The committee will meet on the first saturday in August.

—The umbrella menders and scissor grinders have put in an appearance.

—The health of Middleburg and its vicinity continues remarkably good.

—It was cold enough on Sunday night for Jack Frost to make his appearance.

—Rosy June is here again, and many of the flower yards and gardens in our town present a most beautiful appearance.

—Two two-horse loads of ropes, puleys &c., passed through this place one day last week for Pittston where a new bridge is to be built over the North Branch.

—Last week one day we had lots of music. Two organ grinders appeared on our streets about the same time, and for two or three hours issued forth charming strains.

—Mr. Abraham Eyer, of New Berlin, has planted about fifteen hundred peach trees, five hundred apple trees and a great many pear, cherry and quince trees on his farm near that place.

—Franklin Twp. Improvements—John Norman building a barn. Christian Shambach building new house. Andrew Kratzer enlarging his house. Josephat Walter repairing his house.

—School districts will receive the appropriations in the order in which their annual reports are received, as there are over 2,000 districts in the state delay in forwarding the required statement, may occasion inconvenience in the districts.

—New suscribers to the Post are steadily being booked and that too without solicitation—conclusion by deduction—that the Post is the best, and most reliable paper and the recognized organ of the Republican party of Snyder county.

—For the whole number of candidates at the late primary election we printed the almost incredible number of two hundred thousand tickets. This is the whole truth and not exagerated—would like to hear from Messrs. Lumbard and Moyer.

—Mr. J. W. Dunmoyer not having the fear of the —— before his eyes, but willfully disobeying the injunction or appeal, as the case may be—"Woodman spare that tree"—has made havoc among the oak and pine on the Shambach farm back of town. He has cleared off the timber, converting it into car, building timbers, posts, rails, ties &c., and has completely fenced the whole farm.

—Somebody has proposed that a tree be planted by every man, woman and child in the United States, next year as a centennial offering to those who may come after them. The idea is a royal one and if carried out it will be a feature which will carry a remembrance of the year to generations yet unborn. Just think of it—forty millions of trees planted to commemorate an important event in the history of our country?

TANNING SKINS.—The following method is recommended for private use in skin tanning: Take equal parts of salt, alum and Glauber's salt, and half a part saltpeter; pulverize and mix. Handle skins and rub the mixture well in three or four times a day, the oftener the better. If there is not moisture enough in the skin to dissolve the salts, put a little water in the latter. We are assured that no moth will attack furs the pelts of which have been thus prepared.

CUTTING FLOWERS.—Never cut flowers during intense sunshine, nor keep them exposed to the sun or wind. Do not collect them in large bundles, or tie them to gogether, as this hastens their decay. Do not pull them, but cut them clearly off the plant with a sharp knife —not with scissors. When taken in door place them in the shade, and reduc to the required length of stal harp knife, by which the tub hich they draw up water is ascend freely; whereas if bruised or lacerated, the closed up. Use pure water t in, or pure white sand in a f saturation, sticking the ends talks into it, but not in a crowc ner. If in water alone, it ought hanged daily; and a thin slice d be cut off the ends of the stalk very change of water.

ON THE MYSTERIES.—A reasonable re d will be given for the satisfactory solution of a question which has bothered us for years. Every one gifted with the faculty of observation, must have noticed in his daily walks, squads of three, four, or a half a dozen individuals—day after day the same faces and forms—loitering in front of stores, hotels, or on the corner of the most traveled streets, apparently engaged in no other business than that of common gatherings and disseminators of town gossip and scandal; or as watchers and commentors on persons—especially females—who pass by. Now, as we cannot suppose this to be a business that pays, the question we want solved is "How do these idlers manage to support themselves in the style they put on?" It is a secret worth knowing. We know many hard working people who would be glad to take a respite from toil occasionally, if they knew how to earn their bread without labor.—Ex.

SAW MILLS, WOODLAND &c.—Steam Saw Mills have for the last three or four years been playing havoc in this county. Many a valuable tract of timber has been sawed into lumber, and hundreds of thousands of feet are piled up in most every township in the county with a ready sale at fair profits, but which cannot be forwarded to purchasers on account of the inconvenience of getting it to the railroad. At almost every Station along the S. & L. piles of lumber may be sold be sold any day but arded until the R. R. is few more years at this g down our timber and y will have robbed itself its valuable lumber. We that there are five thouf good wood land in the are we to build houses, &c., if we have no timd for it, in less than ten just as anxious to have hey are now to cut it —The grass crop will be better than was expected a few weeks ago.

—Wm. Snyder jumped on an ax on Saturday and received an ugly cut in the foot.

—Chas. Specht found two spanish silver dollars last week whilst tearing down an old chimney. One was coined in 1776.

—Tomatoes and Cabbages should have the soil loosened around them as soon as they have recovered from the check they received in transplanting.

