KIDNEY COMPLAINT.
Probably there is no complaint that afflicts the human system, which is so little understood at the present time, as some of the varied forms of Kidney Complaints.
There is no disease which causes such acute pain or more alarming in its results than when the kidneys fail to secrete from the blood the uric acid, and other poisonous substances, which the blood accumulates in its circulation through the system.
If from any cause the Kidneys fail to perform the functions devolving upon them, the accumulations are taken up by the absorbents and the whole system thrown into a state of disease causing great pain and suffering and very often immediate death. Hence the importance of keeping the kidneys and blood in a healthy condition, through which all the impurities of the body must pass.

Pain in the Back.
There is no remedy known to medical science which has proved itself more valuable in cases of Kidney Complaints than the VEGETINE. It acts directly upon the secretions, cleanses and purifies the blood, and restores the whole system to healthy action.
The following extraordinary cure of great sufferers who had been given up by the best physicians as hopeless cases, will speak for themselves, and should challenge the most profound attention of the medical faculty, as well as of those who are suffering from Kidney Complaint.

THE BEST MEDICINE.
EAST MARSHFIELD, Aug. 22, 1873.
MR. STEVENS: Dear Sir—I am seventy-one years of age: have suffered many years with Kidney Complaint, weakness in my back and stomach. I was induced by friends to try your VEGETINE, and I think it the best medicine for weakness of the Kidneys I ever used. I have tried many remedies for this complaint, and never found so much relief as from the VEGETINE. It strengthens and invigorates the whole system. Many of my acquaintances have taken it, and I believe it to be good for all the complaints for which it is recommended.
Yours truly,
JOSIAH H. SHERMAN,

Pronounced Incurable.
BOSTON, May 29, 1871.
H. R. STEVENS, Esq.,: Dear Sir—I have been badly afflicted with Kidney Complaint for ten years; have suffered great pain in my back, hips and side, with great difficulty in passing urine, which was often, and in very small quantities, frequently accompanied with blood and excruciating pain.
I have faithfully tried most of the popular remedies recommended for my complaint; I have been under the treatment of some of the most skillful physicians in Boston, all of whom pronounced my case incurable. This was my condition when I was advised by a friend to try the VEGETINE, and I could see the good effects from the first dose I took, and from that moment I kept on improving until I was entirely cured, taking in all, I should think, about six bottles.
It is indeed a valuable medicine and if I should be afflicted again in the same way, I would give a dollar a dose, if I could not get it without. Respectfully, J. M. GILE.
3.1 Third Street, South Boston.

NEARLY BLIND.
R. H. STEVENS: Dear Sir—In expressing my thanks to you for benefits derived from the use of VEGETINE, and to benefit others, I will state:
When eight or nine years old I was afflicted with Scrofula, which made its appearance in my eyes, face and head, and I was very near blind for two years. All kinds of operations were performed on my eyes, and all to no good result. Finally the disease principally settled in my body, limbs and feet, and at times in an aggravated way.
Last Summer I was, from some cause, weak in my spine and kidneys, and it was at times very hard to retain the urine. Seeing your advertisement in the Commercial, I bought a bottle of VEGETINE, and commenced using according to directions. In two or three days I obtained great relief. After using four or five bottles I noticed it had a wonderful effect on the rough, scaly blotches on my body and legs. I still used Vegetine and the humorous sores one after another disappeared until they were all gone, and I attribute the cure of the two diseases to VEGETINE, and nothing else.
If I am ever affected with anything of the kind again I shall try Vegetine as the only reliable remedy. Once more accept my thanks, and believe me to be, Very respectfully,
AUSTIN PARROTT.
Dec. 1, '72. No. 35 Gano St., Cincinnati, Ohio.

Diseases of the Kidneys, Bladder, etc., are always unpleasant, and at times they become the most distressing and dangerous diseases that can affect the human system. Most diseases of the Kidneys arise from impurities in the blood, causing humors which settle on these parts. VEGETINE exerts any known remedy in the whole world for cleansing and purifying the blood, thereby causing a healthy action to all the organs of the body.
Vegetine is Sold by all Druggists.

FATHER'S LESSON TO HIS BOY.—One day Robert's father saw him playing with some boys who were rude and unmannerly. He had observed for some time a change for the worse in his son, and now he knew the cause. He was very sorry, but he said nothing to Robert at the time. In the evening he brought from the garden six rosy-cheeked apples, put them on a plate, and presented them to Robert. He was much pleased at his father's kindness, and thanked him. "You must lay them aside for a few days that they may become mellow," said the father; and Robert cheerfully placed the plate with the apples in his mother's room.
Just as he was putting them aside his father laid on the plate the seventh apple, which was quite rotten, and desired him to let it remain there.
"But, father," said Robert, "the rotten apple will spoil all the others!"
"Do you think so? Why should not the fresh apples rather make the rotton one fresh?" said the father. And with these words he closed the door of the room.
Eight days afterward he asked his son to open the door and take out the apples. But what a sight presented itself! The six apples that had been so round and rosy-cheeked, were now quite rotten, and spread a bad smell through the room.
"Father," cried he, "did not I tell you that the rotten apple would spoil the good ones? You did not listen to me."
"My boy," said the father, "have I not told you often that the company of bad children will make you bad?" Yet you did not listen to me. See in the state of the apples that which will happen to you if you keep company with bad boys."
Robert did not forget the lesson. When any bad boys asked him to play with them he thought of the rotten apples, and kept himself apart from them.

