

THE POST.

Middlebury, April 12, 1876.

Local News, &c.

All communications, business let-&c., for this office, to secure and attention should be addressed as follows: THE POST, Middlebury, Vermont County, Pa. Advertisements, announcements &c. must be handed by Monday noon, to secure insertion in next issue.

PUTNEY COUNTY COURTS.—The Courts of Putney County are now on the fourth of April, and September, and second of December.

Sale Registry.

We will insert short notices, like the following, of sales, until day of sale, provided we are advised of the date or address: the sale:

Friday April 14.—Samuel and Henry Messer, auctioneers, will sell, in this borough household goods &c.

Thursday, May 11.—Sam Lottzel, assignee of and Melsner, will sell in Middlebury, territory, and valuable tracts of land, see large posters.

The trout fishing season commenced yesterday.

Feed meat to your chickens to obtain many eggs.

Houses are being ransacked for relics—old newspapers, aged coins, &c.

It is said to be a sure sign of spring when you see a woman with her dress tucked up, a brush in her hand, min-der in her eye, and big splashes of white wash on her face.

When a man borrows a chew of tu-coco with the excuse that he forgot to take that fresh paper out of his other pocket, it is ten to one that he has got in his only suit of clothes.

The fellow who gets mad because something appears in his home paper, that don't suit him and stops it, can satisfy himself how it will get along without his patronage, by sticking a cambric needle in a mill pond and then withdrawing it and looking at the hole.

When a man detects a missing button after getting on a clean shirt no one in the house is aware of the fact. He takes off the shirt and puts on another, quietly smiling all the while. He never speaks of it to a soul. The married ladies will beat us out that these are solemn facts.

We have on hand a large number of Marriage Certificates which we will distribute, gratuitously, among the bachelors in town, on request. A marriageable young maiden can pop the question to her chicken-hearted lover by presenting him with a blank certificate and needn't blush nor faint.

DRUNK LIE.—Nathan Shambush's little son was found in the yard of his father's residence in this place, one day last week, where a crack of fresh leather lie was standing, and taking some out with a tin swallowed it. The child suffered very much, and at first it was feared would die.
He is now better but his mouth and throat is yet very sore.

WEIS & OPPENHEIMER of the Manhattan Clothing store, at Selinsgrove, have just returned from New York and Philadelphia, with a large, cheap and better stock of clothing, than they ever had before. Now is the time to buy clothing cheaper than ever. You will be astonished at their low prices and good goods. Go see and believe.

Dr. F. P. Waggoner, of Selinsgrove, and Chas. Wolf, Esq., of Lewisburg, are candidates for the Republican nomination for State Senator in this district. G. W. Ziegler, Esq., of Sunbury, is a candidate for the Democratic nomination. The present popular Senator, A. H. Bill, and S. P.
Wolveton, Esq., are also spoken of.—

HORSE CRAMPS.—H. A. Balch, took possession of the Fairmount House, April first. Mr. Balch is well known to most of our people throughout the county, as a curious, and popular landlord, and will be well perceived.

Geo. O. Smith, moved into the Union House in this place, April first, and is well provided to give good accomodations to all who may stop at his house. Drayars, will find this a very suitable place to stop.

THE NEW JAIL.—The County Commissioners have adopted the plan of Mr. Wetzel, Architect, of Danville, for the construction of the new jail. His estimate of the cost is about $15,000. As soon as the plan is approved by the State Board of charities, according to law, the edifice will be begun forthwith.
The commissioners intend to call for a bonded loan to run for ten years.

The latest amusement is termed the 'Printer's Delight,' and is performed in the following manner: Take a sheet of note paper, fold it up carefully, and enclose a few dollars in a small envelope and mail it to a printer, who will do you justice in full confidence.

R. E. V. WILSON,
191 Penn St., Williamsburgh, New York.

ERRORS OF YOUTH.—We copy from the Patriot the following account: CARLISLE, March 29.—Last night about nine o'clock a second attempt was made to destroy the lives and property of ex-Sheriff M'Cartney of this place.

Some miscreants placed an infernal machine on the doorstep, and ignited it by some means unknown, producing a terrible explosion, completely demolishing the front portion of the building, blowing out the door, window shutters, sashes, etc. The floor near the front door was blown into the cellar and the partition doorway wall was thrown against the stair door, preventing the escape of the inmates until assistance arrived.

The frame of the door was forced out of place toward the street, the ends resting upon the pavement.
The heavy stone wall was bulged outward and the ceiling completely demolished.
An elegant sewing machine, which stood in the bedroom above the entry, was torn to atoms by the force of the explosion. The bed was lifted sufficiently to allow the eastors to drop out, and the headboard blown off. Two pet birds, a dove and a canary, were killed, the dove having the feathers completely stripped off. Every article of furniture was more or less injured, a table with one leg, a clock without works, etc. The kitchen ceiling was hanging down two feet from its proper position, plainly showing the roof above.

