A Long Sleep.—A young lady by the name of Miss Wallace, residing in Washington township, York county, some days ago, to ease pain, took a teaspoonful of laudanum, and as that did not have the desired effect the dose was repeated, and shortly after that she fell asleep and did not awake for five days and five nights. At last accounts she was doing well.

The Democratic party appears to have discarded every principle which formerly distinguished it from its antagonist. If in the days of Jackson there was any one feature of its creed to which more prominence was given than another, it was its demand for a gold and silver currency. Rag paper money was ridiculed, and nothing would do but the yellow mint drops. Shades of Jackson and Benton, where were you during the sessions of the late Democratic Conventions in Ohio and Pennsylvania. If old Hickory could have appeared in the flesh at either of these conventions, he would have driven the money changers into the street, with as much ferocity as Bill M'Mullin manifested, when he compelled the dignified Chairman of the late convention, at the point of his fist, to resume his seat, after he had ordered an adjournment.—Chambersburg Repository.

Unredeemed Pledges.—When full protection is accorded to every American citizen, white or black, in every State of the Union; when a Republican is as safe in Georgia as a Democrat is in Michigan; when life and property are secure from midnight assassins and plunderers; when the simple utterance, "I am an American citizen!" becomes a better protection to citizenship than the rifle or the knife; when the full fruits of the war are accepted with the same good faith at the South as at the North; when the national debt is so far reduced as to be no longer felt as a burden; when our currency becomes as valuable as gold, and the credit of the nation equal to that of any other government; when our taxes are cut down to the lowest possible limit, and all sections of the country become prosperous through unity of purpose and harmony of action—then the people may consider the claims of Democracy. Until these sacred pledges are made good, the Republican party must continue at the head of governmental affairs.

Go Slow!—The scarcity of evidence that Pershing possesses any of the qualties or characteristics of a "reformer" is instantly seen by the absurd claims set up in his behalf. So far, the only thing discovered to place him on the reform plane is, his passing sentence on some officials in his own county, belonging to his own party, whom a jury had convicted of theft and swindling. Is Judge Pershing's fitness for Governor to be determined by his performance of a very simple duty as a judge? Did anybody expect him to refuse to sentence these convicted Democratic thieves? If not, then why raise such a pother about the act? Judge Stowe, of Pittsburg, also sentenced a couple of county commissioners to the Penitentiary, not for stealing from the people, but for taking bribes. Has any one claimed especial credit for this upright Republican magistrate for the simple performance of that act? Does any Republican clamor for his elevation as a reward for doing his duty? The littleness of this attempt to manufacture a character of honesty for Pershing is doing him no good. People will look on it with astonishment, as a very palpable indication that not much can be urged in favor of a man for whom such inordinate credit is claimed for a very small service. And if the idea is entertained that this uproar will stop inquiry into Pershing's doings when he was in the Legislature, let that insane idea be given up. His record is a most assailable one. And his friends will have all they want—and more than they will enjoy—in defending him from fair attacks for his subserviency to Railroad Monopolies, and malignant Copperheadism during the war for the Union.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

Col. Probert, the Democratic nominee for State Treasurer, is a son in law of Hon. Jesse Miller, of Perry county, Penn'a, who was a member of Congress, and subsequently Secretary of the Commonwealth under Governor Shunk.

☞The story that is going the rounds to the effect that Donaldson, the balloonist, was found in the wilds of Canada and confessed to having thrown Grimwood from the balloon to save his own life is, beyond a doubt, a huge hoax. Such an event could not escape the associate press agents, for Grimwood could hardly have fallen in the lake or woods without striking an agent or interviewer.

☞The bronze statue of Stonewall Jackson which it is proposed to erect in Richmond has arrived at Baltimore. It was presented to the State of Virginia by a number of English friends of the Confederacy, and cost forty thousand dollars. We had an idea the rebellion had been such a costly experiment to its English admirers and supporters that they would not feel inclined to squander any of their means to commemorate those who died in rebellion. But it seems we were mistaken.

Reform at a Discount.—Reform is a grand word, but like Liberty, it has been much abused. The Democratic party in this State is very anxious, in words, for State Reform, and is particularly anxious, on paper, to effect a purification of the State Treasury: but in its actions it belies its words. It prates about reform and demands honesty in our State offices; and then presents as its candidate for State Treasurer, a man with unclean hands and with a record which no real friend of Reform need envy. It preaches Reform and practices the reverse by nominating a man so odious that the President of their Convention was driven into an effort to run away from him. When men like Hendricks B. Wright refuse to muster under Piollett, it is time for all other Democratic friends of decency and honesty to get out of the ranks.—Pittsburg Commercial.

