THE POST.

Middleburg, April 6, 1876

Local News, &c.

—All communications, business letters &c., for this office, to secure prompt attention should be addressed as follows: THE POST, Middleburg, Snyder County, Pa. Advertisements, communications &c. must be handed in by Monday noon, to secure insertion in next issue.

SNYDER COUNTY COURTS.—The Courts of Snyder County are held on the fourth Mondays of February, May, and September, and second Monday of December.

Sale Registry.

We will insert short notices, like the following, free of charge, until day of sale, provided we print the bills or advertise the sale:

Saturday, April 8, Mary C. Smith, Adm'x will sell one-half of a house and lot and other buildings, in the borough of Middleburg.

Saturday, April 8, Uriah Smith will sell at Public Sale, in the Borough of Middleburg, his interest in a House and Lot and other improvements.

Monday, April 10, Henry Harkenburg, will sell in Centre twp., Real Estate. Good Improvements fences, fruit etc., etc. See bills or advertisement in the Post.

Tuesday, April 11. At the late residence of P. Harry Smith, in Adamsburg, a large lot of Valuable Household Goods, &c., &c.

Friday April 21. Samuel Bowen and Henry Hochhower adm'rs will sell, in this borough Household goods &c.,

Thursday, May 11. Sam Leitzel assignee of David Meiser, will sell in Middlecreek twp., Grist-mill, Saw-mill, and valuable tracts of land. See large posters.

Don't be afraid to stop us on the street or drop in our office and tell us any local happening of interest.

Most of the township schools have closed their witer sessions, and the boys expect a good time during vacation.

—It is a fallacy to suppose that because a newspaper prints the communications of correspondents it must also endorse their opinions.

The "Guarentee" Wanamaker & Brown give is not a mere nominal thing, but a signed contract protecting those who buy at 6th and Market, Philadelphia.

JUST ARRIVED.—A large assortment of Prints, Ginghams, Bleached and Unbleached Muslins, Alpacas and shirtings. Also a very fine lot of Groceries, cheaper than ever, for cash or produce.

J. W. DREESES'.

It now appears that borough, township and road statements are to be published in April, (at the end of the fiscal year,) and the school accounts in June, which is the end of the fiscal year for school purposes. Local officers should make a note of this.

Mr. Geo. Bolender who has been employed in this office for the last two years, has, on account of impaired health, retired from the printing business for the present. George is an obedient, industrious workman —swift typed and cleaver fellow. We hope the change may be favorable, and that he may soon be in the full enjoyment of health.

Boys, put up a bird box in your garden or yard. Select the best place. Do not put more than one box up, however, as it only stirs up fightings among birds. If you want but one a wren or blue bird to take up a abode upon your premises, have but one apartment in your box; if you want martins, sparrows, or small swallows form your box with a number of rooms, as they live in colonies.

A heavy rain storm visited this locality on Tuesday and Tuesday night of last week, from early morning until late in the evening rain fell in torrents. There was considerable snow on the hills at the time, and on Wednesday the Middlecreek overflowed its banks. No doubt there was considerable damage done by the high water, to bridges, crops &c., on the low lands along the creek.

Good News! Weis & Oppenheimer well known Clothiers of Selinsgrove, have the Eastern cities this week to purchase their spring stock.

The latter part of this week the goods arriving of Mens & Boys clothing, Hats and Gents' furnishing goods will be on exhibition at their store one door above the Keystone Hotel. Everybody is invited to call. Their motto is; Small profits and quick sales. Therefore great bargains will be offered.

In the importance of a subject for writing only on one side of the sheet whenever a correspondent may see his letter in print. This seems so simple, and has been written so often by every newspaper in the world, that it seems that persons of intelligence will yet be found disregarding it. Simple as it is, and self evident as it is nevertheless the cause of adding many an important communication to the waste basket.

The killing of fruit in the bud, frequently occasioned by a few warm days followed by late frosts, it is said, may be prevented by spreading a thick layer of stable manure, or of ice or snow, around the trees, in February or March while the ground is firmly frozen. The object is to be kept back, since the roots will thaw more slowly, and the trees receive no nutriment to the tree. The roots are no longer to be feared and should be removed.

HOUSE PLANTS.—Thousands who have fine plants in pots or boxes fail because they let the pots be exposed to the sun. We never see the roots fully exposed to the sun in a state of nature, and this should teach window gardeners to shade the pots and boxes in which their plants grow. It stands to reason that if the roots are burned and the leaves killed with dust that it is impossible for plants to live and thrive.

