THE POST.

Middleburg, May 25, 1876.

Local News, &c.

—All communications, business letters &c., for this office, to secure prompt attention should be addressed as follows: THE POST, Middleburg, Snyder County, Pa. Advertisements communications &c. must be handed in by Monday noon, to secure insertion in next issue

SNYDER COUNTY COURTS.—The Courts of Snyder County are held on the fourth Mondays of February, May, and September, and second Monday of December

Come One ! Come All ! !

The people of this place are requested to meet in the Court House on Saturday evening for the purpose of making arrangements, to celebrate the centennial 4th of July 1876, in a becoming manner. Let there be a full turn out.

Keep your doors and windows properly secured at nights, and in the daytime as well.

FARMERS ATTENTION !—Farmers having wool to sell or trade for factory goods will find it to their advantage to dispose of it to A. E Scholl who will travel the county about the latter part of June. Orders left with Mr. Nathan Schambach of Middleburg, will receive attention.

STOLEN.—On Saturday night the 21st inst., a dark brown horse was stolen from the stable of Philip Schnee, at Fremont. A reward of $25.00 is offered for the safe return of the horse. See Bills.

Even a nine-penny calico can be made to look neat and tasty by using the 'Domestice Fashions.'

L. M. Moatz has just arrived from Philadelphia with the best stock of Hardware, Cedarware &c., ever offered to the people of Snyder county. He has marked his goods at the lowest figures to suit the times. All goods warranted to be what they are represented. A general invitation is extended the public to call and examine his stock and prices.

SECOND TIME.—G. Alfred Schoch has just returned from the east, for the second time, this spring, with one of the largest and best selected stock of Spring and Summer goods ever brought to this place. He wants all whether you are going to the centennial or not to come and see his new goods and low prices. This is the place to select from a large stock. Goods shown with pleasure, and customers promptly waited on.

—As the Centennial Exposition is now opened and hundreds of our citizens will visit the same during the summer we advise all such, before starting, to call at the popular clothing establishment of G. C. Gutelius, where they can fit themselves out with a fashionable suit of clothes, as well as any thing else for a gentleman to wear. Let none stay back on account of the hard times, as fashionable suits can be had there very low. Also a large variety and different sizes of flags, as low as two for one cent.

A fellow named Cornelius Carter, who pretends to be crazy, was caught in the act of starting a fire in one of the Lumber yards at Williamsport, about 8 o'clock on Saturday evening last. He was arrested after a desprate fight and lodged in jail. He had a very sharp knife, made of a file 14 inches long, with which he defended himself. To secure him the officers had to shoot him half dozen times, and, when down, club him into submission with the but of a gun. He had been in the insane Asylum, and only got out a short time ago and no doubt was the author of the great fires at Williamsport lately. Ought to be hung anyhow, and it is a pity the crowd didn't do so when they were in the proper mood.—[Times 19th inst.

BOGAR & O'NEIL'S STEAM FERRY.—Messrs. Bogar and O'Neil have put in operation the most complete Steam Ferry arrangements at Port Treverton that are to be found on the Susquehanna from its source to the Chesapeak Bay. They have a splendid new Steamer and several large flats constructed in the safest and la est improved style. The proprietors are clever and accommodating gentleman and have employed only first class men. As there will be a large number of persons going to the Centennial by way of the Reading Rail Road which is the safest, cheapest and best route to Phila., the Steam Ferry will afford the proper facilities for reaching the Reading at Herndon. Success to the enterprise.

What good, kind souls some of those New York chaps are! A letter before us offers to sell us two hundred acres of farming land in Laurens county, Georgia, at $2 per acre, and take it all out in advertising. This is the best offer we have received from a New York sharper for some time. It is so good that we have concluded that the man is either insane or a swindle of the first-water. No, no, we never did know much about farming and, have concluded not to learn just yet.—Lewisburg Journal.

Yes, we have the same offer and it seems a large number of other papers. We conclude that this chap must own the whole State of Georgia, or how could he give every office 200 acres of land. Snyder Co., Pa., and not Laurens Co., Ga., is where we want land.

