The Post.

Middleburg, Feb. 3, 1876.

J. CROUSE, Editor & Proprietor.

THE Ohio Republican State Convention will meet in Columbus on March 29.

Adrew C. Huston, an old printer, died recently in Northumberland. He taught Hon. Simon Cameron to set type.

THE Democratic National Committee will meet in Washington on the 23d of February, to select a time and place for holding the Presidential Convention.

Hon. Heister Clymer, of this State, has been chosen Chairman of the Democratic National Campaign Committee, with headquarters at Washington.

THE Democratic State Convention will be held at Lancaster on the 22d of March. There are no State candidates to nominate. Delegates to the National Convention will then be nominated.

A CAREFUL measurment of the distance has demonstrated the fact that the visitor to the Centennial, who would see everything on exhibition in the buildings must walk eighty-four and five-eighth miles.

A COLLECTION was taken up at the last meeting held by Moody and Sankey in Philadelphia, for the benefit of the Young Men's Christian Association. The collection amounted to over one hundred thousand dollars.

THE House Judiciary Committee have unanimously agreed to report a resolution recommending the limitation of the Presidential office to one term. The sooner a constitutional amendment to this effect is adopted, the better for the entire country.

THE coal trade is very light, owing to the mild weather. There has been a surplus of coal offering for a long time, and the price for February has been reduced. This reduction has had so little effect in creating a greater demand that the operators have resolved to suspend mining for five weeks, beginning on the 7th of February.

THE newspaper correspondents at Washington have a good time fixing up the Presidential slates for the two great parties of the country. Some of them state that Senator Cameron is now working for Conkling for the nomination, and in the event of Conkling not having sufficient strength he is to throw his influence for Hon. John B. Packer for the position. Another story is that Gov. Hartranft's prospects are rapidly advancing.

ON the first day of the year the general Postal Union Laws went in to effect throughout Europe and the United States. The Postal Union rates between the countries are: five cents per one half ounce on letters; two cents for postal cards; two cents for newspapers each, if not exceeding four ounces, and two cents per ounce on other reading matter and patterns of merchandise. This arrangement, now that it has become general, must prove of the utmost importance to all the nations embraced in it.

THE careless use of coal oil for the purpose of enlivening a fire, in Philadelphia, on Saturday morning last, resulted in the death of a woman forty years of age, and the serious injury of her daughter, who went to the assistance of her suffering mother. Accidents of this character are so common as to excite no emotion save astonishment at the hardihood of the victims of their own recklessness in the use of the dangerous fluid which has brought so many persons to a sudden and terrible death within the last decade.

THE correspondence between Secretary Fish and Government of Spain, in relation to Cuban affairs, has been published, but no new facts have been elicited. The late President's message covered clearly all the points in controversy. It is apparent that our Government is doing everything it can do honorably to preserve peace between the two nations, and to prevent an appeal to arms. But to provide against a contingency that might happen, our navy has been put into an attitude to act with promptness if necessity should require it.

IN whatever form the principles for which Jeff. Davis and the South contended be revived they will be met with unfaltering rigor. Those principles were settled by the war. And the verdict then rendered will be henceforth maintained in all ways, and at all times. The only people who seem blind to this fact are the rebel leaders of the South and the Sam. Randalls and the Sunset Coxs, and Sam. Bowles, and such like cattle, at the North, who would sell themselves and their country to the Devil for a party victory in the next Presidential campaign.

☞ The retreat of Lexington was on the 19th day of April, 1776. From that time up to the surrender of Yorktown in Oct., 1781, the total loss to the American army was eight thousand, all told. The total loss to the British and allies, all told, was about twenty thousand five hundred. What wonderful and more than incalculable benefits to have grown out of the loss of eight thousand men! Surely God must have been with us in that fight.

Battle With a Burglar.

John Hayden, a burglar from Owego, N.Y. entered the house of George A Kent, a tobacconist on Court street, Binghamton, early Saturday morning a week. Kent, hearing a noise, got up and found the burglar in his bedroom, armed with a knife which Kent mistook for a pistol. He told the burglar, who was masked, to take whatever he wanted and go away, and to show that he would not molest him Kent went back to bed.

The burglar seized a watch and chain and a pocket book containing some money, and went into the sitting room, shutting the bed room door, Kent thereupon pinched his baby to make it cry, so that the burglar would not hear his movements, and going to the doorway commenced firing on the burglar, who was standing under a gas light in the sitting room.

They then clinched, and Kent fired two more shots, one of which took effect in the muscles of the burglar's right arm, above the elbow, and the other in the right breast, about two inches below the nipple. The last shot took an upward course and lodged in the man's side. The burglar fell, with Kent on top of him.

