WHAT IS VEGETINE ?

It is a compound extracted from barks, roots and herbs. It is Nature's Remedy. It is perfectly harmless from any bad effect upon the system. It is nourishing and strengthening. It acts directly upon the blood. It quiets the nervous system. It gives you good sweet sleep at night. It is a panacea for our aged fathers and mothers for it gives them strength, quiets their nerves, and gives them Nature's sweet sleep,—as has been proved by many an aged person. It is the great Blood Purifier. It is a soothing remedy for our children. It has relieved and cured thousands. It is very pleasant to take; every child likes it. It relieves and cures all diseases originating from impure blood. Try the VEGETINE. Give it a fair trial for your complaints; then you will say to your friend, neighbor and acquaintance, "Try it; it has cured me."

RELIABLE EVIDENCE.

The following unsolicited testimonial from Rev. O. T. Walker, formerly pastor of Bowdoin Square Church Boston, and at present settled in Providence, R. I., must be deemed as reliable evidence. No one should fail to observe that this testimonial is the result of two years experience with the use of VEGETINE in the Rev. Mr. Walker's family, who now pronounce it invaluable.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., 174 Transit Street.
H. R. STEVENS, Esq.:

I feel bound to express with my signature the high value I place upon your VEGETINE. My family have used it for the last two years. In nervous debility it is invaluable, and I recommend it to all who may need an invigorating tonic.

O. T. WALKER
Formerly Pastor of Bowdoin Square Church, Boston.

THE BEST EVIDENCE.

The following letter from L. S. Bent, Pastor of the M. E. Church, Natick, Mass., will be read with interest by many physicians; also those suffering from the same disease as afflicted the son of the Rev. L. S. Bent. No person can doubt this testimony, as there is no doubt about the curative power of VEGETINE.

NATICK, MASS., Jan. 1st 1873.

MR. H. R. STEVENS:

Dear Sir—We have good reason for regarding your VEGETINE as medicine of the greatest value. We feel assured that it has been the means of saving our son's life. He is now seventeen years of age: for the last two years he has suffered from necrosis of his leg, caused by scrofulous affection, and was so far reduced that nearly all who saw him thought his recovery impossible. A council of able physicians could give us but the faintest hope of his ever rallying; two of the number declaring that he was beyond the reach of human remedies, that even amputation could not save him as he had not vigor enough to endure the operation. Just then we commenced giving him VEGETINE and from that time to the present he has been continuously improving. He has lately resumed studies, throws away his crutches and cane, and walks about cheerfully and strong.

Though there is still some discharges from the opening where his limb was lanced, we have the fullest confidence that in a little time he will be perfectly cured.

He has taken about three dozen bottles of VEGETINE, but lately uses but little, as he declares he is too well to be taking medicine.

Respectfully yours,
L. S. BENT,
MRS. L. C. F. BENT.

A Lightning Bolt Writing God's Name on a Blasphemer.

Some of our cotemporaries seem disposed to question the truth of our statement that a negro man who was killed by lightning a few days ago in Campbell county, had the the letters 'GOD' on his body. Dr. Thomas E. Moorman, whose post office address is Mt. Zion, Campbell county has furnished the Richmond Christian Advocate an account of the circumstances, from which we extract the following:

'On the evening of July 6th Perry Jones and George Brown, colored men notoriously the most profane, wicked persons in the whole community, with three other colored persons took refuge, during the rain accompanied by a good deal of lightning and thunder, in a tobacco barn on the land of Mr. Geo. Creasey.

From their several positions one would have thought that two of the others were in more, and the third in as much danger as Jones and Brown were. They, as their custom was, were engaged in cursing and swearing. Suddenly the lightning descended upon them, and while the other three were uninjured, Jones was killed and Brown was stricken down senseless and almost lifeless for a time. He revived after a few minutes, and soon seemed to have regained his strength, but was dumb and bereft of his mind for several hours. The lightning had set fire to his clothing, and he was burned on his chest and left side and arm before the fire was extinguished. In his maniac efforts to free himself from those who were restraining him the skin was rubbed from the burned flesh and presented the following characters, GOD. Very close representation, to say the least of them, of the capital letters used in printing the name of the Deity, while around and between them the skin was not unremoved, and apparently not burned. The above characters occupied the angles of an equilateral triangle which as you are doubtless aware was in ancient days the symbol of Deity. This man then appears to have been branded with the name of his Creator in the symbolic language, it may be of his forefathers three thousand years ago, and in the printed language of the nation to which he belongs.'

Gen Butler and the Poor Widow.

A short time ago a poor Irishwoman, whose husband had been killed in the war, called on Gen. B. F. Butler in Boston, to ask for his influence in getting employment for her son as a laborer in the navy-yard. She told her pitiful story—of cold nights and days in their miserable lodging, of the weary walks of herson seeking a day's labor to stop the slow starvation—and every word she said was proved by the wretched shawl, the white face and wasted figure. He heard the story as if he was used to it, and was taking out his wallet to give her a dollar and let her go, when he asked in his gruff way: "Where's your husband, ma'am?"

'He was killed in the war, sir—in New Orleans—under you,' said the widow, and she broke down, subbing as if her heart would burst, and covering her face with her apron.

Old Ben put his wallet in his pocket, and stood up with a strange glitter in his eye for a moment, looking at the woman's misery and grief. Then he told her to be quiet—asked her husband's name and regiment—and called one of his clerks. After looking through a large book, and making notes, he told the poor woman to call on him in a fort-night, when he returned from Washington and he also promised he would give her the letter for her son. With a greatful heart the widow went away.

Three days afterward Gen. Butler was in Washington, and he made it his business to see about the widow's case at the War Department. He found that a pension was due to her of $1,175, and the money was transferred to his care for her use after proper formalities. When the two weeks had expired, the widow called on him in Boston for the letter for her son.

'Here it is,' said the General; 'this will get him work, and his wages will be enough to support you and him in comfort. And here,' he added, pulling out an envelope, 'is another letter containing $1,175 for yourself, due to you by the United States. Lodge this in the bank in your own name, and if you want to invest it in any other way come to me and I'll tell you how.'

Your Hair Falling Out

OR TURNING GRAY!

If So Do Not Fail To Use

NDON HAIR COLOR RESTORER.

The Great Reputation

which it has attained and the large number of testimonials which are constantly being received is conclusive proof of its great value.

Proof Positive—A New Suit of Hair, Natural Color and Beauty Restored.

Dr. Swayne & Son—Some six years ago, I began to loose my hair, and continued to do so until the scalp became as bare as the palm of my hand, troubled also with a disagreeable itching fever, great heat and dandruff, small pustules would form, quite sore to the touch, and the remaining portion of the hair, on the side and back of the head, became quite gray. After using a number of Restoratives, (so called), without success, and my head nearly destitute of hair, I reluctantly commenced using the "London Hair Color Restorer and Dressing."

Now, through its use, candor and justice compel me to say to all that I now possess a new and beautiful growth of hair, completely restored to its original dark and glossy appearance, and I venture the assertion, the world furnishes no preparation equal to this; and I do conclude it only to all who are gray or bald, hair dye and harsh or falling, to use at once this cleanly and delightfully perfumed article.

ISAAC N. MARSHAL,

Dr. Dalton of Philadelphia, says of it: The London Hair Color Restorer is used very extensively among my patients and friends, as well as by myself; I therefore speak from experience,
