THE Republicans of Indiana expect to gain at least four members of Congress. There is a danger of the loss of one to the greenbackers.

So far there have been eight members of the next House of Representatives elected; and so far they have been all Republicans. This promises well.

THE nation will have its opinion of a man who requires so much time and five colums of space to deny a charge of falsifying his income tax returns.—The Press.

F. A. Beamish, Sergeant at arms of the Democratic Assembly of Pennsylvania, who is under indictment for appropriating $10,000 school money to his own use, has been nominated for Senator by the Democrats of Luzerne. Hurrah for Tilden, Beamish and Reform!

THE Troy (N Y) Times says the charges against Tilden in the matter of his alleged income tax frauds are definite and direct, Sinnott's answer in Tilden's behalf is vague and evasive; he seeks to cover the matter under the maze of verbiage, cunningly construed for the purpose of confusing and misleading the reader.

IT has been ascertained that not a man of the Molly Maguires in Schuylkill county, Pennsylvania, is a Republican, but nearly every man killed by them was a Republican. J. J. Slatterly and several other democratic politicians are now undergoing trial for conspiring to murder William and Jesse Major.

THE camp fires of patriotism are lighting up everywhere. The loyal people are awake to the necessities of the hour, and are rallying to the defense of the old flag as never before. Keep it up! Put forth every effort to make the victory the most complete in our history. Democracy is already on the retreat. If our friends work energetically we shall make the retreat an utter route.

THE Pittsburg Commercial says that Thaddeus M. Mahon, of Franklin county, has been nominated for Congress by the Republicans of the Eighteenth district. He was formerly a member of the Legislature, and as such earned a high reputation for ability. His opponent is one Stenger, and if Mahon can't beat him he can't beat anybody. The district is Republican.

OUR Democratic papers will be pleased to learn that their anxiety for Mr. Schurz is groundless. He will not be shelved, but will continue in the field; he has had no disagreement with any member of the National Republican Committee, and he cherishes a cheerful confidence in a Republican victory in Indiana and Ohio—all of which the New York Times states by authority.

IF the people of the Republic are unreasonable enough to put Mr. Tilden into the Presidential chair, and give him a Congress that will be molded as clay in the hands of a potter, as he will be moulded by the Southern statesmen, then on their heads will fall the infliction of the payment of the Confederate war debt payment for the emancipated slaves, and ultimate repudiation of all National currency, and the restoration of slavery. If the Democracy carry the National elections, nothing will save the country from such an infliction but another war; and if the people are so foolish as to put in rulers who will restore the old order of affairs, or a still worse state of affairs, they are not worth fighting for, and all the gallant sacrifices made against the Confederacy, and all the millions of money spent will have been spent in vain, and the world must start on another backward movement. These are not words to alarm. History gives many cases of backward movements of nations as remarkable as such a one would be.—Ex.

IN FULL RETREAT.—Democracy is in full retreat. If the friends of law and order follow up the advantage the retreat will be a rute by November. Let no opportunity to bring out a full vote be lost. Every Republican should labor from this time to the election as if on his vote depended the contest. We cannot have to many votes. If the cause should be lost by one vote it would be as fatal as if lost by a million.

AN INTERESTING LITTLE STORY.—The following story of Governor Hayes was told at a Republican meeting recently held in Cleveland:

At South mountain the boys of the Twenty-third having appropriated two stacks of straw for their use in dire distress, the General in command rode up to the regiment and ordered the straw returned. R. B. Hayes, then Lieutenant-Colonel, replied: "My boys have neither tents, blankets, nor overcoats. The mud is ankle deep, and the loss of the straw will cost more quinine to the government, to say nothing of the suffering of the regiment, than ten times the value, and if the government will not pay for it I will." And R B. Hayes paid for that straw out of his own pocket, and this man R. B. Hayes—worshiped by his regiment—is the man whom the Copperhead Democracy would pollute by relating the infamous story that he appropriated the money of a bounty jumper to his own use. The boys of the Twenty-third fling it back in their teeth as a "dirty, infamous lie."

THE mass of the Democracy are not into the secrets of the plans of Tilden and other chief leaders of his party. If they were, they would no more follow them than they followed when Rebellion threw off its mask and showed its foul purposes. When the leaders of Rebellion assailed the Government by force of arms, the mass of the Democracy sprang away from their leaders in disgust. They then saw plainly that the purpose of their leaders was to overthrow the Government.

If Tilden is elected and a supporting Congress is given him, and they throw off the mask that now hides their purposes, or the purposes of their leaders, the people might forsake them, but the machinery of the Government would all be in the hands of their enemies, and they would be completely helpless. Do you say that is "too great a change to take place." Consult history—the Bible relates numerous changes as great as that, and profane history is studded over with changes even more sudden than that. If the experience of the past is a standard to judge by, such a change will not be a difficult piece of business.—Sentinal and Republican.

