribu

Superintendent of Money Order Sys. are applied to private or unofficial and just as reasonably, might requiring the same for official use. Under this act there were furnish the paper upon d to the Executive Department of the function of the function of the system.

mails. ing 1873 to $15,340,020 00.

78.821, 00.

postage-stamps are in the custody of our constituents and not of ourselves; oppressively onerous, but the bridge is the same whether the ount is small or large, and the ple would not fail to recognize the March 3, 1873, at $535,000 00. clerk in immediate charge of the doc- in the hands of the officers designat justice of the burden to which every tamber of Congress would be sub-ted by a repetition of similar to officers and clerks of the Treasury Department and others, as may

To meet also the apprehension of the country which has no hargery and imperatively demanded a cor-the very able, energetic, and vigilant the would be increased by that country which has no hargery and imperatively demanded a cor-the very able, energetic, and vigilant the second by that whether the country which has no hargery and imperatively demanded a cor-the very able, energetic, and vigilant the second by that the country which has no hargery and imperatively demanded a cor-the very able, energetic, and vigilant the second by that the country which has no hargery and imperatively demanded a cor-the very able, energetic, and vigilant the second by that whether the country which has no hargery and imperatively demanded a cor-the very able, energetic, and vigilant the second by that the second by that the second by that the second by the To meet also the apprehension of the very able, energetic, and vigilant head of the Post Office Department, but wholher the country who has imagarated so many ac the knowledged improvements, and, with the aid of this faithful and intelligent to assistants, has succeeded in estab-libiling and maintaining the most complete, efficient, and admirable postal system in the world, and re-cognizing the force of his objection that there might, at times, be diffi-ently in providing immediate means for the expeditions transmission of the stable from the city of Washington of the other mail matter, upon a few of the trunk fines, and particularly these bill a provision authorizing the Post-master Genoral, if the welfare or ex-tigencies of the service shall require. To make rules and regulations delay ing in whole or in part the transmis-sion of these of counces and peckage static as the set free discussion of the matter Genoral, if the welfare or ex-tigencies of the service shall require. To make rules and regulations delay ing in whole or in part the transmis-sion of these of and regulations delay ing in whole or in part the transmis-sion of these of and regulations delay ing in whole or in part the transmis-sion of these of and regulations delay ing in whole or in part the transmis-sion of these of and regulations delay ing in whole or in part the transmis-sion of these of and regulations delay ing in whole or in part the transmis-sion of these of and regulations delay ing in whole or in part the transmis-sion. The complete strike and regulations delay ing in whole or in part the transmis-sion of these of and regulations delay ing in whole or in part the transmis-sion of these of and particularly these are accounted to the service shall require. The and service shall require. The and service shall require. The intervence of the receipts, who were the service shall require. The intervence of the receipts, who were and the complete and the service shall requires the there of the sevence of the receipts of th ges for any period not exceeding thirty days from the time of delivery for mailing. Without troubling the House with a reference, at this moment, to the expenditures of the Department, I prefer to call attention to what seems to me a more legitimate subject of inquiry in this connection—the cost the burried reference I have made to the burried reference I have made to the anomal transportation, of the operatment, showing the records Mexico the excess was $659,524,87. It is manifest, therefore, even from the burried reference I have made to the operatment and length of post-roads in the United States, the andom amount paid for mail transportation, and the amounts of postal records of the inland transportation of the the official records, that these de- and expenditures, at periods of the service upon our mail routes, and with their larger population, greater ment thereof ;

And the increase of compensation n railroad routes, under act of Jarch 3, 1873, at $535,000 00. The whole cost, then, it will be observed, are much in excess and where the mails are beavier, the receipts, it will be observed, are much in excess of the law authorizing the free exon railroad routes, under act of developed resources, and where the The whole cost, then, it will be be observed, are much in excess of change of newspapers, periodicals, and seen, of inland transportation of the mails for the year ended June 30, sparsely populated districts, where free treatation of newspapers to acta-1873-the last year of the franking the mails are lighter, and the distances al subscribers residing or receiving the privilege, and including the unusual greater, the expenses not only exceed same within the county of publication.

The Secretary of the Treasury Department and others, mail partor beying the secret by a repetition of similar the resents the Treasury Department and others, mail partor beying the secret by a repetition of similar the resents the Treasury Department and others, mail partor beying the secret by a repetition of similar the resent by a repetition of the resent by a resent of India inspectors is a such stamps of the resent by a repetition of the resent by a resent by the resent of the resent by a resent by a resent by a resent of the resent by a resent of the resent by a resent of the resent by a resent by a resent of the resent by a resent by resent by resent by a resent of the resent by a resent of the aprison postal stamps, paid for by the Gov- of the country which has so largely Faineetth, 10 New Emiland, to Sayant Georgia, with as many cross posts as the master General should think fir," would more astonishing increase, and yet it w, werve to prove the studied more astonishing p and advancement of the country.

gress amount of all the receipts and of expenditures over receipts of $2, to a statement made from the records inits. It amounted in the fiscal year endsive, with the length of the railcoad portion of the post-roads, the length of ing 1873 to $15,340,020 00. In the estimates for 1875 the Department sets down the esti-mated cost of this service at $15,-