One Hundred and Fifty Years Ago.
A correspondent in describing the manners and customs of the inhabitants of Concord, N. H., one hundred and fifty years ago, makes the following among the other observations:—
"The settlement of Concord was nearly one hundred years later than that of Dover, Portsmouth, Hampton, and other sea-coast towns, dating, in fact as late as 1727, and yet old Puritan customs were brought hither from Massachusetts, and long held sway over the people. Everything which had the appearance of levity, even in the beginning of the eighteenth century, was discarded by the pilgrims. The drinking of health and using of tobacco were forbidden, the former being considered a heathenish and idolatrous practice, grounded on ancient libations, the other as a species of intoxication. Laws were instituted to regulate social intercourse between the sexes and the advances toward matrimony. Pride and ostentation came under the cognizance of the magistrate. Modes of dress, cut of hair, manner of speech, style of carriage and bearing, hours of rising in the morning and retiring at night, too rapid driving on the roads, too loud, prolonged, or frequent laughter, bad conduct on the Lords day, and a thousand other things not regarded now as coming under the jurisdiction of the civil magistate, were made subjects of municipal regulations. Women were forbidden to expose their shoulders to view. Sleeves of gowns were to reach to the wrist, and the neck was to be close. Men were required to cut their hair short, so as not to resemble the other sex. No person not worth two hundred pounds was allowed to wear gold or silver lace, silk hoods, or embroidered scarfs.
"The ordinary food of the early settlers here for both breakfast and supper was bean porridge with bread and butter. On Sunday morning there was coffee in addition. Brown bread, made of "rye and Indian," was the staff of life, white bread being used only when guests were present. Baked pumpkins and milk composed a dish said to have been luxurious. For dinner, twice every week Sundays and Thursdays, baked beans and baked Indian pudding, the latter being served first; Saturdays, salt fish; one day in every week salt pork and corned beef; and one day also roasted meat, was the rule.
"The ancient dress of the men was a woolen coat, striped woolen frock, tow or leather breeches tied or buckled at the knee, and cowhide shoes with leathern buckskins. Sunday hats were three-cornered, kept in a wooden box, and made to last a lifetime. The dress of the women consisted of chemise, petticoats' tow gowns, tyers, thick woolen stockings, and cowhide shoes.
"One hundred years ago it took two days to go from Concord to Boston; it now takes three hours. Then the price of supper, lodging, and breakfast on the road was a pistareen and a half (thirty cents); now it is three dollars. Than all work was honestly done (as witness two pork barrels in the cellar under the house in which I write, which have been in use since 1731); now honest work, as the term was then understood is unknown. Then girls were educated to become thrifty wives and healthy mothers; now it is considered to make a good match. In 1772 the average number of children in each family in New Hampshire was seven; it is now two; there was at that time one physician to every four hundred souls; there is now one to every seventy-five; suits at law for all purposes not criminal then averaged one annually for every hundred inhabitants; they now average one for every seventy-four. The expenses which a well-to-do family incurred every year for its support were at that time four hundred dollars; they are now nearly thrice that sum."

Is Your Hair Falling Out
OR TURNING GRAY!
If So Do Not Fail To Use
LONDON HAIR COLOR RESTORER.
The Great Reputation
Which it has attained and the large number of testimonials which are constantly being received are conclusive proof of its great value.
Proof Positive—A New Suit of Hair, Natural Color and Beauty Restored,
Dr. Swayne & Son—Some six years ago, I began to loose my hair, and continued to do so until the scalp became as bare as the palm of my hand, troubled also with a disagreeable itching fever, great heat and dandruff, small pustules would form, quite sore to the touch, and the remaining portion of the hair, on the side and back of the head, became quite gray. After using a number of Restoratives, (so called), without success, and my head nearly destitute of hair, I reluctantly commenced using the "London Hair Color Restorer and Dressing."
Now, through its use, candor and justice compel me to say to all that I now possess a new and beautiful growth of hair, completely restored to its original dark and glossy appearance, and I venture the assertion, the world furnishes no preparation equal to this; and I do conscientiously say to all who are gray or bald, hairdry and harsh or falling, to use at once this cleanly and delightfully perfumed article.
