Are All the Children In?

The darkness falls, the wind is high, Dense black clouis fill the western sky ; The storm will soon begin : The thunders roar, the lightnings flash I hear the great round rain drops dash-Are all the children in ?

But future days are drawing near-They'll go from this warm shelter here, Out in the world's wild din : The rain will fall, the cold winds blow, I'll sit alone and long to know, Are all the children in ?

Will they have shelter then secure, Where hearts are waiting strong and sure And love is true when tried ? Or will they find a broken reed. When strength of heart they so much need, To help them brave the tide ?

God knows it all ; Ills will is best I'll shield them now, and yield the rest In his most righteous hand . Sometimes souls he loves are riven By tempest wilds, and thus are driven Nearer the better land.

If he should call me home before The children go, on that blest shore, Afar from care and sin : I know that I shall watch and wait Till He, the keeper of the Gate, Lets all the children in.
