THOUGHTS FOR THINKERS.-A good and wise man may at times be angry Stoves & Tinware, with the world, at times grieved with it; but it is certain that no man was ver truly discontented with the world if he faithfully performed his whole duty in it.

The wounds of Christ were the greatest outlets of his glory that ever were. The divine glory shope more out of his wounds than out of all his life before.

It is easier to find a score of men wise enough to discover the truth than to find one intrepid enough, in the face of opposition, to stand up for the same.

men. Getting up in a cold room to make a fire is like getting up in life, If you crawl timidly out of bed, go on tip toe to the stove, and allow the shivers to get control of you before the kindlings starts, your fire will probably be a failure, and you will alf freeze to death in the operation. But if you jump out bravely, bustle Leave Philadelphia 9.15 am. Reading around, pull on your clothes, knock Potswille, 12, 10 p m. At length, struggling to keep on the top of the disordered heap, it began to roll, then to slide, and at last off it went from the wagon, and the old man with it. "What are you doing down here?" cried the boys. "I came down after hay," answered the old man stoutly.

RULES FOR DAILY LIFE.-Do not express your opinion too freely and decidedly when it differs from those around you, merely for the cake of saying what "I think," when no good will be done. Try to give up your will and way to others in trifles as well as in more important matters, except where principle is involved. Do not complain of little discomforts, but bear them cheerfully.

Try to avoid making disagreeable remarks of any description, and make no unpleasant comparisons. Do not perform disagreeable duties with a martyr-like air, but always cheerfully. Do not indulge the idea that a different position from the one in which God has placed you, you would lead a better or a happier life.

How FAR WILL BEES GO FOR HONEY? -The above question, we believe, has never been satisfactorily answered. A bee keeper once tried the old experiment of dusting his bees with flour as they left the hive, then rode to a heath Fire! Fire!