Arrest of Suspected Parties.—Three persons, Bupp, Harpster and young Gross, were arrested on Saturday and Sunday, by Constables Garrett and Clum, charged with being concerned in the frequent robberies which have taken place embraced in the region from beyond Milroy to the lower end of Decatur. Harpster and young Gross were both arrested at the house of the latter's father between Bannerville and Cosgrove Hall, in Snyder county, the latter in the garret of the house closely hid. Both these had revolvers, and the elder Gross, on the arrest of his son, came out with a revolver and gun, snapping the latter at Garrett, when a bystander took it from him and discharged it. It has been evident for a long time that an organized band of produce and provision thieves, and whatever else they could lay hands on, were operating in the region spoken of above, and if the arrested parties are the right ones, neither jury nor judge ought to show them any quarters. Garrett and Clum deserve much credit for their efforts to ferret out the gang, and if they break it up ought to be well rewarded, as no farmer was any longer sure of possessing produce or provisions over night.—Gazette, 17th inst.

BARGAINS.—Reduced to Lowest Cash Prices. On and after June 1st 1876, we will adopt the Cash System, believing it to be mutually advantageous to ourselves & customers. Money Saved, By reducing goods to a Cash Price brings them within the reach of all classes and enables the merchant to purchase and sell at low figures. Cash or produce taken in exchange for goods. All kinds of country produce taken in exchange for goods, at Cash rates, at the current prices

SWARTZ & SHRAWDER.

Troxleville, Pa., May 23, 1876.

Be Careful.—Parents or those who are employed to take care of small children should be very careful and see that they eat nothing but wholesome food. It is very natural for a child when it gets something in its hands, ever so poisonous, to put it in the mouth if possible, and the result is it is taken ill very suddenly without any apparent cause. Only a few days ago in this place a child was left alone for a few moments, when it was seen to be eating something, and upon approaching the child it was found to be eating potato bugs. Whither it swallowed any of them is not known. There was no bad result.

DECORATION DAY IN SELINSGROVE.—We are pleased to learn that the citizens of Selinsgrove are making arrangements to observe the approaching Decoration Day, May 30th, by a grand demonstration. Ex-Gov. Pollock of Philadelphia will deliver the oration. Three Bands, among them our band, will furnish the music for the occasion. The Decoration ceremonies will be conducted by the several Sabbath Schools of the town. The procession will be the largest ever held in the county, and will consist of four Sunday Schools; ex-Soldiers; three Literary Societies, Fire Department, Odd Fellows; Patriotic Sons of America, Knights of Pythias, &c., The citizens of Middleburg and vicinity should be well represented upon the occasion.

The Grand Army of the Republic and Decoration Day.—The following order has been officially promulgated from the headquarters of the Grand Army of the Republic, Department of Pennsylvania:

In accordance with the rules and regulations of the Grand Army of the Republic, Tuesday, May 30th, will be observed as a memorial day, to decorate with fitting ceremonies the graves of our fallen comrades.

In this Centennial year, when each true patriot hopes to see the proofs of peace and good will, and we meet as a united people to commemorate the events connected with the birth of our nation, the memories of our dead comrades, whose lives were required for the establishment of that peace, should be very near to our hearts, and command our choicest feelings.

The mode in which these ceremonies may be conducted is left to the judgment of posts, but it is suggested that they invite the co-operation of other organizations, and of the public generally.

It is hoped the custom of preceeding years of planting flowers at the graves will be generally observed.

Where no posts of the Grand Army are established, citizens are earnestly requested to arrange for the proper observances of the day, that the grave of each dead soldier and sailor may be appropriately honored. By order of

JOHN F. HARTRANFT,
Commander-in-Chief.

ROBERT B. BEATH,
Adjutant General.

Peculiarities of May.—In May says the St. Louis Republican, people hunt for May flowers—and they don't find them.

In May the land is sorely scourged with strawberry festivals and other devices which empty pockets and disorder stomachs.

In May a man who can't afford his wife a hired girl can spend thirty cents a day for buck beer.

In May bananna and orange skins cripple more people than cannon balls.

In May croquet works woe with youthful hearts and youthful corns.

In May people turn over a new leaf, and move to avoid back rent.

In May the tramp trampeth after any thing but a plow.

In May the housefly becomes numerous once more, and as of old has no higher ambition than to flop into the butter.

In May men invest all their money on their pet base ball clubs, and their money never bothers them any more.