WE notice in our exchanges many calculations of the probable result of the presidential election, some of which from Republican sources, claim from 220 to 255 votes for Hayes, while the Democrats, by claiming states which they have not a shadow of chance of securing, elect Tilden. The outlook at present, we think cannot be more fairly stated, for both parties, than in this way:

Whole number of electors 369. Necessary to a choice 185. There can be no reasonable doubt of the success of the Republicans in every one of the states we have given to Hayes and Wheeler, which bring them within 12 votes of an election. It will be seen that if the Republicans carry California and Connecticut they will elect without New York and Indiana. We have given the whole south to Tilden, with the single exception of South Carolina, which cannot well be taken from us, now that the party is reunited, and there are some "federal bayonets" in the State. Some Republicans insist that we will carry the states of Louisiana, Florida, and North Carolina, and there is little doubt but we could, if a fair vote can be had, but that is not to be expected. If we should carry any two of them, we can spare all the States in the doubtful column. The chances are undoubtedly in favor of Hayes and Wheeler in both New York and Indiana, and we should not be surprised to find, when the smoke of the battle clears up on the 8th of November, that they have carried every northern state, and that Tilden has secured a united south, except the state of South Carolina. If so the result will be Hayes 238, Tilden 131. In any event the chances are certainly largely in favor of Hayes.

When Tweed was taken on board the Franklin his companion, Hunt, was liberated and immediately sought an American friend at the Hotel Europa in Vigo, registered as R. Stands, but who is supposed to be Tweed's son.

MR. HENDRICKS, or, as he is picturesquely called by the Louisville Courier Journal, 'square-toed Tom,' blames the hard times on the Republican party; and here is what the Chicago Times (dem.) says to him on that point: "Mr. Hendrick's twaddle about hard times may go down in Indiana, but it will excite only ridicule elsewhere. Most people know that the present industrial depression extends to Canada, England, Germany, and many other countries, and they are too sensible to hold any political party in this country responsible for it all. Mr. Hendricks should bear in mind that he is a candidate for Vice President, and when he talks he addresses the people of the whole country, and not merely some sleepy rustics in Indiana." The Chicago Times is quite as "square-toed" as "Tom."

THE Birmingham (Ala.) Iron Age contains the following advertise-

CONFEDERATE MONDAY WANTED—PERSONS having Confederate money or bonds if of the proper issue and denomination, can find a purchaser at fair prices by a quiring at this office,

And we may swear that it is inserted by a Democrat who sees the drift of things if Tilden is elected and the Democrats regain power in the Federal Government.

Two hundred and fifty-one thousand four hundred and sixty-three cash admissions to the Centennial Exhibition, at Philadelphia, on the 28th ult., Pennsylvania day, without counting dead-heads. It was the greatest crowd that was ever seen on this continent, and none who saw it will ever see its like again.

Hill and Fullman, two of the Elwood (N. J.) swamp fiends, were yesterday convicted of murder in the first degree, and Dayton, who turned State's evidence, was convicted of murder in the second degree.

Dyspepsia! Dyspepsia! Dyspepsia!

Dyspepsia is the most perplexing of all human ailments. Its symptoms are almost infinite in their variety and the forlorn and despondent victims of the disease often fancy themselves the prey, in turn, of every known malady. This is due in part to the close sympathy which exists between the stomach and the brain, and in part also to the fact that any disturbance of the digestive function necessarily disorders the liver, the bowles and the nervous system, and effects to some extent, the quality of the blood.

E. F. Kunkel's Bitter Wine of Iron is a sure cure. This is not a new preparation, to be tried and found wanting, it has been prescribed daily for many years in the practice of eminent physicians with unparalleled success, it is not expected or intended to cure all the diseases to which human family is subject, but is warranted to cure Dyspepsia in its most obstinate form. Kunkel's Bitter Wine of Iron never fails to cure. Symptoms of Dyspepsia are loss of appetite, wind and rising of the food, dryness of the mouth, heartburn, distention of the stomach and bowles, constipation, headache, dizziness, sleeplessness and low spirits. Try the great remedy and be convinced of its merits. Get the Genuine. Take only Kunkel's, which is put up only in $1 bottles. Depot. 259 North Ninth St., Philadelphia, Pa. It never fails. For sale by all Druggists and dealers everywhere.

Ask for E. F. Kunkel's Bitter Wine of Iron and take no other, six bottles for $5.00 or $1 per bottle

Worms! Worms! Worms!