While Mrs. Kent was gone for the stove poker to reinforce her husband, the burglar freed himself from Kent's grasp and escaped. He hastened to the house of John Dunn, on Henry street, a half mile away, and, representing that he had been shot and robbed by highwaymen, obtained admittance, and a doctor was sent for to dress his wounds. The police found the burglar at Dunn's an hour later, and took him into custody.

He is badly wounded and in a low condition, and is supposed to be dying. Hayden had no pistol, but had an accomplice in the house with him who was armed with a revolver, but who ran off when Kent began firing. He has not yet been arrested. Hayden refused to give his name. He was sent to the house of correction at Rochester twelve years ago from Binghamton for stealing, and had only been out of jail six months. He is aged about twenty years, is nearly six feet in stature and well built. The affair has created considerable excitement.

BAPTIZED IN A HOG TROUGH.—Abraham Eisenhauer, of Bethel township, Lebanon county, became converted during the recent revival in that vicinity, and was induced to join a sect which believes that immersion only is baptism. Mr. Eisenhauer being a consumptive and too feeble to be taken to a water course for the purpose of baptism, it was decided to perform the solemn ceremony in the house. A trough used for scalding hogs was secured, and filled with lukewarm water. Mr. Eisenhauer was then placed therein and dipped three times with the usual ceremonies accompanying, after which he was taken out and placed in bed. He then remarked that he was going to change shirts, in which he was assisted, after which he suddenly died.

☞ The Mexican government has ordered reinforcements to the Texas border.

☞ Late advices from the Black Hills report very profitable mining in the gold fields.

☞ The oldest married couple in the world, resides in Montgomery county, Indiana. The husband is 113 and the wife 111 years old.

☞ The bill appropriating $1,500,000 to finish the Centennial buildings has passed the House by a vote of 146 to 130. Mr. Stenger of this district voted against it.

☞ There is a rumer very current in Washington that the Republicans are about to make a strong effort to bring Governor Hartranft prominently before the country for President of the United States.

☞ Last year the people of Kansas were edging forward with their hats in hand, asking for cold victuals and cast off clothing, to-day they are chiefly concerned about the lack of adequate railroad facilities for carrying off surplus produce.

☞ Seven heifers, purchased in Kentucky at a cost of thirty-five thousand dollars, arrived in Jersey City on Saturday. They are of the breed known as the "Rose of Sharon," and were bought for parties in England.

JAMES M VANZANDT,

THIS WILL NOTIFY THE PUBLIC

of our intention to put NEW and LOWER PRICES on much of our Stock.

THE YEAR'S CLOSING OUT SALE WILL COMMENCE AT HALF-PAST SIX O'CLOCK, EACH WEEK-DAY MORNING, AND CONTINUE UNTIL OUR FALL AND WINTER STOCK IS SOLD.

THE MAIN FACT IS:

We have made up TOO MANY OVERCOATS and SUITS for this year, and to transfer our Stock into Cash needed for preparation for 1876, we will make certain sacrifices which will be apparent ON AND AFTER WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER FIRST, when we shall have gone through our Salesrooms and cut off Profits, and even a part of the cost, from many of our present prices.

To be very exact in stating this matter, as we do not intend that any advertisement or custom of our house shall mislead the public in the least particular, we think it proper to say, that this Mark Down, whilst it applies to

A THOUSAND AND MORE OVERCOATS, A THOUSAND AND MORE BUSINESS COATS,
HUNDREDS OF DRESS COATS,
SEVERAL THOUSAND VESTS,
SEVERAL THOUSAND PAIRS OF PANTS, and extends throughout our house, yet there are some lots in which (as they have already been marked at close prices,) we shall make no change.

WE DESIRE TO ANNOUNCE THAT THIS IS

OUR FINAL AND ONLY MARK DOWN THIS SEASON,

SO THAT NONE NEED WAIT FOR LOWER PRICES.

THE STEP WE TAKE WILL WONDERFULLY AID THOSE WHO FEEL LIKE ECONOMIZING.

THE TERMS OF THE SALE ARE THE USUAL TERMS OF OUR HOUSE:

1.—No Second or Altered Prices—ONE FIXED PRICE.

2.—Cash from All, to warrant Low Prices.

3.—The Contract on our part, to return money, is a part of the bargain in each case (provided goods are returned unworn.)

4.—A Full Guarantee given for each garment.

The Stock we offer is all NEW, and is not "BOUGHT" or "WHOLESALE" stock, but our own

CAREFULLY MADE CLOTHING.

It will be remembered that our stock always embraces the CHOICEST STYLES of SUBSTANTIAL GOODS, and that EVERY SIZE and SHAPE is provided for both MEN and BOYS. It will also be borne in mind that there is but ONE OAK HALL, and THAT IS AT THE CORNER OF
