THE POST

Middleburg, June 22, [illegible]

Local News, &c.

—All communications, business letters &c., for this office, to secure prompt attention should be addressed as follows: THE POST, Middleburg, Snyder County, Pa. Advertisements, communications &c. must be handed in by Monday noon, to secure insertion in next issue.

SNYDER COUNTY COURTS.—The Courts of Snyder County are held on the fourth Mondays of February, May, and September and second Monday of December.

NORMAL INSTITUTE.—Prof. Wm Noetling would announce to the public that the summer session of his Normal Institute will commence July the 10th 1876. To those who desire first-class instructions this is a good opportunity.

The Snyder County Central Agricultural Fair will be held at Middleburg, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Oct. 5th, 6th and 7th, next. Every effort will be made to make the Fair an entire success, and it is hoped the people of the whole county will contribute thereto.

The old standing committee who gave place to the new committee, on Monday last, deserves a great deal of credit for the good they accomplished. The fair and satisfactory manner in which the late Primary Election was conducted is due to their action on the memorable 7th of August last.

"Patrons of husbandry? said Mrs. Partington reflectively in reply to a remark of the Doctor's concerning that order, 'Yes, I do seem to recommember hearing of them; but I never have used any. The best patrons that I know of are the 'Domestic.' I have used lots of those to cut out my clothes by'—and here Isaac broke into her remarks with the information that the old ones made bully kites; and then went gravely on with his work of decorating the cat's tail with patent clothespins.

EMANUEL WEIS.—Some 27 years ago Mr. Weis was living in this place with his mother in the small house on the lot now occupied by Dr. J. Y Shindel. He left here about the above mentioned time, and no one was able to find out whither he had gone to or what had become of him, and all who knew him, thought that he was numbered with the dead. This was however not the case, as a few days ago he made his appearance in town, a fine, healthy looking gentleman. He intends to remain here a few weeks, have a sociable time with his old acquaintances, after which he will spend a short time at the centennial and then return to his home in California where he is in business. All wish him a pleasant time while sojourning in the east, and a safe and prosperous return to his western home.

FAMILY REUNION.—The family of Andrew and Barbara Uish, deceased late of West Beaver township, Snyder county, (a number of whose descendants reside in this county,) assembled at the house of Andrew Uish, in that township, on Saturday June 24, for a social time. Four sons were present, one absent; three daughters, one absent nine grand-children, twenty-five absent; fifteen great-grand-children, twenty-eight absent. Total number of the social pleasure, fifty-one. The following resolution was passed:

RESOLVED, That we, as a family of the deceased, feel grateful to the giver of all good that our lives have been spared unto this present day, and are blessed to enjoy this social happiness. May the Lord bless and sustain us by His grace, that when we fail on earth we may meet in heaven, where the wicked cease from troubling and the weary are at rest.

ISAAC R. UISH, Chairman.
H. WILSON UISH, Secretary.

The following sentiment was also expressed:

As our friends, Mr. John Orwig and wife and Mrs. Charles Kaley, from the State of Ohio, on their tour to the Centennial, gave us a visit (we desire to have a day of pleasure which would be remembered by all,) we give our heartfelt thanks to them for their respectful visit, and also wish them pleasure and success on their tour to the Centennial and home.—Lewistown Gazette.

A CERTAIN CURE FOR RHEUMATISM.—Judging from his article in the Weiner Medizinische Presse, Dr. Franz Zoller is an enthusiast in the administration of acetic ammonia in rheumatism. For several years he had been a sufferer from severe muscular rheumatism in the right shoulder; he had taken all the antirheumatic remedies, with but little alleviation when he began to realize that in rheumatism, as in gout, there may be a uric acid diathesis; he thought that liquor ammoniae, on account of its rapid volatilization, would be a remedy most readily absorbed and the most prompt in action.

