Life, Growth, Beauty.

LONDON HAIR COLOR RESTORER!

LONDON HAIR COLOR RESTORER.

Not a Dye; makes harsh hair soft and silky; cleanses the scalp from all impurities, causing the hair to grow where it has fallen off or become thin.

Can be applied by the hand as it does not stain the skin or soil the finest linen. As a hair Dressing it is the most perfect the world has ever produced. The hair is renovated and strengthened, and natural color restored without the application of mineral substances.

Since the introduction of this truly valuable preparation into this country, it has been the wonder and admiration of all classes, as it has proved to be the only article that will absolutely without deception, restore gray hair to its original color, health softness, lustre and beauty, and produces hair on bald heads of its original growth and color.

This beautiful and fragrantly perfumed article is complete within itself, no washing or preparation before or after its use, or accompaniment of any kind being required to obtain these desirable results.

HERE IS THE PROOF

OF ITS

Superior Excellence.

Read this Home Certificate, testified to by Edward B. Garrigues one of the most competent Druggists and Chemists of Philadelphia, a man whose veracity none can doubt.

I am happy to add my testimony to the great value of the "London Hair Color Restorer," which restored my hair to its original Color, and the hue appears to be permanent. I am satisfied that this preparation is nothing like a dye but operates upon the secretions. It is also a beautiful hair dressing and promotes the growth. I purchased the first bottle from Edward B. Garrigues, druggist, Tenth and Cestley street, who can also testify my hair was quite gray when I commenced its use.

MRS. MILLER.
No. 730 North Ninth street, Phila.

Dr. Swayne & Son, Respected friends:—I have the pleasure to inform you that a lady of my acquaintance, Mrs. Miller, is delighted with the success of your "London Hair Color Restorer." Her hair was falling rapidly, and quite gray The color has been restored the falling off entirely stopped, and a new growth of hair is the result.

E. B. GARRIGUES,
Druggist, cor. Tenth and —Coates, Phila.

BOSTON TESTIMONY.

July 23d, 1871.—Dr. Swayne & Son: Last winter while in Taunton, N. J., I procured six bottles "London Hair Color Restorer," which I like very much, in fact better than any thing I have used in the last nine years. If you please, send me one dozen bottles C. O. D., care of W. S. Pinder & Son, Druggists, No. 723 Tremont street, Boston. Respectfully yours,

ADA BAKER,
No. 59 Rutland Square,

The Lungs!
CONSUMPTION!

This distressing and dangerous complaint, and its premonitory symptoms, neglected cough, night sweats, hoarseness, wasting flesh fever—permanently cured by "Doctor Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry."

BRONCHITIS—A premonitor of Pulmonary Consumption, is characterized by catarrh, or inflammation of the mucus membrane of the air passages, with cough and expectoration, short breath, hoarseness, pains in the chest. For all bronchial affections, sore throat, loss of voice, coughs,

DR. SWAYNE'S
Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry is a sovereign remedy.

HEMORRHAGE, OR SPITTING OF BLOOD, may proceed from the larynx, trachia, bronchia or lungs, and arises from various causes, as undue physical exertion, plethora, or fullness of the vessels, weak lungs, overstraining of the voice, suppressed evacuation, obstruction of the spleen or liver, &c.

Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry strikes at the root of disease by purifying the blood, restoring the liver and kidneys to healthy action, invigorating the nervous system.

Its marvelous power, not only over consumption, but over every chronic disease where a gradual alterative action is needed. Under its use the cough is loosened, the night sweats diminished, the pain subsides, the pulse returns to its natural standard, the stomach is improved in its power to digest and assimilate the food and every organ has a purer and better quality of blood supplied to it, out of which new recreative and plastic materials is made.

HOME TESTIMONY.

I was surely afflicted with one of the most distressing of all diseases Pruritus or Purigo, or more commonly known as Itching Piles. The itching at times was almost intolerable, increased by scratching, and not unfrequently became quite sore. I bought a box of "Swayne's Ointment its use gave quick relief, and in a short time made a perfect cure. I can now sleep undisturbed, and I would advise all who are suffering with this distressing complaint to procure Swayne's Ointment" at once. I had tried prescriptions sims innumerable, without finding any permanent relief.

Adulterated Brandy.

