The Post.

Middleburg, April 6, 1876

J. KROUSE, Editor & Proprietor.

It is stated from Washington that experienced members from Congress who have been discussing the question of the adjournment of that body, "are at a loss to see, according to present appearances," how the adjournment can take place before the Fourth of July.

KEEPING the pay of a few Government officials so close to their noses as to fail to see larger public interest beyond is the present policy of the Democratic leaders in the House of Representatives. While Democracy is striving to save a few millions by cutting down needed appropriations, hundreds of millions are being lost for the want of necessary legislation to revive public industry.

ASH now Hill, of Georgia, says the Philadelphia Times, threatens the Democracy of the House with another set speech in vindication of himself and the South. The answer to his first speech is given by New Hampshire in some 3,000 Republican majority, even with the mill stone of Belknap about the neck of the party, and if Hill shall repeat his folly, how much will Connecticut give against Ingersoll?

EDWIN BOOTH, the actor, brother of the assassin of Mr. Lincoln, has been on a professional tour South, and has met with a most enthusiastic reception—so much so as to excite comments, and expressions of opinion that the crime of his brother has something to do with warming the Southern heart towards him. A Cleveland (Ohio) lady visiting Georgia, in writing to a friend at home, says: "Edwin Booth is playing here to crowded houses, hundreds coming in from the towns around. They all admire him greatly, and they like him still better because his brother killed Mr. Lincoln."

THE net results to the Treasury from the exposure of the whiskey frauds are estimated by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue at $3,365,275 in certain prospect, and an indefinite amount in possibility. The amount already conveyed into the Treasury is $185,503. The number of persons under indictment is 243, of whom sixty-nine have pleaded guilty. Still the watchward is: "Let no guilty man escape." It is hoped and believed by those conversant with the facts that the developments in the Belknap case will not for a moment divert the Treasury officials from their prosecution of the whiskey thieves. Public opinion has certainly been stimulated to pursue corruption in all directions.

AN important ruling was made in the United States Circuit Court in New York, last week, by Judge Wallace, in the suit of Berre vs. Adams express Company, before a jury. The case involved a legal construction of a clause in the express company's receipt, limiting its liabilities to $50, unless the value of the package shall be stated by the shipper at the time of shipment. The court rules that the receipt was a binding contract and that the plaintiff did not state the value of his shipment at the time of the delivery to the express company the responsability of the latter was limited to $50, and plaintiff could only recover that amount, even though the actual loss had been occasioned by the neglect of the defendent.

☞On Wednesday afternoon about 400 pounds of "Jupiter" powder, stored in a mill at Washingtonville, near New York city, exploded, blowing four men to atoms, and severely injuring six others, of whom one or two will die. Several buildings in the vicinity were badly shattered.

☞A miner named Munsun recently found in the Globe mining district, Arizona, a solid mass of metallic silver ore lying on the surface of the ground and weighing 2,200 pounds. A careful and low assay of it showed it to be almost a mass of pure silver, and worth $20,000 at least.

☞Ever since it became the fashion for ladies to wear the feathered skins of small birds in their bonnets and hats, these unfortunate winged creatures have had a hard time of it. A Paris journal stated that in 1875 about 125,000 humming birds had been slain and skinned in various countries of the New World, merely to figure and flash, at the behest of fashion, in the fanciful head dress of the fair sex. It has come to such a pitch now that almost any bird if it only were small enough, becomes the spoil of the modiste. So considerable has the slaughter been in the North of Italy and in parts of the Tyrol that their protection has been made the subject of a diplomatic treaty between Italy and Austria. Moreover, the governments of these countries are now negotiating with France and Switzerland for a law forbidding the destruction of all insectivorous birds. Since the wholesale destruction of swallows, martins, &c., caterpillars and insects have so much increased as to be fatal to agriculture, and garden and woods in many European countries are becoming quite deserted. The winged visitors. It is very much so in the United States, at least as regards the cities and towns, in which imported birds have within a few years in creased multiplied remarkably. The boys, however rude and cruel, with their sticks and stones and guns, which hop about his feet within hand's grasp.

Republican State Convention.

HARRISBURG, March 29.—The Republican State Convention assembled in the Opera House, this city, at 12 o'clock M. Among the delegates were most of the leading men of the party, who participated in the proceedings with an interest and spirit that evinced a determination to deliberate for the good of the country and party. No wrangling or disturbing elements were present and the proceedings were marked by a harmony and enthusiasm seldom seen in political conventions.

