Saturday, April 8, Uriah Smith will sell at Public Sale, in the Borough of Middleburg, his interest in a House and Lot and other improvements.

Boys, see how many eggs you can hide for Easter. That festival comes on the 16th of April this year.

Kite time, leap frog season and the marble epoch approach. Therefore is the boy of the period happy.

—All Wanamaker & Brown's woolens are sponged in the piece, on the premises, 6th and Market, Philadelphia.

Moving Day comes on apace, and if you have not secured a habitation for the next year, you had better be looking round.

Corn was generally put away too early last fall and much of it is spoiling. Some farmers have found half of their crops mouldy in the crib

—We learn that H. A. Bolig has leased the Fairmount Hotel, kept by George Guyer, in Franklin township. Henry knows how to keep hotel.

—If any of our subscribers intend to change their Post Office address this Spring, they should not neglect and let us know in time. We cheerfully change the address of any of our subscribers at any time if desired to do so.

It is always a safe rule, that when you hear a man or woman very much abused, to incline to think better of them, and to transfer suspicion to the person who appeared to take delight in pointing out the defects of a fellow creature.

—People going to Harrisburg will find the Laudis Hotel, near the Cumberland Valley depot, one of the best places in the city to stop at. Mr. A. H. Landis, the proprietor is a kind, genial landlord, and will spare no pains to make his guests comfortable. Terms reasonable.

—On Monday night a week some person left a big full of corn, at Mr. Chas. Snyder's corn crib, in Franklin twp. The owner of the bag is requested to come forward, peace property, and take the bag, (minus the corn) away, or he—we mean the bag—will be dealt with according to law.

Say what you will of leap-year privileges, there are a good many fellows who would be delighted to have their sweet-hearts step up and pop the momentous question, lacking the nerve to do it themselves. Go for them, girls, if they're worth having; they'll find their nerve after marriage

An exchange goes for the church-door loafers thusly: "We are sure that no gentleman will be caught standing among the puppies that infest the church doors, watching for the ladies to come out; and no lady will accept an escort who presents himself from a crowd of such contemptible ninny-bummers."

COAL ASHES FOR PEAR TREES.—Coal ashes have a wonderful effect upon pear trees, especially those growing in light soil. Our ashes of last winter were used around trees in liberal quantities, and those thus treated have outgrown anything in the orchard. Some that were even sickly, and apparently ready to give up their hold on life, have been restored to perfect health by these remedies.—Peninsula News.

—It is urged upon all persons who own ground, large or small, whether in city or country, town or village, to plant a tree on the first day of April, next, that our children and our children's children may know and remember as the tree planted by patriotic hands in the first centennial year of the republic. Some of the tree thus planted will doubtless be standing when the nation celebrates its second centennial and will by that time be objects of not a little curiosity. Our tree has been engaged.

When you see a man that shuffles loosely along, with his knees knocking together and his toes pointing in—whose eyes roll furtively and whose hand is very suddenly jerking itself above his head as if warding off a blow, you can rely upon it that that man is haunted by a mother-in-law—but when you see a party who lifts his feet high, and holds his nose in the air, and has one eye shut in a knowing manner,, and whose mouth is distended with a self complacent grin, and who seems to feel good all over; you can bet your last cent he has just bought a new "Domestic" sewing machine for his wife.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—Miss Woodling, daughter of Samuel Woodling of Penn Township a young lady about fourteen years of age received a painful and perhaps a fatal wound in the head, on Monday last. The facts, as we are informed are these: Miss Woodling went to Isaac D. Boyer's, a relative, where there was a public sale of the personal property, of Mr. B. who is about to remove west. James Boyer, second cousin to Miss W. had taken from a box a revolver which he intended to offer for sale, and in making an examination of the pistol it was accidentally discharged, the ball taking effect immediately above Miss Woodling's right eye, penetrating the head and lodging against the back part of the skull. Doctors Stem, Sheetz, Hottenstine and Wagonseller severally examined the wound.

To-day, Tuesday, we are informed that hopes of her recovery are entertained. Dr. B. F. Wagonseller is the attending Surgeon.

WORTHY OF NOTICE.—Our readers should not fail to notice the advertisements, of Messrs. Hunter & Co., the well known publishers of the popular "Star Spangled Banner" which have appeared, and are appearing weekly in our columns. The "Banner" is the only paper in the world that exposes every swindler, quack, fraud and humbug. Besides it is a splendid family visitor, and its premiums are alone worth twice the price of the paper. Messrs. Hunter & Co., after twenty years of increasing success, stand at the head of their class of dealers. Send them a trial order, or send for catalogues.

The Supreme Court of this State has just decided that orders drawn by a president of a board of school directors upon the treasurer of a school board, are not negotiable bill or orders, but mere warrants for the payment of money to the persons to whom they are issued, to be disbursed by the treasurer under authority of law. They therefore do not authorize a subsequent holder to maintain suit in his own name, as upon a promissory note, bill, or order. They do not possess the ordinary properties of a mere contract, but are a statutory means of drawing the public money out of the hands of the legal custodian of the funds of the district.

