THE POST.

Middleburg, May 4 1876.

Local News, &c.

—All communications, business letters &c., for this office, to secure prompt attention should be addressed as follows: THE POST, Middleburg, Snyder County, Pa. Advertisements, communications &c. must be handed in by Monday noon, to secure insertion in next issue

SNYDER COUNTY COURTS.—The Courts of Snyder County are held on the fourth Mondays of February, May, and September, and second Monday of December.

A Word to All.

VOLUME 14, No. 1, OF THE POST.—With this number begins volume 14 of this paper. Ever since the Post has been conducted under its present management its subscription list and advertising patronage have steadily increased. Our patrons have borne with our short comings with a singular magnanimity.

We will endeavor, in the future, to make our paper more interesting by giving our readers a greater quantity and better quality of reading matter. To do this, however, we must condense our advertising columns.

Our job department has received a liberal share of patronage.

We tender our thanks to all our patrons and extend a general invitation to the people of this county to subscribe for The Post.

—A. K. Gift, executor of John Gift's estate will sell timber land and personal property at Paxtonville, on Saturday May 13th.

Had Easter Sunday been rainy, the nine consecutive Sundays following, would have been of a similar nature. At least this is the opinion of some people.

On Sunday the last day of April 1876, we had snow storms in this place and vicinity. There was a slight frost on Monday morning, but it is said the fruit did not suffer much.

A hand car passed over the S. & L. R. R. on Saturday last. There were seven or eight persons on the car, but who they were or what their business was we do not know.

—We have a new carrier and if any of our subscribers in town fail to receive their paper at any time they will, please leave us know, and it will be delivered regularly.

—Peach trees in this vicinity show a wonderful wealth of blossoms. We hope a wonderful wealth of peaches may result along to ward the time when this species of fruit shall ripen.

KEEP your eyes open for silver. It will soon make its appearance, and there promises to be a corner in fractional currency. When you do get silver do not hoard it, and bury it away in old stockings, but keep it in circulation.

The tidy housewife is up to her elbows with work now. Carpets are up, scrubbing goes on, and the furniture is piled up promiscuously. House cleaning is what they call it. The masculine portion of the family rejoice when the job is completed.

The denominations of new issue of silver coins will be 10, 20, 25 and 50 cent pieces. The old-time horse-skin purses will once again be needed, and the possessors of that utmost forgotten article may as well commence looking them up.

Young man! Dont waste your spare change in fire-balls and firecrackers, but save it up and buy your mother or sister a new "Domestic." If you have no mother or sister, find some good-natured fellow that has, and he and I the machine together may hold you a comfortable place in the family if you shine up to the sister right.

A small, clean potato, with the end cut off is every convenient medium of applying brick dust to knives, keeping it about the right moisture, while the juice of the potato assists in removing stains from the steel. We can get a better polish by this method than by any other we have tried, and with less labor.

If you wish to secure a neat and cheap head stone or monument for a departed friend or relative give Victor Gantner, successor to A. J. Leavengood, a call. He has just finished a new shop corner of Pine and Water street, and is ready and willing to do all kinds of work in his trade, at reasonable rates. Call and see specimens of work.

—An exchange says: To prevent loss by being robbed of coupon bonds, cut off the coupons upon sheets and seperate place from the bonds. The bonds without the coupons being collectable only by one; the thief who fails to secure both, gains but little. The true owner, by proving his title to the part still holds, has good ground for demanding a duplicate.

We need only refer the reader to our advertising columns, if he would acquaint himself of the enterprising houses of our town and the best places to buy. Our columns, by the way, were never before so well represented by local advertisers. The secret of this is, that The Post pays as an advertising medium. We have declined some good offers from a foreign advertisers, in order to accommodate home trade, and we hope when we can also enlarge our columns entirely to accommodate it has to spare, The Post, in the way of a strictly county advertising medium.

SNYDER CO. SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION.—Sixth Annual Convention.—The sixth annual convention of the Snyder Co. S. S. Association will be held at Selinsgrove the Tuesday of May, 16th inst. The last Convention, held at Smithgrove, was a success, though more might and should have been accomplished.

In order that the Association may further the Sunday School cause in the county, it is necessary that all who are interrested in the work should take an active part. At the last meeting it was decided that the conventions have not been that the Convening and profitable, because the officers fail to perform their duties.

Gentleman, come up to the work. Vice Presidents, if you have not already done so, send in your reports at once, so that the amount of work performed in the county may be clearly seen by the Convention and the community at large.

Ample preparations are being made for the entertainment of all who may attend. Officers, teachers, all Sabbath School workers, we urge you to join with us in making the Convention a success, so that the Sunday School may not only be a success as such, but that as an organized body, it may wield a power for good in the county.

J. A. M. ZIEGLER, Sec. fo. Co.
Selinsgrove, April 20th, 1876.

OLD MONEY.—Mr. A. K. Gift of this place has at this office two scrips of Continental Currency. The one being valued at its time Twenty Dollars, and dated Sept. 26th 1778: No. 219,733.

