CONVERSATION AT THE

A Life Drama.

Scene, Corner of Sixth & Market Streets,

Time, One O'clock.

STRANGER-What's the price of that coat?

OAK HALL DOORKEEPER-The price is on the ticket, sir, $10.50, in plain figures; same price to everybody.

STRANGER-Oh, pshaw; that's what they all say. You'll take off that 50.

OAK HALL DOOKKEEPER-No, sir; under no circumstances. If that 50 could be scratched the price would have been marked so at first. There is no second price. The figures are down to bottom rock. Should you buy $1,000 of us, nothing could be taken off. We have ONE PRICE to everybody and all are treated alike, whether they buy a single pair of working pants or three suits,

STRANGER-Isn't that pretty stiff?

OAK HALL DOORKEEPER-Nothing stiff intended. Try us. See if we are not patient and obliging. Only we think it fairest for both parties to name at once the lowest price, and stick to it. Small buyers, on our rule, have as good a chance as large ones.

STRANGER-Well, suppose I purchase a garment and it don't fit? OAK HALL DOORKEEPER-Bring it back.

STRANGER-Yes, and perhaps get a worse one in exchange.

OAK HALL DOORKEEPER-No, sir; get no worse one-get your money back. STRANGER-Explain that. You mean, of course, if you can't fit me.

OAK HALL DOORKEEPER-No, sir; we mean that if, within ten days, you bring back the garment unworn and uninjured, your money, cent for cent will be returned to you.

STRANGER-You mean simply, if I don't like the goods.

OAK HALL DOORKEEPER-I mean if you don't like it, or your wife don't like it, or the weather changes, or you find goods somewhere else you like better, or you imagine you have been in any way misinformed, bring back the purchase and take back the purchase money. We give a signed guarantee to that effect. STRANGER-Why, that's a new thing. What is it like?

Oak HALL DOORKEEPER-'Tis a card signed by the firm, binding us in every way. Wait a minute, and I'll show you one.

[He reads over carefully the following Guarantee, which goes with every purchase at Oak Hall.]

We hereby guarantee :

That the prices of our goods shall be as low as the same quality of material and manufacture are sold anywhere in the United States.

- 24. That the prices are precisely the same to everybody for same quality, on same day of purchase.
- Bd. That the quality of goods is as represented on printed labels.
- 4th. That the full amount of each paid will be refunded, if enstoners find the articles unsatisfactory, and return them unworn and uninfaced within 10 days from date of purchase. [Signed,]

WANAMAKER & BROWN.

STRANGER-What is that remark about the quality of goods? OAK HALL DOORKEEPER-It means that the ACTUAL NAME and grade of the goods are printed on the price label attached to every garment in Oak Hall, and that no misrepresentation can be made.

STRANGER-Ah, this looks lovely, to be sure, if you only mean to stand up to it.

OAK HALL DOORKEEPER-We do, and shall stand firmly by these principles as our only rules of business. The people who don't believe it can prove us very easily if they choose.

STRANGER-Well, I'll try you once at any rate.

We think this was a sensible conclusion. Let the people inform themselves of what we are doing at OAK HALL to make excellent Clothing and Cheapen the Prices under our New Order of Business.
