THE MYSTERIES. -- A reasonable ie. d will be given for the satis-factory solution of a question which has bothered us for years. Every one gifted with the faculty of observation, must have noticed in his daily walks, squads of three, four, or a half a dozen individuals—day after day the same faces and forms—loitering in front of stores, hour of the next term forms—loitering in front of stores, hotels, or on the corner of the most traveled streets, apparently engaged in no other business than that of common gatherings and disseminators of town gossip and scandal; or as watchers and commentors on persons—especially formales—who pass by. Now, as we cannot suppose this to be a business that pays, the question we want solved is "How do these idlers manage to support themselves in the style they put on?" It is a secret worth knowing. We know many hard working people who would be glad to take a respite from toil occasionally, if they knew how to earn their bread without labor.—Ex.

Deodorizers have thus far prevented malaria and miasma.

FRETTING.—There is one sin which it seems is everywhere and by everybody underestimated, tolerated with undue tolerance, and quite as much overlooked in our valuations of character. It is the sin of fretting. It is as common as air, as unirereing. Is a speech: so common that unless it rises above its usual monotone we do not even observe it. Watch any ordinary coming together of people, ond see how many minutes it will be before somebody freis ed on our streets about the same time, and for two or three hours issaid for the order of people, and see how many find for two or three hours issaid for the charming strains.

Manhood: How Lost, How Restored!

Just yublished, a new edition of Dr. Culiverswell's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure (without medicine) of SPERMATORINERA OF SEMINAL WEAK-DESS OF SEMINAL ORDER IN POTROY, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc., also, Covacumption, Eritary and Fire, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance, ac.

35-Price, in a scaled edvelope, only six cents. The celebrated author in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointinf out a mode of cure at once simple certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure timself cheaply, privately, and radically.

25 This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.