The top and bottom of the other has the words: "The United Colonies," in large old English letters and along the sides in the same type are the words "Continental Currency," and has the following printed on its face:

No. 53,271. Seven Dollars. This Bill entitles the Bearer to receive Seven Spanish milled Dollars, or the value there of in Gold or Silver, according to a resolution of Congress, passed at Philadelphia, Nov. 2, 1776.

LOST!—On Wednesday evening or Thursday morning of last week, a Gold Medal—maltese cross, with six angles—with name of owner on one side, and "Class of '73" on the opposite side. To the Medal was attached by a short chain a $2.50 gold piece altered to a Breastpin, on one side of which were the initials, H.R.H. The finder will receive the thanks of the owner with a liberal reward upon leaving the Medal and pin, or either of them, at this office.

TAKE A PAPER.—"I'm too poor to take a paper." If you are too poor to take a paper, you should be indicted by the Grand Jury for obtaining a family under false pretence. In nine-tenths of twenty of the untainted, ill-clothed, and uncomfortable dwellings on the roadside, you will find neither newspapers nor traces of one ever having been there. The husband knows nothing about markets except a few items he picked up at the country store. His wife is ignorant, and because she is denied the general information derived from newspapers, she descends in the scale, and becomes a newsmonger filled with superstitious ideas and neighborhood scandals. The children grow up ignorant, with no ambition to push ahead in life. They know nothing about the world they live in and care less. Stop at any neatly painted house, situated in a grove of trees with vines on the porch and a pallitre fence in front, and on the table, in the corners, and in the hall you will find the local papers. The proprietor is as well posted about the prices of everything as any traveling speculator. His wife has a wider scope on her mind's employment than neighborhood scandal, and the children grow up ambitious to succeed in life and, warned of the tricks, wiles and quirks and ins of the world generally press onward and upward into the front rank.—Exchange.

About 3 o' clock on Saturday night last a set of burglars entered Judge Shindel's drug store in this place. They tried several shutters and the cellar door to get into the house, failing in which they tried the drug store, which is to the north side of the house. The shutters to the back windows of the store, strange to say, were never shut at night, and the burglars broke a hole into the upper pane of the sash fastener but large enough to allow the hand, when they turned open the sash fastener, hoisted the window, and entered. Mr. and Mrs. Shindel slept directly over the store and several times heard the noise, but supposed it to be the cats. They followed up, witnessed and again heard the noise; but not until a piece of one of the money drawers fell to the floor did they imagine there were burglars in the house. Judge Shindel then sprang to the door which alarmed the burglars and they ran out the front door and left. They had taken the precaution to unscrew the bolt catch of the front door for convenient escape. Both of the money drawers were found next morning in a disorged condition back of town at the railroad depot, they also took along Mr. Shindel's overcoat which they used in their operations. All they got was a little change in the drawers, not amounting in all to more than one dollar. They were gone some and considerably trampled down the fresh spring garden, which had been dug just the day before. It is not known was the burglars were, and there is no suspicion as believe.—Times 28, ult.

A WELL-LAID SCHEME FOR ESCAPE THWARTED.—Rolland and Johnson the attempted bank robbers at Chambersburg, some time ago, were brought before Court in that place, on Tuesday a week, on a Writ of Habeas Corpus, and after hearing a statement of both sides of the case, the court fixed their bail at $20,000, which the prisoners could not secure, and were remanded to jail to await their trials.

Public Opinion published at the above mentioned place, of the 25 ult., says: Whether or not the rather distinguished prisoners—Ralf L. Rolland and Benj. Johnson—sojourning at Fort Sweney, had any hopes of evading justice by having their bail fixed at a nominal sum, and forfeit the same, is not known; but if they had, they were greatly disappointed, and it was this defeat that no doubt turned their attention to another plan of escape, which we are now about to relate.

The cunning of Rolland appears equal to any emergency, but whatever success he has met with heretofore in this direction, has, owing to the vigilance of the Sheriff, totally failed of realization now that he is to his Hands. The Sheriff had his suspicions aroused, in the beginning of last week, from the action of several of the prisoners, that Rolland and Johnson were meditating escape, and that by these prisoners they were to be aided. A close watch upon their movements, and a number of circumstancial developments leading to a confirmation of his fears in this respect, determined him to institute a search and investigate the matter. With this view, Johnson's cell was first entered, and that individual examined, when a small saw was found concealed in his cravat, and lower down in a shirt-folding a pair of nippers. Over the casing of his cell window, was found a compass saw, together with a jimmy about two feet long. In what is known to the jail as the "big room," was found a hammer, gimlet, rope and a pair of nippers, sowed in a bedtick.

With these implements, Rolland and Johnson with the assistance of some of the prisoners, were to effect their escape—the nippers being for the purpose of relieving themselves of their bolides—and the other instruments for operations upon the walls. In the use of one of the saws, it is said that, with the aid of the proper acids, a hole could have been bored through the wall in a marvelously short space of time.