Convention was called to order at 12 o'clock by Col. H. M. Hoyt, Chairman State Central Committee. The roll of delegates was called by A. Wilson Norris, Secretary, and every district reported fully represented.

The nomination of Gen. Wm. H. Koontz, of Somerset, for temporary Chairman was unanimously approved, and upon taking the chair delivered a very suitable address.

Committees, were then appointed on, contested seats, to draft resolutions, for permanent organization, and names to the Cincinnati convention, after which a recess was taken until 2 o'clock p. m.

SECOND SESSION.

The Convention reassembled at 3 o'clock. Chas. H. Fetterman, from the committee on permanent organization reported the following for permanent organization.

President.—Edward M'Pherson, of Adams.

Mr. M'Pherson was escorted to the chair by Hon. John I Mitchell and W. P. Wilson, the band playing "Hail to the Chief."

The following gentlemen were selected as Electors:

ELECTORS AT LARGE.

Benjamin H. Brewster, Philadelphia.
John W. Guckfant, Allegheny.

ELECTORS.

1 John Welsh, Philadelphia.
2 Henry Disston, Philadelphia.
3 Christian J. Huffman, Philadelphia.
4 Charles Thompson Jones, Philadelphia.
5 Edwin A. Fitler, Philadelphia.
6 Dr. Benjamin Smith, Bucks.
7 J. W. Bernard, Chester.
8 Jacob Knabb, Berks.
9 John B. Warfel, Lancaster.
10 Dr. Joseph Thomas, Bucks.
11 Ario Pardee, Luzerne.
12 Lewis Pughe, Luzerne.
13 Edward S. Silliman, Schuylkill.
14 William Calder, Dauphin.
15 Miles L. Tracy, Wayne.
16 S. W. Starkweather, Lycoming.
17 Daniel J. Morrell, Cumbria.
18 Jeremiah Lyons, Juniata.
19 William Hoy, York.
20 William Cameron, Union.
21 J. B. Donelly, Fayette.
22 Daniel O'Neill, Pittsburg.
23 William Neeb, Allegheny.
24 Andrew B. Berger, Lawrence.
25 Samuel M. Jackson, Armstrong.
26 James Westerman, Mercer.
27 W. W. Wilber, Warren.

The following were elected delegates to the Cincinnati Convention:

Delegates at Large—J. D. Cameron, W. R. Leeds, H. M. Hoyt, R. W. Mackey.

Delegates from this the 18th Congregsional district: John Stuart, John Wister; Alternatives, W. H. Wood, Frank. Schoch.

Mr. Strang, from Committee on Resolutions, offered the following resolutions:

Resolved, That we hereby reaffirm the platform adopted by the Republican State Convention at Lancaster in 1875, and, in view of recent events at Washington, we emphatically endorse that part of which demands "honest men in office—men with brains enough to know dishonesty when they see it, and have courage enough to fight it whenever they find it." The Republican party is committed by its origin, its traditions, its history and its duties to an intrepid and honest administration of public affairs, and wherever—in National, State or municipal life—maladministration has existed, or does exist, we demand that it be exposed and corrected, and the guilty punished; and to this end we pledge the full measure of our support as citizens and as voters.

Resolved, That we look to the Cincinnati Convention to give us candidates for President and Vice President who are above suspicion, and in whose personal integrity the nation can most surely trust; and that we also look to our friends throughout the State to make sure that, in presenting candidates for Congress and the Legislature, they select those only who are known to be honest, capable and faithful to the Constitution.

Resolved, That the Republicans of Pennsylvania, having nothing in their past history which they wish to blot out, or to apologize for, or would have the nation forget, arraign the Democratic leaders in Congress, and their abettors, for the preference shown to the deadly principles, and for the subserviency shown to the defiant leaders of the late Confederacy, now dominating them for their removal from office of Union Soldiers and appointment of Confederate soldiers; for the repeated indications of a purpose, only controlled by fear, to open the Treasury of the nation to alarming and unjust pecuniary demands from the insurrectionary States; for their persistent effort to force amnesty upon men too proud or unrepentant to ask it, or too guilty to deserve it; and for the combined recklessness and cowardice of their course on financial questions—a recklessness which mischievously holds out a threat to overthrow existing laws, and a cowardice or incapacity to originate a substitute for them—all which exposes the Democratic party as without a national instinct, or an unsectional impulse, or an affirmative policy, and as unfit to be trusted by the country which, when last under their control, they madly hurried into the vortex of Civil War.