In May a man looks long and earnestly for his last summer's clothes—and he finds only a pair of cheap vases.

In May asparagus appears on the table and is as delicious as a dish of boiled pine clothespins.

In May Sunday Schools pick up marvelously, preparatory to expected picnics.

In May all that a boy hath, yea, all that he can borrow, that will he give to see a base ball match.

In May little girls stretch ropes across the pavements and 'jump the rope,' and everybody passing that way fall over the rope and wounds his nose.

In May radishes are strong enough for base ball bats, and barbers' grease will blister the scalp of a cocoanaut on a single application.

In May a woman no longer wants a spring bonnet. She has repented her ways—she wants a summer bonnet.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS ! !

Superintendents Conference.

At the last convention of the Snyder Co. Sunday School Association, convened at Selinsgrove, May 16th a discussion arose as to how the S. S. might be made to reach that class of young people who are not connected with it. The discussion was closed in the form of the following resolution:

Resolved, That we the Convention of the Snyder Co. S. S. Association, call a Conference of the Pastors and Superintendents of the county, and of the Vice Presidents of the Association, to convene at Middleburg, Saturday June 3d, 1876,—for the purpose of devising plans for bringing into the S. S. those who are not now in attendance.

The Vice Presidents elected, are the following:

Adams—Isaac Troxell.
Beaver—Henry Smith.
Beaver West—Wm Fisher.
Centre—F. S. Sheary.
Chapman—E. G. Shaffer.
Franklin—John S. Hassinger.
Jackson—Dr. Percival Hammond.
Middleburg—Dr. J. Y. Shindel.
Middlecreek—Henry Schoch.
Monroe—J. P Hendricks
Penn—Henry Moyer.
Perry—Casper Hornberger.
Perry West—Jacob Hornberger.
Selinsgrove—Jacob Wagner.
Union—Thomas Hoffman.
Washington—Prof. D. S. Boyer.

All who read this notice, please do your utmost to make the attendance large and the conference profitable.

Vice Presidents, please inform the Pastors and Superintendents of your townships of this call, and bring them with you to the Conference.

A more extended account of the convention will be given in due time.

J. A. M. ZIEGLER.

CHRONIC DISEASES Cured. New paths marked out to Health by that greatest of all books—PLAIN HOME TALK AND MEDICAL COMMON SENSE, which contains nearly 1,000 pages of original matter, as entertaining as a lively story. Health and long life made easy for the learned and unlearned. Crammed full of brand new ideas, which are cheering to the sick, and intensely entertaining to those who are fortunate enough to escape disease. It guards the reader against the pitfalls of human suffering, and points the way of deliverance to those who are already engulphed. By all means, find out all about it. It is for you. Its author, Dr. E. B. FOOTE, of 120 LEXINGTON AVENUE, NEW YORK, is consulted by invalids at home and abroad, in person and by letter, and has had the experience of nearly a quarter of a century in the treatment of long standing and difficult diseases of every character; hence his ability to write practical truths for the invalid reader. His consultations are FREE to the sick everywhere; hence his immense correspondence with the sick all over the globe. You, READER, ARE AT LIBERTY TO CONSULT the able author of Plain Home Talk and Medical Common Sense. Write to him and you will be struck with his Common Sense. Whatever your malady, you will receive light which will do you good, by inclosing 50 cts. postage stamp, and writing to Dr. F. We wish to interest you in both the doctor and his immortal book. The Book itself, which gives satisfaction to all who read it, can be had of agents, or of the publishers direct. Fifth monthly binding, $3.25, in the English or German language. Library binding, in English only, $3.75. Sent by mail, postage prepaid, on receipt of the price. A lady writes the author: "I have always felt that you were the physician of the world, from the fact of your wonderful success and original ideas." One reader says—"I have found it to be one of the grandest works of the age." Another says—"I would not be without it for twice its cost." Similar letters reach the author every day. Contents table free.

SCIENCE IN STORY; also by DR. FOOTE. Cheap edition. 5 vols. in 1, neatly bound, $2; in 5 separate vols. at $5 and $7.50, according to binding. Sent by mail on receipt of price. Just the thing for young people. Contents table free.

DIME Publications. We can furnish all of Dr. FOOTE'S popular Dime Publications on health and kindred topics.