Found Dead in a Corn Field.—On Thursday, August 26th August Miller, a young man living with Mr. William Watson, postmaster at Hopewell Centre, Fawn township, York Co., left home with a dog and gun, to go to S. Adams' Esq., a few miles distant, for crow scalps, and as he had been in the habit of staying from home for several days at a time, Mr. Watson was not uneasy about him until Monday evening, when his dog came home in a starving condition, and after eating very greedily, left, which aroused Mr. Watson's suspicion that something was wrong. He went over to Adams' and found that the young man had not been there, nor had any one seen him. The next morning, Tuesday, he collected the neighbors, and a general search was made through the woods and corn fields, when they were attracted to the place by the disagreeable smell, and found the body of the young man lying in a putrid state, in a corn field, with a hole in the back of his head, his faithful dog lying near, driving away the birds. An inquest was held and a verdict returned that A. Miller came to his death by the accidental discharge of his gun, which was lying by his side, empty, the load having passed out at the mouth, shattering his teeth, and out at the back of his head, causing instant death. His remains were placed in a coffin and buried, after lying exposed to the sun and rain for five days.—Columbia Sp'g.

The General Outlook.—Whether the expectations which have been entertained of an improved condition of trade for the present year are to be realized or not the next ninety days will determine. That these hopes of revival have not been sanguine is true, but the disappointment which may follow their nonfulfillment will be none the less serious. With the exception of a few important localities, the agricultural production has been unusually large, and the favorable prices which prevail for several leading products ought to stimulate an early realization. The movements of crops is the old fashioned legitimate machinery by which to get money into circulation, and thus increase the purchasing and debt paying power of the people, especially in the agricultural localities. That this would be a vital step toward improvement in trade none will deny, following as it does two years of great economy, and in view also of small stocks of merchandise and exceptionally low prices for all staples. Great manufacturing centres and important importing interests ought to be benefitted by the absorbtion of accumulated stocks of goods, and the whole country should feel the thrill of new life in business. A few weeks will determine whether this will be the effect of an immense increase in the wealth of a vast producing class; and though it will undoubtedly take many months to realize this wealth, the operation by which that realization will be carried forward ought soon to be manifest, and the probable result pretty definitely anticipated. We are, therefore, on the eve of a most important and critical season in the commercial history of the country, and close observers will watch with some anxiety the indications which the next few weeks will afford.—American Grocer.

MAINE.

The State Carried by the Republicans.

Portland, Sept 14.

Returns received at the Kennebec Journal office this morning, mostly official from 264 towns, give Conner, Republican, 45,035, Robert's, Democrat, 41,541; Conor's majority, 3,494. The same towns last year gave Dingley 40,907, Roberts 31,674; Dingley's majority 9,433. There are yet 229 towns to be heard from.

The Republicans elect their Governor by about 6000 majority, and will also have a large majority in the House and Senate. Good for Maine.

The Peach Shipment to Europe.—An account was given in the Ledger of the shipment of fine peaches to Liverpool on the steamship Ohio which left this port August 26th. It will be remembered that the peaches were to be kept cool by a large iron tank of ice located in the centre of the apartment, through which a constant current of air was being forced by a small engine located near the apartment. This tank held fifteen tons of ice, and it was believed that quantity would be more than sufficient for the voyage. This appears to have been a mistake in judgment, as a dispatch received yesterday by Messrs. Peter Wright & Sons states that the ice gave out on the 29th of August, only three days after the sailing day. The peaches kept perfectly until September 2, but on their arrival at Liverpool were a mass of rottenness.—Philadelphia Ledger September 8.

☞Between two and three o'clock yesterday afternoon, 13th inst., says the Johnstown Tribune, a lively snow squall was the atmospheric sensation at Cresson and vicinity.

☞Recently a Plattsburg lady, while in church, having become immersed in devotion or sleep, did not move from her pew at the conclusion of the services, and the consequence was that the doors were barred and she was locked in. In a few moments she became fully aware of her situation and started for an exit. Not finding any, she went for the bell rope, and the solemn, mournful ringing of the bell brought the sexton to the church, who gladly liberated her.

☞The number of baskets of peaches carried over the Delaware Division of the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore last week was 8644,500, against 669 000 baskets for the preceding week and 774,000 for the week before that. These figures represent only a portion of the peaches sent to the eastern markets, but they will enable our readers to form an idea of the magnitude of the trade and the number of people employed in its management. During the last three weeks the daily average of shipments of peaches over this single railroad has been 231 car loads.

CHARLES BOYER

Paxtonville, Aug. 30, 1875.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For the relief and cure of all derangements in the stomach, liver, and bowels. They are a mild aperient, and an excellent purgative, being purely vegetable, they contain no mercury or mineral whatever. Much serious sickness and suffering is prevented by their timely use; and every family should have them on hand for their protection and relief, when required. Long experience has proved them to be the safest, surest, and best of all the Pills with which the market abounds. By their occasional use, the blood is purified, the corruptions of the system expelled, obstructions removed, and the whole machinery of life restored to its healthy activity. Internal organs which become clogged and sluggish are cleansed by Ayer's Pills, and stimulated into action. Thus incipient disease is changed into health, the value of which change, when reckoned on the vast multitudes who enjoy it, can hardly be computed. Their sugar coating makes them pleasant to take, and preserves their virtues unimpaired for any length of time, so that they are ever fresh, and perfectly reliable. Although searching, they are mild, and operate without disturbance to the constitution, or diet, or occupation.

Full directions are given on the wrapper to each box, how to use them as a Family Physic, and for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach, and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings, they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression, a large dose should be taken, as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.
