

Middleburg, March 2, 1876

J. CROUSE, Editor & Proprietor.

HEADQUARTERS REPUBLICAN STATE COMMITTEE, HARRISBURG, February 1, 1876.

In pursuance of a resolution of the Republican State Committee, adopted at a meeting held in Harrisburg this day, a Republican state Convention, to be composed of delegates from each Senatorial and Representative district, to the number to which such district is entitled in the Legislature, is hereby called to meet in the city of Harrisburg, at twelve o'clock noon, on Wednesday, March 29, 1876, for the purpose of nominating an Electoral ticket and of electing a Senatorial and Representative delegates to represent the State in the Republican National Convention, to be held at Cincinnati, Ohio, on the 14th day of June, 1876. By Order of the Committee, HENRY M. HOYT, Chairman. A. WILSON NORRIS, Secretary.

GEN. BANCROFT, whose trial took place at St. Louis, last week, charged as one of the conspirators, to defend the government in illicit distilling, was acquitted.

The Wisconsin State Republican Committee believes the choice of the people for Presidential candidate is Blaine, yet they deem it inexpedient to instruct their delegates to the National Convention.

CHARLES FRANCIS ADAMS, JR., has made a series of investigations and compiled statistics showing that only one railroad passenger in 7,000,000 is killed, and only one in 1,500,000 is even so much as bruised. In the year 1874 only one person was killed on all the Massachusetts railroads, while 76 were killed by accident in the city of Boston.

The three political virtues taught in the school of Democracy are forgiveness, forcefulness, and justification. In 1865 our lesson was the duty of forgiveness, in 1868 and in 1872 it was forcefulness, and now we are asked to follow the leader of the Confederate choir in the school of justification. Loyal people generally decline to join in the chorus, or to throw up their hats over any agreement that compromises the results of the war.

HANLSON, the colored member of Congress from Alabama, is just now the hero of the Democratic press. He voted for the amnesty of Jeff Davis, and being censured therefore by some of his constituents, writes contemptuously of the "hell hounds" who run the Republican party in his State. This is the Centennial year, you know, and we must all love one another. Hence Hanlson's affection for Jeff, and his "hell-hound" talk to Republicans, thoroughly charms the tender and affectionate Democrats of the State rights and Constitution school.

Is the supreme court of Philadelphia, on February 9th, John D. Lewis, a colored man, made application to be permitted to practice in the courts of the State. Upon an examination of his certificate, issued by the clerk of the supreme court of Mass., and the perusal of a commendatory letter written by Gov. Gaston, of the same State, the court decided to grant the request and admit Mr. Lewis to the bar of Pennsylvania. This is the first instance of a colored man being admitted to practice in a similar privilege having been refused some two years ago.

The snow is so deep in the Little Cottonwood mining districts, Utah, that all travel and transportation of ore is impossible. Snow slides occur every few hours, sweeping down for miles, wrecking cabins and occasionally burying miners so deep in the drifts that a search for their bodies would be in vain.

The snow is eight feet deep on a level in the vicinity of Cass, Nev., and in many places has drifted to the depth of from 30 to 50 feet. Everybody has to travel on snow shoes, and in many places little can be seen of the houses except the tops of the roofs and the chimneys.

ABUNDANCE OF SILVER COIN.—We are told that the Government has on hand $12,000,000 of silver coin available for the redemption of fractional currency, and that the production of silver is so great that there is no vault room for its storage in any of the mints or Sub-Treasuries. The amount of fractional currency in actual use is about $30,000,000. The coinage capacity of the mints is $2,000,000 per month, so that by the first of next January it is practicable to put in circulation an amount of silver coin equal to the volume of the fractional currency. Therefore the policy of issuing silver in place of the small change bills is under advisement in the Treasury department. It is urged that the present gold value of the standard ounce of silver bullion being $1.03, and the coming rate $1.24-1.19, the difference between the export and nominal value of such coins is 16 cents and 4 mills. The gold premium would have to advance and remain for some time at 17 before the coins could be exported at a profit, freight and insurance, about 1 per cent, being taken into the calculation. While all the conditions of the market indicated the probability of the silver coins remaining in circulation when once put out, it was also demonstrated that if authority was given by law for the exchange of silver coins at par for greenbacks, and vice versa, it would insure beyond question the concurrent circulation of the two.

A man is serving out a year in the Wisconsin State Prison who was convicted of robbing the mails of 25 cents. Since he has been confined there the letter has been returned from the dead-letter office with the 25 cents enclosed. The man served in the army, and was discharged with the rank of captain.