DEATH OF REV. C. G. ERLENMEYER.—The death of Rev. C. G. Erlenmeyer, at Freeburg, on Monday, March 6th, 1876, aged 68 years, is worthy of note, having been a citizen of that place for many years and having been popular among all people—not popular in the ordinary acceptation of the term, but by reason of the great respect entertained for him by all classes. He was a native of Germany and came to this country when a young man. At school he was a companion of some of Germany's most distinguished men, among whom was Strouse, the distinguished author of the Life of Christ, whom he looked upon as one of the most remarkable men he ever knew. Mr. Erlenmeyer himself was a ripe scholar.

He has faithfully labored as a pastor of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, at Freeburg and several others in the county since 1812. He performed probably more marriage ceremonies and conducted more funeral services than any clergyman that ever lived in the county. His circle of acquaintance extended far and wide, and his death will be greatly lamented wherever known.

His funeral took place on the 9th inst. The horse which bore the remains were drawn by Father Erlenmeyer's horse which was in fulfillment to a request made by him sometime previous to his death.

The funeral discourses were delivered by Rev. Anspach, from St. John 12 ch. and 25 verse; Rev. Kunz, 23 Samuel, 3, 38 verse, and Rev. Reed, 14 Timothy, 5, 7, 8 verses. Revds. Born, Early and Edmonds were also present and participated in the exercises. It was the largest funeral that ever took place in Freeburg. The number of people present were estimated at from twelve to fifteen hundred.

Mr. death resulted from Pneumonia, after an illness of but nine days.

"DOLLAR SALES" have been quite a cloud in years past, and as now know of only one reliable house in the business. We refer to Orbison & Co., whose advts. appear in our paper. The firm is reliable. They are endorsed by over three hundred publishers, several of whom have been dealing with them for years. If you want to buy a dollar watch or anything else, cheap, send for a circular, and their list of bargains, covering nearly everything desirable. Many ladies make large pay in getting up clubs, and we believe it will pay to give the house a trial. They send catalogues, papers, etc., etc., free to all.

—A sensible correspondent of one of our exchanges makes the following remarks:

Parents, don't interfere with your sons when they fall in love with a decent, respectable young lady, or you may live to be sorry for it. It is no use to say "she is a poor creature," or "she can't work," or "she don't know what to do. It is your place to teach her all kinds of useful work (unless the girl is already well versed in them) and if you have a daughter of your own, you would not like to have her married to a person that knew nothing about work and all kinds of sewing, and is decent and respectable in that.

Parents, get acquainted with the young lady and see what she is worth, then find fault.

The Central Pennsylvania Conference of the Evangelical Association, which recently adjourned, made the following appointments for the Lewisburg District:

Shoemaker; Union Circuit, S. Smith; Millheim Circuit, L. Dieffenbach. Presiding Elder—Trevorton Circuit, T. M. Peck. Professor of Theology—Prof. F. M. Baker and Prof. J. W. Hentz of Union Seminary, and members of Union Circuit Quarterly Conference.

ADVICE TO FARMERS' WIVES.—When "father's" business friend drives into the yard about half past eleven, the good wife knows that he will surely stay to dinner. Father is a great story-teller, and he likes to get hold of a new auditor. How aptly comes a frown of dismay and displeasure on the smooth, fair face of his helpmeet. What can be done? Work is going according to the day's plan in the kitchen; the dinner was arranged for none but the family; the children are coming home from school and making a clatter; all is bustle and confusion. She feels that the best dishes must be used, and something extra cooked for the important guest. Now good woman, don't do it. Your fine dinner, with its attendant irritation and "upsetting," will taste no better than what you had prepared. Make no difference in your plans, but seat your visitor with a smile and easy greeting at your hospitable board, and he will feel more comfortable and happy than though you gave him a banquet. You save temper and trouble, and gain the enjoyment of giving your friend a real cosy time. A sensible person knows that farmers do not have six courses upon their table daily, and the wholesome, hearty fare, with good nature and hospitable cordiality, will be far more enjoyable than a grand dinner.

West Beaver---District Institute.

The fifteenth session of the West Beaver Teachers' Association was held at Felker's school, Saturday, March 4th, 1876, when the exercises followed: Reading of scripture, followed by prayer and singing.

Roll-call was responded to by J. M. Lepley, J. W. Spangler, J. O. Wagner, D. B. Wetzel, Ira Filson, T. A. Wagner, R. E. Filson, Adam Smith and D. O. Shoop.

Minutes of last meeting were read, and after a slight change, were adopted, after which the financial business was transacted.

Primary Reading.—This subject was the first one submitted to the teachers, and J. W. Spangler opened the exercise by calling out a number of his pupils, and having them read from the blackboard. Mr. S. was followed by D. B. Wetzel, R. E. Filson, Adam Smith, and Ira Filson. The Institute then adjourned until 1:30 p. m.

The afternoon session was opened by singing "Wine is a Mocker." The subject of Reading was resumed by J. O. Wagner and closed by T. A. Wagner.

Arithmetic.—The discussion of this branch was opened by J. M. Lepley, who explained several questions on the blackboard. Adam Smith, D. B. Wetzel, J. O. Wagner and T. A. Wagner also gave their modes of teaching the branch.

Vocal Music was slightly discussed by the teachers; and, as the time for closing had already been passed, the teachers merely gave their methods for teaching it, and then dismissed by singing the "Vesper Song."