These developments have caused a cessation of the visits of Mrs. Rolland, to her husband's cell, the Sheriff at once issuing orders to that effect, and notwithstanding her earnest and persistant entreaties she is kept aloof.

On Saturday of week before last, a stranger stopped at the National, and was seen to enter Mrs. Rolland's room It is believed that he supplied the instruments above described, and that the lady carried them to the prison.

There are other interesting facts connected with this contemplated escape, but it might not be considered prudent to give them publicity in view of the approaching trial. At another time they may receive attention.

Since the above has been put in type both have had their trials and sentences. Johnson was sentenced to eight years and Roland to ten years in the penitentiary.

Bold Burglary in Mifflin.

Dry Goods Store Entered and Goods to the Amount of $800 to $1,000 Stolen.

Some time during Tuesday night, the store of Mr. E. Tilten, on Main street, was broken open and extensively pilfered. An entrance was effected by breaking open the front door by means of a grubbing hoe, which was easily accomplished, as no one slept in the store.—Mr. Tilten closed the place about half past 8 o'clock, and proceeded home, leaving the premises apparently secure.

Once in the store, the burglars proceeded to secure some valuable ilks to the amount of about five hundred dollars, two hundred dollars worth of kid gloves, one hundred and fifty dollars worth of laces, the entire lot of valuable han Kerchiefs, and other articles, after which, it is presumed, they commenced operations on the safe which stood near the window in the Southwest corner of the room. By means of a punch hammer and sledge, which together with the hoe, where procured from the blacksmith shop of Jesse Howe, they punched a hole in the door over the lock, into which powder was inserted and the door blown open. They broke open the money box, together with a box containing private papers. In the first they obtained some $40 or $45.

Dr. Banks, who was sleeping in his drug store, next door, heard the noise of the explosion, but being rather tired and drowsy, did not give it much attention, other than to get up and look out of the window, and after looking at his watch found it to be 15 minutes past three o'clock when he again retired.—Mr. Joseph Hess, who resides in the Jacobs House, also heard a noise about the same hour, as did several other persons, who gave it but little attention.

Mr. Tilten has, doubtless, sustained other losses, which a careful review may discover, but the above are all that a hasty inspection in the morning revealed.

The burglary, in so public a locality and with the noise which must have been occasioned by its commission, naturally excites wonder and speculation.

About a pound of powder, unused was found in a paper on the floor.

Mr. Tilten has offered a reward of $100 for the detection of the burglars and the recovery of the goods.

During Tuesday afternoon two suspicious individuals were seen loitering around town, very respectfully dressed, but possessing countenances indicative of rogues, who were, no doubt, the same villains that committed the burglary.—Juniata Tribune of the 29th ult.

LATER.—The Harrisburg Telegraph of the 21st ult says Joe Barlen and Tim the Cole have been arrested on suspicion of being concerned in the robbery of a store at Mifflin on Tuesday night. They were taken westward on the fast line on Thursday afternoon by the deputy sheriff of Juniata county.

SUNBURY & LEWISTOWN RAILROAD.—In all probability the S. & L. R. R. will be put in running order before the 1st of June, and it is about time you should fail to see the great bargains in BOOTS & SHOES M. S. Schroyer is offering to the public, at prices that every man, woman, and child in the County can buy a pair and hardly miss the amount paid for them. Mark the following reduced prices: Mens fine Calf Pegged boots $3 to 3.25; Mens Calf & Buff shoes, $1.50 to 2.25; Ladies fine Lasting button Gaiters, 2.25 to 3.00; Ladies Lace Gaiters $1.10 to 2.25; Childrens shoes from 25cts. upward; and all other goods in proportion. Call and see my full stock of mens fine calf, full brogans, Boots & shoes. My desire is to please, and my motto is quick sales, and small profits you will profit by first examining my stock which you will find full and complete, and always find goods as represented, that we mean business, and that we do not intend to be understood by any other firm in the county as we know it. Thankful for past favors we would respectfully solicit a continuing of the same, and at the same time gaining many new customers, by fair dealing and representing goods just as they are. Respectfully, Yours &c.

M. S. SCHROYER.

HISTORICAL.—In accordance with a joint resolution of Congress, Governor Hartranft has issued a proclamation recommending to the people of the towns of Pennsylvania on the approaching centennial anniversary of our national independence, that they cause to have delivered on such days in his or her local sketch of said county or town from its formation, and that a copy of said sketch may be filed, in print or manuscript, in the clerk's office of said county, and an additional copy, in print or manuscript, be filed in the office of the librarian of congress, to the intent that a complete record may thereby be obtained of the progress of our institutions during the first centennial of their existence.

This is a laudable and patriotic suggestion, and we are glad that the Governor urges the importance of the object to be attained in an official way. Steps should be taken at once to second the movement.