A Vermont newspaper says that a man in Proctorsville caught a pickerel, the other day, weighing two and a half pounds, inside of which was another pickerel, which measured nine inches in length; and inside of this was still another, which measured five inches in Presidents.

The following table, prepared for reference, shows the political sentiments and the date of the inauguration of each President, the length of time he lived after that event, and his age at the time of his death:

- 1. George Washington, Independent, inaugurated 1789; lived 10 years; age 68.
2. John Adams, Independent, inaugurated 1797; lived 29 years; age 90.
3. Thomas Jefferson, Democrat, inaugurated 1801; lived 25 years; age 83.
4. James Madison, Democrat, inaugurated 1809; lived 27 years; age 85.
5. James Monroe, Democrat, inaugurated 1817; lived 11 years; age 73.
6. John Q. Adams, Whig, inaugurated 1825; lived 23 years; age 81.
7. Andrew Jackson, Democrat, inaugurated 1829; lived 16 years; age 78.
8. Martin Van Buren, Democrat, inaugurated 1837; lived 25 years; age 80.
9. W. H. Harrison, Whig, inaugurated 1841; lived 1 month; age 68.
10. John Tyler, V. P., Independent, inaugurated 1841; lived 21 years; age 72.
11. James K. Polk, Democrat, inaugurated 1845; lived 4 years; age 54.
12. Zachary Taylor, Whig, inaugurated 1849; lived 16 months; age 66.
13. Millard Fillmore, V. P., Independent, inaugurated 1850; lived 24 years; age 74.
14. Franklin Pierce, Democrat, inaugurated 1853; lived 16 years; age 65.
15. James Buchanan, Democrat, inaugurated 1857; lived 11 years; age 77.
16. Abraham Lincoln, Republican, inaugurated 1861; lived 4 years and 14 months; age 56.
17. Andrew Johnson, V. P., Independent, inaugurated 1865; lived 10 years; age 67.
18. General Grant, Republican, inaugurated 1869.
Tyler and Fillmore were elected Vice Presidents as Whigs and Johnson as a Republican. Their "independence" followed their inaugurations as Presidents.

POPULATION OF THE COUNTRY.—There are some notable deductions to be made from the census taken in a number of the States during the last year. One of the most noticeable is the abstention from the polls of a large number of citizens. In fact, this evil seems to be on the increase. As to increase of population, the returns from fourteen States (in one of which, Michigan, the census was taken in 1874) show an addition to that of 1870 of not less than 2,000,000 persons. The accurate character of the returns from three States—South Carolina, Louisiana, and Texas—are disputed. In the two first named States the enumerations are asserted to have been incompetent. In Texas the returns are an estimate based on a school census. The actual increase in the other eleven States is 1,612,000. This makes approximately an increase for the whole country of about six millions. The present decade when it closes will show a large or proportionate increase than any of those who have preceded it.

Since he has been confined there the letter has been returned from the dead-letter office with the 25 cents enclosed. The man served in the army, and was discharged with the rank of captain.

THE $30,000 RACE.

SAN FRANCISCO, February 22.—The attendance at the Bay race track to witness the four mile and repeat race for the $30,000 purse was very large being estimated at 29,000. The track was in fine condition, and the weather fair, with light wind. Rutherford was the favorite in the pools. The following horses started: Rutherford, Foster, Hock-Hocking, Chance, Katie Peace, Revenue, Golden Gate. Both heats were won by Foster, Rutherford second and the rest distanced; time, 7:38, 7:53.

If the local elections in the cities of this State indicate anything in the political line it is that the people are not hungering after Democratic victories. Harrisburg, Allentown, Erie, Williamsport, Meadville, Reading, Titusville and the leading boroughs report little or no change for the Democratic side. True the independent voter has been abroad rather extensively in all of them, but, as a rule, he has not been playing bob to the Democratic kite. In Philadelphia there is hardly a single member of Councils elected, excepting Mr. McMillen, who was chosen because of his Democracy.—Philadelphia Times.

The Maine Legislature has abolished the death penalty, and substituted imprisonment at hard labor for life.

The Centennial bill was signed by the President "with a pen made of a quill from the wing of an American eagle."

Miss Annie M. Rhawn, of Milton, was married recently, and the same issue of the paper that contained the announcement of the wedding also recorded her death.

A woman convicted of murdering her husband, is a prisoner in the jail at Barboursville, West Virginia. She is nearly crazed by remorse, imagines that phantoms are constantly with her in the cell, and believes that hanging can alone free her from further torture. Not long ago she tried to induce several friends to raise a mob and lynch her, and she has sent several letters to the Governor asking to have her execution set down for an earlier day.