Resolved, That recent events in the late slave States clearly expose a purpose on the part of the Democratic party to seize them all, and wield them, as a unit, in the next Presidential election; that to this end brutal and bloody conspiracies have been made to coerce voters, and base legislative conspiracies are at this moment in operation in order that an unprincipled and fraudulent majority may deprive properly chosen officers of their legal rights; and as against these outrages we take an appeal to the people of the nation.

Resolved, That the common safety demands that our public schools shall not only be free to all, but shall be preserved from all special or partial control. All attempts to divide the school fund, for any purpose whatever, or to divert any portion of it into any channel not under popular control, is to be frowned upon and resisted with unyielding firmness. The recent defeat in the Democratic Legislature of Maryland of a constitutional amendment to secure the common school fund of that State against division, reveals at once a grave danger and its source, and with other like facts make plain the duty of Congress to submit such an amendment to the Constitution of the United States as, when adopted, will effectually defend the Common School system from all enemies, open or covert.

RESOLVED, That the attempt of the Democratic House of Representatives at Washington, in the face of the depressed condition of American industry, to inflict upon the nation a free trade tariff is an insult to the intelligence of the people, and an evidence of the inability of the Democratic party to meet the present wants of the country, by further suffering industries to rot in a higher, not in a lower, tariff.

RESOLVED, That the neglect of the public business of the State by the present majority in the lower branch of the Legislature, and the plainly apparent purpose of that majority to needlessly prolong the session with the sole object of thereby increasing their pay, is worthy of the strongest censure and most decided rebuke, and persisted in, awaken the just indignation of an outraged people.

RESOLVED, That the uniform policy of the Republican party of Pennsylvania in keeping down the burdens of taxation while steadily respecting the public credit, should be persistently maintained; that the appropriations, not for the public expenditures should be confined to the civil expenses of the State Government, the support of her public and soldiers' orphan schools, and the efficiency of her reformatory and penal institutions.

RESOLVED, That the recommendation by Governor Hartranft of a uniform system of municipal government throughout the State, and of the adopting of effective measures to prevent a further increase of municipal indebtedness, is worthy of all commendation, and should be put into practical operation at as early a day as possible.

RESOLVED, That in recognition of the eminent services, both in the field and cabinet, the rare executive ability and the unswerving rectitude of Governor John F. Hartranft, the Republicans of Pennsylvania, with joy unbounded, present his name to the consideration of the delegates at the Cincinnati nomination for the Presidency of the United States, in the full confidence that the great public services he has rendered his administration of State affairs a model, even in the annals of political life, would insure as wise, a pure, unflinching, honest statesmanship in conduct of the vast and varied interests of the nation, and that the delegates from Pennsylvania to the National Republican Convention are hereby instructed to present Governor Hartranft's name to that body and support the delegates of Pennsylvania, and to give him all earnest, devoted and united support, and upon all questions to be brought before or arising in the Convention to cast the vote of Pennsylvania as a unit as the majority of the delegation shall direct.

The reading of the platform was frequently interrupted with applause, at which followed the reading of the school resolution being loud and continued.

The resolutions were unanimously adopted.

A resolution was unanimously adopted, retaining Gen. H. M. Hoyt as Chairman and A. Wilson Norris as Secretary of the State Central Committee.

Samuel A. Wetzel, Beavertown, is on the committee from this county.

After the appointment of the State Central Committee, the Convention adjourned.

Governor Hartranft has signed the county salary bill; also the bills making appropriations for an educational display and for a State building at the Centennial.

Secretary of State Fish is advised that the revolution in Mexico has assumed such proportions that it is believed it will result in the complete overthrow of the present government.

A MATTER OF POPULAR INTEREST.

We condense from the LeMat Bonder the substance of a conversation about Oak Hall, in Philadelphia, "the manmaker & Brown's" "Largest Clothing House in America." A visitor and attendant are the speakers:

Visitor. "What corner is the Building on?"