E F. Kunkel's Worm Syrup never fails to destroy Pin Seat and Stomach worms. Dr. Kunkel, the only successful Physician who removes Tape worm in 2 hours, alive with head, and no fee until removed. Common sense teaches if Tape worm be removed all other worms can be readily destroyed. Send for circular to E. F. Kunkel. 259 North Ninth Street, Philadelphia, Pa., or call on your druggist for a bottle of Kunkel's Worm Syrup, price $1. It never fails,

A CARD TO THE AMERICAN PUBLIC.—For many years we have made two medicines suited to the ailments of a vast class of sufferers. Thousands of cures have been made by them, and, in fact, the word failure could never be coupled with them. But within the last two years counterfeits of our medicines have sprung up, dangerous in their close imitation of our Trade Mark. To secure the people we have placed upon each genuine box of Holloway's Pills and Holloway's Ointment the fac simile of the signature of our Agent, Mr. Jos. Haydock. To counterfeit this is felony. We shall relentlessly purse any one who imitates this with the utmost vigor of the law. We most earnestly beg that the great mass of the American people will aid us in our efforts to protect their health, and help us in our task of bringing these most unprincipled men to the bar of justice. Uniformly refuse to purchase Medicines purporting to be ours unless Mr. Jos. Haydock's signature is attached to each Box of Pills or Pot of Ointment and the end will soon be reached.

The public's obedient servants,
HOLLOWAY & CO.

A CARD.

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a receipe that will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the REV. JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D, Bible House, New York City.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

Nervous Disorders.

WHAT is more fearful than a breaking down of the nervous system? To be excitable or nervous in a small degree is most distressing, for where can a remedy be found? There is one:—drink but little wine, beer, or spirits, or far better none; take no coffee,—weak tea being preferable; get all the fresh air you can; take three or four Pills every night; eat plenty of solids, avoiding the use of slops, and if these golden rules are followed, you will be happy in mind and strong in body, and forget you have any nerves.

Mothers and Daughters.

If there is one thing more than another for which these Pills are so famous, it is ttheir purifying properties, especially their power of cleansing the blood from all impurities, and removing dangerous and suspended secretions. Universally adopted as the one grand remedy for female complaints, they never fail, never weaken the system, and always bring about what is required.

Sick Headaches and Want of Appetite.

These feelings which so sadden us, most frequently arise from annoyances or trouble from obstructed perspiration, or from eating and drinking what is unfit for us, thus disordering the liver and stomach. These organs must be regulated if you wish to be well. The Pills, if taken according to the printed instructions, will quickly restore a healthy action to both liver and stomach, whence follows, as a natural consequence, a good appetite and a clear head. In the East and West Indies scarcely any other medicine is ever used for these disorders.

How to be Strong.

Never let the bowels be either confined or unduly acted upon. It may appear singular that Holloway's Pills should be recommended for a run upon the bowels, many persons supposing that they would increase relaxation. This is a great mistake, however: for these Pills will immediately correct the liver and stop every kind of bowel complaint. In warm climates thousands of live have been saved by the use of this medicine, which in all cases gives tone and vigor to the whole organic system, however deranged,—health and strength following as a matter of course. The appetite, too, is wonderfully increased by the use of these Pills, combined in the use of solid in preference to fluid diet. Animal food is better than broths and stews. By removing acrid, fermented, or other impure humors from the liver, stomach, or blood, the cause of dysentery, diarrhœa, and other bowel complaints is expelled. The result is, that the disturbance is arrested, and the action of the bowels becomes regular. Nothing will stop the relaxation of the bowels so quickly as this fine correcting medicine.

Disorders of the Kidneys.

In all diseases affecting these organs, whether they secrete too much or too little water; or whether they be afflicted with stone or gravel, or with aches and pains settled in the loins over the regions of the kidneys, these pills should be taken according to the printed directions, and the Ointment should be well rubbed into the small of the back at bedtime. This treatment will give almost immediate relief when all other means have failed.

For Stomachs out of Order.

No medicine will so effectually improve the tone of the stomach as these pills; they remove all acidity, occasioned either by intemperence or improper diet. They reach the liver and reduce it to a healthy action; they are wonderfully efficacious in cases of spasms—in fact they never fail in curing all disorders of the liver and stomach.

Holoway's Pills are the best remedy known in the world for the following diseases:

Ague,	Asthma,	Billious Complaints,
Blotches on the Skin,	Bowel Complaints,	Colics,
Consumption,	Debility,	Constipation of the Bowles,
Erosipelas,	Dysentery	Female Irregularities
Fits,	Dropsy,	Fevers of all kinds,
Indigestion,	Gout,	Headache,
Liver Complaint,	Inflammation,	Jaundice,
Scrofula, or King's Evil	Lumbago,	Piles,
Tumors,	Rheumatism,	Retention of Urine,
Ulcers,	Sore Throats,	Secondary Symptoms
	Stone & Gravel,	Tic-Douloureux,
	Venereal Affections,	Worms of all kinds,
		Weakness from any cause, &c.