USE OF THE COURT HOUSE.—In consequence of the demand for the court room for all kinds of purposes, says the Lewistown Gazette of the 29th ult., the commissioners, at their meeting on the 21st, adopted the following resolution:

RESOLVED. That no public entertainment of any nature or character shall be held in the Court Room unless the same be approved by the Associate Judge residing in the Borough of Lewistown and a fee of $5, to be paid to the party furnishing the key, who is to pay it into the county treasury.

Now, then, we think it would meet with approbation by the people of this county, if the commissioners, would adopt a similar resolution.

"La! me!" said Mrs. Partington, beaming mildly through her gold-rimmed spectacles, "women do make such a fuss about impairing boy's clothes. Now, there's Isaac, who hardly goes a day without tearing something. He used to keep me about detracted with work till I went and bought me a sewing machine. I was very careful to get one that had plenty of room under the arm, so that when he tore his pants I could put them right under the machine without taking Isaac out of them. At present time is in the rejoining room, Doctor, and I'd like to have you see it," saying which she led the way to where Ike was discovered seated before a "Ligh Running Domestic," busily sewing the cat up in the good old lady's rag-bag".

James J. Mitchell, ex-proprietor of the Jackson House in this place, has moved to Mifflinburg, Union county, and taken possession of Young's Hotel. Mr. Mitchel is a kind and obliging landlord, and will spare no pains to make his guests comfortable. His table and bar will always be filled with the best the country affords. We hope he may receive, what he deserves, a large share of patronage.

SORROW AND JOY.—Reader! did you ever notice immediately after the "marriage" head that the "obituary" followed? Typical of the budding happiness and grief of this life. The chants and songs and glee of merry ones today will be broken by wails to-morrow, for the sods will be piled on the breast of some we thought not so near the grave. We read who are married and wish them joy; a line below the record of deaths, and we say mournfully peace to their ashes. Sorrow treads on the heels of joy; songs are hushed by the footfalls of death; laughs are broken rudely—voices no matter how musical, are stilled in a moment.

WHITEWASH.—The following recipe for whitewash is recommended by the Scientific American. It answers for wood, brick or stone: Slake about one-half bushel unslaked lime with boiling water, keeping it covered during the process. Strain it and add a peck of salt dissolved in warm water, three pounds of ground rice put in boiling water and boiled to a thin paste, one-half pound powdered spanish whiting and one pound clear glue dissolved in warm water. Mix these well together, and let the mixture stand for several days. Keep the wash thus prepared in a kettle, and when used put it on as hot as possible with painters' or whitewash brushes.

THE AGE OF SEEDS.—How long do seeds remain good? is a question that is frequently asked, but seldom satisfactorily answered. We annex the following table, which one of our exchanges says can be relied upon as truthful and accurate, and in this connection would suggest to seedsmen, that every package of seed sent out by them should have plainly printed upon the label, the year in which they have been grown. The following is worth preserving for future use:

Cucumbers	10	Onion	2
Beans	3	Parsnips	1
Beet	5	Peas	2
Cabbage	4	Peas Wrinkled	1
Carrot	2	Pepper	2
Cauliflower	3	Pumpkin	5
Celery	3	Radish	5
Corn	2	Salsify	2
Egg Plant	2	Squash	5
Lettuce	3	Turnip	5
Melon	7	Tomato	2

SELLING LIQUOR TO MINORS.—A very sensible law has been proposed in the Legislature of this State:

As every one knows, for a saloon keeper to sell liquor to a minor is a criminal offense, rendering the delinquent liable to be imprisoned. Now, it is very obvious that cases could easily arise wherein the saloon keeper might break the law through ignorance. A would-be customer of a suspiciously juvenile appearance enters and calls for this and that among the liquids. The bartender may ask his age, but not anything connels the youth to speak the truth; he may deceive that bartender and aver that he is indeed a man. It is sought to effect an alteration in this, and if the bill offered becomes a law, the minor, whose inordinate thirst might otherwise cause him to deceive, will pause or else do so at the risk of incurring the penalty inflicted by offended justice, viz: fine or imprisonment. Minors obtaining will be held equally guilty with saloon keepers selling liquor, and this arrangement seems just and reasonable.