Attendant. "South-East corner of Sixth and Market. Please note the SIXTH, for some strangers seeking Oak Hall, have been misled by designing persons."

V. "It is perfectly colossal! Do you know its dimensions?"

A. "12,000 square feet—66 on Market, and 199 on 6th, six stories high, has over three acres of floorings and covers space once occupied by a dozen or more different business places, and employs over twenty different trades."

V. "Do you use steam-power?"

A. "A giant young engine furnishes power for the freight and passenger elevators, and the boilers steam for heating, and the other operations of the house."

V. "What order do you take with goods?"

A. "They are first opened and arranged in the basement on long low counters, and taken thence on the freight elevator to the inspector's room on the fourth floor."

V. "Is inspecting the first operation?"

A. "No, sir, measuring. The goods are first measured in the piece, then inspected. The cloth passes over rollers in the face of a strong light, and two men sit, one before and one behind the goods, watching with the eye of a hawk for the least pin-hole imperfection, and marking every flaw, so that the cutter may see and avoid it when he comes to cut the garments."

V. "You must employ an army of cutters?"

A. "Come to our fifth floor and see! We keep 70 hands all the time cutting up the cloth into garments,—besides 30 machines that do a dozen men's work each in a stroke."

V. "Do you manufacture all your own goods?"

A. "We do, and most carefully. Our examiners inspect every stitch and seam, and certify to every garment as extra-well made before we put our ticket on it, and become responsible for it."

V. "Your system must save you a great deal?"

A. "In every direction, sir. It is the system and economy we practice all the way through, that enables us to put our prices down to the people as we do."

V. "After inspecting the work, what becomes of it?"

A. "Before it goes into Stock it is ticketed. Every single garment has its number and other points noted on it, so that its entire history can be traced without fail, upon our books."

V. "You must have 25 or 40 salesmen?"

A. "Why sir, on busy days you may see 100 in the various rooms and suites of rooms, selling to the throngs of customers."

V. "Do you do an order business by mail and express?"

A. "Very great. All over the country. Our perfect system and rules of self-measurement make it possible to please people 2,000 miles away just as perfectly as if they were here in person."

V. "I suppose you have at least half a dozen different departments?"

A. "My dear sir! we have more than twenty, each charged with its own business, and each thoroughly organized, a necessary wheel within the great wheel."

V. "Will you name a dozen or so of them?"

A. "With pleasure. The Custom Department, for those who prefer custom-made to ready-made. The Furnishing Department, with its immense stock of all underwear. The Shirt Factory, with its busy machines, making our own first-class shirts. The Trimming Department, itself as big as many a regular store. The Garment Stock Room. The Receiving Room. The Order Department, named before. The Special Uniforms Department. The Delivery Department, with its score of messengers. The—"

V. "Hold, hold! sir, enough!"

A. "I'm not half through! The Advertising Department, with its bill and sign distributors, editing and publishing a business and popular journal, circulating, free, 10,000 copies monthly (tell all your friends to send for it). The Men's Department, with its many rooms. The Boys' Department. The Youths' Department. The Children's Department, with its special entrance for ladies. The Telegraph Department. The Chief Clerk's Department, with its book-keepers and assistants. General Manager's Department; Financier's Office, and other offices of the firm; all busy as bees thinking, planning, executing, buying, making, mastering, receiving, sending out, selling, and in a thousand ways joining their forces to carry on a business with the people amounting to between $2,000,000 and $3,000,000 annually."

V. "Stupendous!"

A. "Indeed it is! I forgot to name the Cashier's Department, which handles its $25,000 of retail sales on some single days!"

V. "Immense! Immense! That's what enables the house to buy cheap and sell cheap!"

A. "Exactly. You have just hit it. The people thinking here, knowing that we depend on low prices and large sales."

V. "What are the 'FOUR RULES' I hear so much about?"

A. "Our system of business dealing—1. One price, no deviation; 2. Cash for everything; 3. A guarantee protecting the purchaser; 4. The money returned if the buyer can't otherwise be suited."

V. "Nothing could be fairer."

A. "Nothing. And the people see it."

V. "Well, I thank you, sir, for your polite attention."

A. "Not at all. It's a pleasure to serve you. Call again; and be sure of the place—Wanamaker & Brown's, Oak Hall, South-East corner Sixth and Market."

V. "Thank you! I shall be happy to do so. Good morning."