CAUTION!—None are genuine unless the signature of J. Haydock, as agent for the United States, surrounds each box of Pills and Ointment. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same knowing them to be spurious.

A MATTER OF POPULAR INTEREST.

We confess, from the Ledger Buildings the appearance of a conversation about Oak Hall, in Philadelphia, "Manamaker & Brown's" "Largest Clothing House in America." A visitor and answer every the questions:

Visitor. "What elevator is the Building on?"

Attendant. "South-East corner of Sixth and Market. Please note the SIXTH, for some strangers seeking Oak Hall, have been misled by desiring persons."

V. "It is perfectly colossal! Do you know its dimensions?"

A. "12,000 square feet—66 on Market, and 180 odd on Sixth, six stories high, has over three acres of flooring, and covers space once occupied by more than twenty different business places."

V. "Do you use steam-power?"

A. "A giant young engine furnishes power for the freight and passenger elevators, and the boilers steam for heating, and the other operations of the house."

V. "What order do you take with goods?"

A. "They are first received and stamped in the basement, on long low counters, and taken thence on the freight elevator to the inspector's room on the fifth floor."

V. "Is inspecting the first operation?"

A. "No, sir, measuring. The goods are first measured in the piece, then inspected. The cloth passes over rollers in the face of a strong light, and two men sit, one before and one behind the goods, watching with the eye of a hawk for the least pin-hole imperfection, and marking every flaw, so that the cutter may see and avoid it when he comes to cut the garments."

V. "You must employ an army of cutters?"

A. "Come to our fifth floor and see! We keep 70 hands all the time cutting up the cloth into garments,—besides the machines that do a dozen men's work each at a stroke."

V. "Do you manufacture all your own goods?"

A. "We do, and most carefully. Our examiners inspect every stitch and seam, and certify to every garment as extra-well made before we put our ticket on it, and become responsible for it."

V. "Your system must save you a great deal?"

A. "In every direction, sir. It is the system and economy we practice all the way through, that enables us to put our prices down to the people as we do."

V. "After inspecting the work, what becomes of it?"

A. "Before it goes into Stock it is ticketed. Every single garment has its number and other points noted on it, so that its entire history can be traced without fail, upon our books."

V. "You must have 20 or 40 salesmen?"

A. "Why sir, on busy days you may see 100 in the various rooms and suites of rooms, selling to the throngs of customers."

V. "Do you do an order business, by mail and express?"

A. "Very great. All over the country. Our perfect system and rules of self-measurement make it possible to please people 2,000 miles away as perfectly as if they were here in person."

V. "I suppose you harvest best half a dozen different departments?"

A. "My dear sir! we have more than twenty, each charged with its own business, and each thoroughly organized, a necessary wheel within the great wheel."

V. "Will you name a dozen or so of them?"

A. "With pleasure. The Custom Department, for those who prefer custom-made to ready-made. The Furnishing Department, with its immense stock of all underwear. The Shirt Factory, with its busy machines, making our own fine shirts. The Trimming Department, itself asking as many a question. The Garment Stock Room. The Receiving Room. The Order Department, named before. The Special Uniforms Department. The Delivery Department, with its score of messengers. The—"

V. "Hold, hold! Enough!"

A. "I'm not half through! The Advertising Department, with its bill and sign distributors, editing and publishing business and popular journal, circulating over 70,000 copies monthly (tell all your friends to send for it). The Men's Department, with its many rooms. The Boys' Department. The Youths' Department. The Children's Department, with its special entrance for ladies. The Chief Clerk's Department, with its book-keepers and assistants. General Manager's Department; Financier's Office, and other offices of the firm; all busy as bees thinking, planning, suggesting, buying, making, registering, recording, sending out, selling, and in a thousand ways joining their forces to carry on a business with the people amounting to between $2,000,000 and $3,000,000 annually."

V. "S-t-u-p-e-n-d-o-u-s!"

A. "Indeed it is! I forgot the Cashier's Department, which handles all of retail sales on some single days."

V. "$25,000! Immense! That's what does the house to buy cheap and sell cheap?"

A. "Exactly! You have just hit it. The people throng here, knowing that we depend on low prices and immense sales."

V. "What are the 'FOUR RULES' I hear so much about?"

A. "Our system of business dealing—1. One price, no deviation; 2. Cash for everything; 3. A guarantee protecting the purchaser; 4. The money returned if the buyer can't otherwise be suited."

V. "Nothing could be fairer."

A. "Nothing. And the people see it."

V. "Well, I thank you, sir, for your polite attention."

A. "Not at all. It's a pleasure to serve you. Call again; and be sure of the place—Wannamaker & Brown's Oak Hall, South-East corner Sixth and Market."

V. "Thank you! I shall be happy to do so. Good morning."