FLITTING-DAY.—Last Thursday was the principal flitting-day, for 1876, in this place. All was commotion—topsy turvy—mixed up-helter skelter; old Mrs. and young Mrs.; big Miss and little Miss; old men, and young men; big boys and little boys; all huddled up, with but one object in view—flitting, FLITTING. The boys and girls seemed to enjoy it hugely; the old folks not so much so. We emerged from our hiding place about 10 o'clock a. m. and placed ourself conspicuously before a moving boss—It worked charmingly—we were invited to call at about 12 o'clock, noon, at his new place of abode, but made a faint effort to be excused, (being afraid at the same time our effort would be accepted), it was not however, and were there at the requested time. Well, it rarely happens that poor editors get a good, square meal. Four days have passed since that important event took place—we are all right again and progressing. It was Centennial moving day, and we will never forget it. It was raining and snowing the greater part of the day, making it very unpleasant out door exercise. We hope, however, all who have changed places, may find their new homes, homes of joy, comfort and prosperity.

REV. SAHM.—A writer of the Centre Hall Reporter gives the following history of Rev. Sahm, who was buried at New Berlin recently:

Rev. P. Sahm, was born near Manheim, Lancaster county, Pa. He studied theology in the Seminary at Gettysburg, under Profs. Schmucker and Hazelius. He entered the ministry in 1833, was married to Susan Tritle in 1841, was the father of eight children, three of whom precede him to the spirit world. He served the following charges in the order named, viz: Maytown, Middletown, St. Thomas, Green Castle, Blairsville, Johnstown, Indiana, Friedensburg, Loysville, Aaronsburg and New Berlin. He died at Laurelton, Union Co., Pa., March 14, 1876, aged 66 years, 8 months and 13 days. His remains were interred in the cemetery at New Berlin, on Sunday, the 19th of March. The funeral sermon on the occasion was preached by Rev. H. Zigler, D. D., of Selinsgrove, text, Rev. 7:9 17. The following clergymen were present, viz: Anspach, Heisler, C. W. Cyly, Tomlinson (Luth.), Casper and Yearick (Ref.). There were about 1000 persons in attendance at the funeral. It was a deeply solemn occasion. It was evident that the deceased had many friends. Dr. Sahm was a good theologian, a powerful preacher, a faithful friend, and honest man, a worthy citizen and a kind father.

THE AMERICAN PEOPLE.—No people in the world suffer as much with Dyspepsia as Americans—and although years of experience in medicine have failed to accomplish a certain and sure remedy until GREEN'S AUGUST FLOWER was introduced for this disease and its effects; yet so well has this remedy succeeded in every case to effect a cure, that there is not a Druggist in the United States but recommends the AUGUST FLOWER, in all cases of Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint, Costiveness, Sour Stomach, Sick Headache, and all derangements of the Stomach and Liver. Go to your Druggist and get a Sample Bottle for 10 cents and try it. Two doses will relieve any case. Regular size 75 cents. July 22, 1876.1y

Attempted Bank Robbery.

Last May, a party of three, man and wife and invalid brother, representing themselves as Southerners, visited Chambersburg. The principal, a finely educated gentleman, who claimed to have been a Colonel in the "Louisiana Tigers," made quite an impression in the social circles of the staid village. He wound himself into the good graces of the best families of the town. Having no visible means of support, he lived a sort of an idle, careless life, so much admired by shoddy aristocracy in these days.

About a week ago another party, hailing from Pittsburgh, arrived on the scene. He gave his name as Johnson. The first named lion handed in his cognomen as Ralston. The two met but seldom, and appeared only common acquaintances.

Last evening about nine o'clock Ralston and Johnson called on Mr. Messersmith, cashier of the National Bank, and told him as they proposed leaving early this morning, they desired to take a box of (reputed) valuables which was in the bank vault; and Ralston told the cashier that Johnson desired to make a deposit before leaving town.

Mr. M. kindly consented to oblige them. He accompanied them to the bank, opened the vault and as he did so Johnson attempted to grapple with him. He in turn knocked Johnson down, but was overpowered by Ralston and bucked and gagged Johnson wished to kill him then and there, but Ralston saved his life by interceeding in his behalf.

After securing Mr. M. they ransacked the vault, and after loading themselves with booty prepared to escape. On coming down the bank steps Ralston heard an alarm from Mr. M who had succeeded in partially removing the gag. Under the excitement he tripped and fell to the pavement.

A colored man passing, seeing the man hurrying out of the bank at that late hour, at once suspected something, and seizing the robber he overpowered him and called for help.

On his person were found some $30,000. He [Ralston] had a revolver in each hand, and a large dirk in his belt. His confederate, Johnson, escaped, but was afterward captured at Mercersburg by ex-Sheriff Greenwalt Both had horses saddled close at hand, and would doubtless have gotten off had not fortune played false to this hero of modern society. A full set of bunglars' tools were found in the vicinity where the horses had been secured.