"A druggist in Cincinnati sent to New York for two hogsheads of Seignette brandy (the best imported) so as to supply physicians with the best article for medical purposes. The State Chemist, Dr. Cox, tested both brands; poured some in a tumbler, put a steel blade in it and let it remain fifteen minutes. At the end of that time the steel blade had turned the brandy as black as ink! The steel was removed, and when dried had a thick coating of rust, which, when wiped off left a copper coat on the blade as thick as if it had been plated with copper. The druggist refused to pay for the liquor; the New York man sued him and Dr. Cox analyzed the stuff again in the presence of the court and jury. In one cask he found sulpuric acid, nitric acid, nitric ether, prussic acid, guano, pepper, and an abundance of fusil oil; in the other cask he found the same articles, but in greater abundance with catechu. The jury decided the liquor worthless; and the man left without his pay. Again in reply to a letter, Dr. Cox says: I was appointed to the office of Chemical Inspector of Ohio the 16th of March, 1855. Since then I have made over six hundred inspections of stores and lots of liquor of every variety, and now positively asserted, that over ninety per cent. of all that I have analyzed were adulterated with the most pernicious and poisonous compounds.

"This testimony comes from the highest authority possible, and ought to satisfy all persons that our imported liquors are as much adulterated and as spurious as our native drinks."

A Delightful Legend.

There is a beautiful legend connected with the site on which the Temple of Solomon was erected. It is said to have been occupied in common by two brothers, one of whom had a family, but the other had none. On the spot was a field of wheat. On the evening succeeding the harvest, the wheat having been gathered in shocks, the elder brother said to his wife.

"My younger brother is unable to bear the heat of the day. I will arise, take off my shocks and place them with his without his knowledge."

The younger brother, being actuated by the same benevolent motive, said within himself:

"My elder brother has a family and I have none. I will contribute to their support. I will arise, take off my shocks and place them with his, without his knowledge."

Judge of their astonishment when, on the following morning, they found that their respective shocks were undiminished. This course of events transpired for several nights, when each resolved in his own mind to stand guard, and if possible, to solve the mistery. They did so, when, on the following night, they met each-other half way between their respective shocks with their arms full.

Upon ground hallowed by such associations as this was the Temp leof King Solomon erected—so spacious so magnificent, the wonder and admiration of the world. Alas! in these days how many would sooner steal their brother's whole shock than add to it a single sheaf!

MODES OF DYING.—Augustus Caesar chose to die in a standing position, and was careful in arranging his person and dress for the occasion. Julius Caesar, when slain by the conspirators in the Capitol, concealed his face beneath the folds of his toga, so that his enemies might not see the death pang upon his countenance. Siward Earl of Northumberland, when at the point of death, quitted his bed and put on his armor, saying. 'It becomes not a man to die like a beast.' Maria Lousia of Austria, a short time before she breathed her last, had fallen into an apparent slight slumber and one of the ladies in attendance remarked that Her Majesty seemed to be asleep.—'No' replied she, 'I could sleep if I would indulge repose; but I am sensible of the approach of death, and I would not allow myself to be suprised by him in my sleep; I wish to meet him wide awake.' Lord Nelson, on receiving the fatal shot said to Captain Hardy: 'My backbone is shot through;' and had the presence of mind to take ont his handkerchief and cover his face and stars, to be concealed from the gaze of the crew. And last of all the great Bonaparte died in his field marshal's uniform and boots which he had ordered to be put on a short time previous to his dissolution.

FUNNY INCIDENT.—The Rochester Union says: "Two of our school commissioners started out the other day to pay a visit to one of the schools. On enteriug the yard they saw a little boy playing around whose face, hands, and clothes were not quite as clean as they might have been. One of the commissioners called him up, and told him he had better go home and get his mother to clean him up a little, and make him appear more decent. On the boy approaching the speaker the other commissioner was heard to exclaim: "Why, dash it all! that's my boy!"

A WISE WOMAN.—The Countess Danner, the morganatic wife of King Frederick VII. of Denmark, left all her fortune, which amounts to nearly $2,000,000, to a charitable institution or home for the reception of poor girls of the humbler classes. The girls are brought up to become nurses and waitresses. The institution is located in the district north of Zealand, and is surrounded by a beautiful park. There are museums for the instruction of the girls. During the first year of the [illegible]