—Our borough fathers were taking a look through town last week, since which the people are busily engaged in making new and repairing old pavements, &c.

—Potato Bugs rendering sanitary measures necessary.—It is said, * * that a cargo of disinfectants has been ordered by the board of —— for this Borough. This move toward protecting the healths and lives of our citizens is quite commendable. All the alleys and several of the less frequented streets are rendered almost impassible by the huge piles of dead and decomposing carcasses dumped into them, because there is no room elsewhere. Deodorizers have thus far prevented malaria and miasma.

FRETTING.—There is one sin which it seems is everywhere and by everybody underestimated, tolerated with undue tolerance, and quite as much overlooked in our valuations of character. It is the sin of fretting. It is as common as air, as universal as speech: so common that unless it rises above its usual monotone we do not even observe it. Watch any ordinary coming together of people, and see how many minutes it will be before somebody frets—that is, makes a more or less complaining statement of something or other, which, most probably, every one in the room, or the stage, or the car, or the street corner, as it may be, knew before, and which, most probably, nobody can help. Why say anything about it? It is cold, it is not, it is wet, it is dry, somebody has broken an appointment, ill cooked a meal; stupidity or bad faith somewhere resulted in discomfort. There are always plenty of things to fret about. The days will always have more or less bad weather, or weather inconvenient to somebody's fixed plan. All men go astray, speaking lies and making blunders as soon as they be born. It is simply astonishing how much annoyance and discomfort may be found in the course of every day's living, even at the simplest, if one only keeps a sharp eye out on that side of things. Even Holly Writ says we are born to trouble as sparks fly upward. But even to the sparks flying upward, in the blackest of smoke, there is a blue sky above, and the less time they waste on the road the sooner they will reach it. Fretting is all time wasted on the road.—Ex.

PERSONAL.

Benjamin Franklin Burroughs, Engineer of the State Capital, of Harrisburg, is a living example of energy. A few years ago he was a poor boy and compelled to work hard to sustain life. For over 16 years he worked for a cent and a half a day for his boss, but now he is in possession of a competence. Benjamin is a native of our town and is proud of the fact. A few years ago he made his appearance in Harrisburg as a dispenser of a patent medicine known as "Nature's Assistant." When he came in contact with a person whom he could not persuade to purchase his valuable remedy he invariably presented him a bottle. This trait in Benjamin's character grave him a reputation for liberality which he was not slow in turning to good account. He made Gen. Harrison Allen his firm friend by donating him a bottle of the "Assistant," and the General at once took him under his wing and entered into a co-partnership with him in the manufacture of the 'Assistant.' But Allen was too much of a politician and the business did not thrive, and it was not long before the firm was bankrupt and nature was not assisted a continental, Benjamin claimed that the General devoted all of his time to politics, and appeared to thrive—but he was devoted to his preparation, and did not thrive. So when the business died, Benjamin concluded to enter the political field. He made a break and was successful in receiving the appointment of Fireman. He filled the position with credit to himself and his constituents for a couple of years, when he was invited to go up higher. The position of Engineer became vacant and Mr. B., by his strict attention to duty was invited to accept. He did so and to-day he stands high in the estimation of the people of Harrisburg, and yet higher honors await him.

—If there is one trait in Benjamin's character particularly brilliant it is his penchant for turning an honest penny. He has never been known to let a good chance slip from his grasp, but he cannot be accused of avarice. He is liberal to a fault and his friends fear that his liberality will some day be the cause of his ruin. We are not of that class, however, as we know that Benjamin has too much good sense to allow his hands to run away with his brains.

—Benjamin's great forte is ventilation. He is now concocking a scheme whereby he can ventilate the Capitol building, and do it well. We have no doubt of his success and as it will require only about $1.700, he will have no trouble in securing the assent of the Legislature to the expenditure.

At the State Convention, in Lancaster last week, Benjamin occupied a prominent position on the stand, and used his influence for the nomination of Hartranft and Rawle, and he feels very happy over the result.

We also notice that he has been selected as a petit juror for the next term of U. S. District Court, to meet at Williamsport.

Taking everything into consideration we can point with pride to Benjamin, because he is a native of our town, and his success in life was brought about by his own energy and perseverance. It is true had it not been for "Nature's Assistant," Benjamin would have yet been roaming the hills of Snyder County, but that was the turning point in his eventful career. To-day he stands the peer of any man in the Commonwealth, and his example is worthy of emulation.—Columbia Herald June 2nd.

Ayer's
Hair Vigor,
For restoring to Gray Hair its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. It soon restores faded or gray hair to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed; but such as remain can be saved by this application, and stimulated into activity, so that a new growth of hair is produced. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. The restoration of vitality it gives to the scalp arrests and prevents the formation of dandruff, which is often so unsightly and offensive. Free from those deleterious substances which make up preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts on the hair, giving it a rich, glossy tint, and a grateful perfume.