The fire bells were rung, and the citizens turned out, and it required strenuous efforts on the part of the officers of the law to keep the infuriated populace from lynching Ralston to a lamp post.—Harrisburg Telegraph, 25th ult.

THE DAY YOU WERE BORN.—Here is an infallible method of discovering the day of the week on which any person was born, or the day of the week on which a given day of the month any number of years previous occurred. To the number representing your age at your next birth day, add one-fourth for leap years, this amount divide by seven and the remainder, counted back from the day of the week on which you were born. For instance, on your next birthday you will be 21 years old, this divide by four, and the quotient 5, added to 21 gives 26 the amount, which divided by 7, the number of days in a week, gives four weeks and a remainder of two days. Now, if your birthday this year comes on Monday, count back two days and you have the day on which you were born, Saturday. Try it.

Communicated.

Is it not a great pity that when directors engage teachers that they sometimes get "old women" instead of well experienced, lively and intelligent teachers? But such is the case, some teachers do not take as much interest in educational meetings and institutes as some old women do. Especially such teachers that value a pair of shoe soles more than an institute or the welfare of their children, and where it can be seen so plainly in the progress of their school. And where a teacher has such intelligent pupils, and parents, should the children be accused of not being advanced as far as some other schools, or the teacher? By all means the teacher in most cases. But how such teachers try to creep out of their ignorance when they represent their school at a public meeting when his pupils do not "draw maps," read, or sing as well as some other scholars when he has (naturally) as smart and intelligent children as any in the county; but has failed to improve their minds as he should have done by trying to blame it on other teachers and pupils by saying that his school had no chance to sing, had no time to read, and that he had no time to prepare his maps, that other schools copied their maps. But such we find to be the case, and we would advise all intelligent directors to beware of such uninterested teachers. D. A.

West Beaver School Union.

The weekly meetings of the West Beaver Teachers' Association, for the benefit of the schools of 1875-6, terminated on Saturday, March 18, 1876 with the close of the West Beaver school Union.

It has been the united aim of the teachers of West Beaver to improve the schools in their charges: and the fact that the largest convention of the different schools ever known in said township, took place at the St. John's Church on the 18th of March assures us that success is crowning their labors.

Seven of the schools [there are nine] namely, Ira Filson's, H. W. Uhls's, T. A. Wagner's, J. M. Lepley's, J. O. Wagner's, D. B. Wetzel's, and Jos. Steely's were present.

Exercises opened with the reading of the programme by the Pres., Rev. L. C. Edmonds, which read as follows: Invocation—Rev. Stetler. Singing—3 books. Address of Welcome—Rev. L. C. Edmonds. Response—Ira Filson Singing—4 vol. Uhls's school. Reading—T. A. Wagner's school. Singing—I. Filson's school. Address—Rev Weand. Singing—schools in consort. Arithmetic—J. M. Lepley's school. Singing—T. A. Wagner's school. Adjourned to 1 p. m.

Singing—Schools in consort. Geography—D. B. Wetzel's school. Singing—J. O. Wagner's school. Address—Rev. Stetler. Singing—D. B. Wetzel's school. Grammar and Punctuation—I. Filson's school. Singing—J. M. Lepley's school. Reading H. W. Uhl's school. Singing—I Filson's school. Penmanship—J. O. Wagner's school. Reading—Ira Filson's school. Singing—H. W. Uhl's school Valedictory—Rev. L. C. Edmonds. Singing—schools in consort.

Benediction.—The reason why Mr. Steely's name does not appear on the programme is because he attended the District Institute very badly, and was not present when the programme was constructed. This, however, did not deprive him of an equal share of the time. Rev. Weand failing to attend, his time was at once allowed Mr. S.; and the exercises were then so regulated as to give him as much, if not more, time than any other teacher present—his classes did well.

The meeting of the different schools was an exhibition of educational tenor of West Beaver, and a grand omen of its future prosperity.

THE LOST CAUSE.

A MAGNIFICENT Picture 19x28 inches in size, printed on heavy plate paper, beautiful in design and a gem to look upon. It represents a Confederate soldier after the war returning to his home, which he finds lonely and desolate. In front of the ruined cabin, telling a sad tale of the ravages of war, are two graves with rude crosses, on one of which some friendly hand has placed a garland. To the right the exterior and the ruined mansion indicate peace and rest. The whole scene is one of true pathos and will touch every heart. It is printed on fine paper, suitable for framing, and should find a place in every southern home. Sent to mail mounted on a roller and postpaid on receipt of 50 cents—3 for $1 per copy.