In almost the same moment in which it took one drop, diluted with water, he felt a complete relief from the pain, which had lasted for ten hours; he was now able to move freely the arm which, an instant before, he could scarcely bear to have touched. The remedy, he claims, has proved a positive cure in all recent cases of muscular rheumatism which have been under his observation; he has numerous cases in which relief, instantaneous as his own, was experienced. He also observed its effects in several cases of acute articular rheumatism, in two of which six drops sufficed to subdue the pain and swelling within a period of twenty-four hours. In one case of chronic rheumatism of a finger joint, which had lasted for over a year, the simple administration of the minima completely dispelled the inflammation and pain in the joint in two days.

He then discusses the mode of action of his remedy. 'If we consider an excessive acidity as the cause of the rheumatism, we can scarcely claim in those cases in which one drop will instantaneously relieve the pain in the rheumatism, that one drop was sufficient to counteract the effects of the excess of uric or (according to others) lactic acid.

Nothing remains therefore but for us to look to the source of rheumatism in morbid, nervous activity induced by disturbances of nutrition and to believe that the ammonia acts as a sedative directly upon the nerves.'

In the case of one attack of rheumatism, our object should be to put a stop to such a condition as to prevent their recurrence. This, the writer thinks, is to be done by building up the general system, and thus diminishing the nervous excitability.—

assessors. D. Bolender, Jesse Knepp and H. Brown reported a series of Resolutions expressive of the sentiments of the convention.

Resolutions.

Resolved, That the Republican party of Snyder county, through her representatives, the Return Judges of the several districts, in convention assembled, do hereby heartily endorse the nomination of his Excellency, Rutherford B. Hayes, of Ohio, as the Republican candidate for President of the United States; and that we heartily endorse the nomination of Hon. William A Wheeler, of N. Y. as the Republican candidate for Vice President; that we further endorse the action of the National Convention, at Cincinnati, in laying down a platform of broad, sound principles and the exercise of wisdom and sound judgment in presenting to the people for their suffrages two of the purest statesmen and most eminent citizens for two of the highest offices in the gift of the American people.

Resolved, That in the nomination of Dr. A. M Smith, for Congress, we have selected a gentleman of ability, integrity and unblemished character; and should the Congressional conference recognize his claims we pledge him the entire support of the party. That Snyder county has just claims to the district nomination is indisputable.

Resolved, That in the nomination of Dr. B. F. Wagenseller, for Senator, we have a gentleman whose qualifications for the office are unquestionable—that the claims of Snyder county are such that the nomination in the District conference should be recognized and yielded with entire unanimity—that we, counsel unity and harmony throughout the district, and pledge him a full, hearty support in the approaching campaign.

Resolved, That in presenting Charles Miller, for the Legislature; J. H. Arnold for District Attorney; Jeremiah Crouse for Prothonotary; James M. Vanzandt for Register & Recorder, and S. F. Sheary for Jury Commissioner, the party has selected men of ability and well qualified for an efficient discharge of the duties of the several offices and whom we will support with the entire strength of the party.

Resolved, That the candidates for Congress and Senate select their conferees.

Gen. Samuel M. Zulick of Philadelphia, who for some time was an officer of the Sunbury & Lewistown railroad, died in that city on Saturday last a week, aged 52 years. Gen. Zulick had a distinguished record. He was a physician by profession, and graduated at the age of seventeen. In 1861 he entered the army and arose by merit to the position of brevet brigadier general at the close of the war. He took part in nineteen battles. He was buried at Easton, where he was born.

A CARD TO THE AMERICAN PUBLIC.—For many years we have made two medicines suited to the ailments of a vast class of sufferers. Thousands of cures have been made by them, and, in fact, the word failure could never be coupled with them. But within the last two years counterfeits of our medicines have sprung up, dangerous in their close imitation of our Trade Mark. To secure the genuine we have placed upon each genuine box or Holloway's Pills and Holloway's Ointment the fac simile of the signature of our Agent, Mr. Jos. Hayden's. To counterfeit this is felony. We shall not scarcely pardon any one who shall deal with the utmost rigor of the law. We most earnestly beg that the great mass of the American people will aid us in our efforts to preserve their health, and help us in our task of bringing these most unscrupulous to the merited justice. Unless you refuse to purchase Medicines purporting to be yours unless Mr. Joseph Hayden's signature is attached to each Box of Pills or Pot of Ointment and the end will soon be reached.

The public's obedient servants,