The report of the infernal machine was heard all over the town and hundreds of persons flocked to the scene of disaster. The house presents a dilapidated appearance, the walls sprung severed and even the cornice partially demolished. Thousands visited the scene, and the town is in a furor of excitement over this second attempt to destroy life and property.

The windows for a square from the scene of the explosion were shattered, and forty panes of glass were required to repair the damage to one house.
Persons in need of a good and durable water trough or pump, should private individuals omit to do so. Any person injuring or defacing such troughs shall be punished by a fine of not over $20, or imprisonment not exceeding ten days, on conviction before any justice.
The limits fixed by the law are not to be nearer than five miles to each other on any public road, and this is not to apply to counties of less than 50,000 inhabitants.

Strange to say, all the inmates who were in the house at the time escaped unharmed.

There are many rumors afloat as to suspicions, etc., but nothing can be traced to any authentic source.

It is expected that the near approach of Easter will send eggs up.

If you haven't got a bad cold, you are not in fashion.

The buds are swelling and will soon reveal their beauty in the spring time.

The frogs are piping in the marshes Spring, Spring, beautiful Spring."

TROUT fishing has commenced.
Trout take theirs with a fly in it.

How much more satisfactory it is to have the same price for the same garments to everybody as they are at Wanamaker & Brown's Great Clothing House, at 6th and Market, Philadelphia.

STATION 1.—Be it enacted &c. That all members of Councils, and other city, ward, borough and township officers, excepting school directors, to be elected on the third Tuesday of February next, or in any year thereafter, whose term of office would, under existing laws, expire prior to the first Monday of April, shall continue in office from the date at which said term would otherwise expire, until the first Monday of April next ensuing thereto: and the term of their successors shall begin on the first Monday of April, and shall continue for the period now fixed for the duration thereof by existing laws in each particular case; and hereafter all elections for offices which will be vacant on the first Monday in April shall be held on the third Tuesday of February next preceding thereto.

TRAINING GUTTA.—For household duties ought to be considered as necessary as instruction in reading, writing and arithmetic, and quite as universal. We are in our houses more than half our existence, and it is the household surroundings which affect most largely the happiness or misery of domestic life. If the wife knows how to "keep House," if she understands how to "set a table," if she has learned how things ought to be cooked, how carpet should be dusted, how the furniture should be repaired, turned, altered, and renovated; if she knows how purchases can be made to best advantage, and understands the laying in of provisions, how to make them go furthest and last longest; if she appreciates the importance of system, order, tidiness, and quiet management of children and servants, then she knows how to make a little heaven out of home—how to win her husband from the clubhouse, the gaming-table and the wine cup; such a family will be trained to social respectability, to business success, and to efficiency and usefulness in whatever profession may be allotted to them.

SWEET SWEET.—W. S. Weis, the popular, and obliging proprietor of the New York Fancy Store, at Selinsgrove, makes the astonishing announcement, since his arrival from the Eastern cities, with a large and carefully selected stock of fancy goods, a fine assortment of carpets & Alpacas, we will sell gowns to suit all, rich, poor, high, low—all are invited to come and see our new stock and low prices. Remember the place, in Home's New building, opposite the Keystone Hotel.

P. M. GARMAN.—The clever, energetic and reliable salesman for the well-known firm of Schultz & Else, of Philadelphia, wholesale Dealers in Boots, Shoes &c. has gone to the city to take his post behind the counter for the Spring trade, where he will be pleased to see his numerous patrons in due season.

He will also forward a large and well-selected stock of spring goods to the firm of Garman & Minium in Perry township.

It may be safe to say, that not one girl in ten in our large towns and cities enters married life, who has learned to bake a loaf of bread, to purchase a carpet, or to cut and fit and make her own dress; how much the perfect knowledge of these things bears upon the thrift, the comfort and the health of families, may be conjectured, but it is not calculated by figures. It would be an immeasurable advantage to make a beginning by attacking a kitchen to every girl's school in the nation, and have lessons given daily in the preparation of all the ordinary articles of food and drink for the table, and how to purchase them in the market to the best advantage, with a result of a large saving of money of result of comfort, and higher health in every family in the land.

REMEMBER THIS.—Now is the time of year for pneumonia, lung fever, coughs, colds, and fatal results of predisposition, to consumption and other throat and lung disease. BOSCHER'S GERMAN SYRUP has been used in this neighborhood for two or three years without a single success. If you have not used his medicine yourself, go to Dr. John A. Montz and ask him of his wonderful success among his customers.
Two doses will relieve the worst case, if you have no faith in any medicine, just buy a Sample Bottle of Bosch's German Syrup for 10 cents and try it. Regular size Bottle 75 cents. Don't neglect a cough to save 75 cents.

ASSIGNEE'S NOTICE.—All persons interested are hereby notified that Henry Hooper, of West Beaver Township, Snyder County, has made an assignment of his debts, real and personal, to the understanding for the benefit of his creditors.
All persons having claims are requested to present them to the undersigned, and persons interested will please make immediate payment.
