KIDNEY COMPLAINT.

Probably there is no complaint that afflicts the human system, which is so little understood at the present time, as some of the varied forms of Kidney Complaints.

There is no disease which causes such acute pain or more alarming in its results than when the kidneys fail to secrete from the blood the uric acid, and other poisonous substances which the blood accumulates in its circulation through the system.

If from any cause the Kidneys fail to perform the functions devolving upon them, the cumulations are taken up by the absorbents and the whole system thrown into a state of disease causing great pain and suffering and very often immediate death. Hence the importance of keeping the kidneys and blood in a healthy condition, through which all the impurities of the body must pass.

Pain in the Back.

There is no remedy known to medical science which has proved itself more valuable in cases of Kidney Complaints than the VEGETINE. It acts directly upon the secretions, cleanses and purifies the blood, and restores the whole system to healthy action.

The following extraordinary cure of great sufferers, who had been given up by the best physicians as hopeless cases, will speak for themselves, and should challenge the most profound attention of the medical faculty, as well as of those who are suffering from Kidney Complaint.

THE BEST MEDICINE.

EAST MARSHFIELD, Aug. 22, 1870.

MR. STEVENS: Dear Sir—I am seventy-one years of age: have suffered many years with Kidney Complaint, weakness in my back and stomach. I was induced by friends to try your VEGETINE, and I think it the best medicine for weakness of the Kidneys I ever used. I have tried many remedies for this complaint, and never found so much relief as from the VEGETINE. It strengthens and invigorates the whole system. Many of my acquaintances have taken it, and I believe it to be good for all the complaints for which it is recommended.
Yours truly,
JOSIAH H. SHERMAN,

Pronounced Incurable.

BOSTON, May 30, 1871.

H. R. STEVENS, Esq.: Dear Sir—I have been badly afflicted with Kidney Complaint for ten years; have suffered great pain in my back, hips and side, with great difficulty in passing urine, which was often, and in very small quantities, frequently accompanied with blood and excruciating pain.

I have faithfully tried most of the popular remedies recommended for my complaint; I have been under the treatment of some of the most skilful physicians in Boston, all of whom pronounced my case incurable. This was my condition when I was advised by a friend to try the VEGETINE, and I could see the good effects from the first dose I took, and from that moment I kept on improving until I was entirely cured, taking in all, I should think, about six bottles.

It is indeed a valuable medicine and if I should be afflicted again in the same way, I would give a dollar a dose, if I could not get it without. Respectfully, J. M. GILE.
351 Third Street, South Boston.

NEARLY BLIND.

R. H. STEVENS: Dear Sir—In expressing my thanks to you for benefits derived from the use of VEGETINE, and to benefit others, I will state:

When eight or nine years old I was afflicted with Scrofula, which made its appearance in my eyes, face and head, and I was very near blind for two years. All kinds of operations were performed on my eyes, and all to no good result. Finally the disease principally settled in my body, limbs and feet, and at times in an aggravated way.

Last Summer I was, from some cause, weak in my spine and kidneys, and it was at times very hard to retain the urine. Seeing your advertisement in the Commercial, I bought a bottle of VEGETINE, and commenced using according to directions. In two or three days I obtained great relief. After using four or five bottles I noticed it had a wonderful effect on the rough, scaly blotches on my body and legs. I still used Vegetine and the humorous sores one after another disappeared until they were all gone, and I attribute the cure of the two diseases to VEGETINE, and nothing else.

If I am ever affected with anything of the kind again I shall try Vegetine as the only reliable remedy. Once more accept my thanks, and believe me to be, Very respectfully,
AUSTIN PARROTT.
Dec. 1, 72. No. 35 Gano St., Cincinnati, Ohio.

Diseases of the Kidneys, Bladder, etc., are always unpleasant, and at times they become the most distressing and dangerous diseases that can affect the human system. Most diseases of the Kidneys arise from impurities in the blood, causing humors which settle on these parts. VEGETINE excels any known remedy in the whole world for cleansing and purifying the blood, thereby causing a healthy action to all the organs of the body.

Vegetine is Sold by all Druggists.

A Bit of Romance

After Rutherford B. Hayes graduated at the Harvard Law School in 1845, he commenced the practice of law in Fremont, Ohio, and was considered a brilliant, rising young man. He was fine appearing, intelligent, and handsome, and as it was well understood he was the heir of his bachelor uncle, Sardis Birchard, a well-known banker and merchant of the town, young Hayes was considered a good catch by mothers all mothers all over the State who had marriageable daughters. In 1849 or 1850, young Hayes visited his mother at his birth-place, Delaware, Ohio. Delaware was the seat of the celebrated Onio Wesleyan University, a Methodist institution used extensively as a female college, which stood in the midst of the town in the centre of a large and beautiful park. The feature of this ground is its immense spring, which gushes out of the earth in a huge jet cool and sparkling, furnishing pure water for all who come. Around this spring seats have been arranged, and tastfully laid out little flower-beds embellished it. In the evening this is the most popular spot.

Young Hayes, in company with other young men, used to go to this spring in the evening, generally choosing their time when the University girls came there also. Among the bevy of young ladies was one in particular who attracted Governor Hayes' attention. She was sparkling, bright and witty, and the park always rang with the echo of her merry laughter when she came to the spring. This young lady was remarkable for her long flowing black hair, dark eyebrows, pearly white teeth, and beautiful eyes, and was famous for her laughter, and of course was a leader among the girls of her school. Before knowing her name the young lawyer fell in love with her and he made up his mind that the gay, laughing girl he met at the college spring evening after evening was the one he was looking for as his wife and future companian in life, and so he opened his heart to his uncle and mother.

In the course of time the lawyer and lady were introduced, and she turned out to be a Miss Webb, of Chillicothe, Ohio, a descendant of a most excellent family. The love engendered at the spring ripened into true and honest affection, which was fully reciprocated by the lady, who in due course of time became Mrs Hayes. It was a true love match and a happy union it has proved Mrs. Hayes has done much toward making Gov. Hayes popular. She is modest and retiring, with a rare faculty for entertaining company. Her virtues are extolled by all who know her. She will prove an ornament to the White House.

Take Your Choice.

Be a drunkard if you want to squander your money. Ten cents a dram is not much; but it counts up in the end, and you will soon be as poor as you wish to be. On the other hand, if you want to save money: if you want to live in comfort and ease; if you want prosperity to attend you in this world, why "touch not, taste not, handle not." It is an easy rule for those not wanting in resolution.

Be a drunkard if you want to lose your health. Three or four drams a day is not much; but if you drink, this much daily we will insure the gradual weakening of your body. The more whisky you drink, the sooner you will lose your health. If you drink one dram a day, in the same proportion you will lose your health. We repeat it, if you want to be nervous, rheumatic, dyspeptic, consumptive; if you want your body a prey to all diseases that flesh is heir to, be a miserable, drunken sot. But, on the contrary, if you want to be healthy and strong, the rule is easy. "Touch not, taste not, handle not."

Be a drunkard if you want to lose your mind. We are told that whisky affects the brain; and we have no reason to doubt our best medical authority. Yes, if you want to become an inmate of some insane asylum, be a drunken sot. But if you want your mind to be clear, if you want your intellect to be bright, follow the rule "Touch not, taste not, handle not."

Be a drunkard if you want to be a murderer, thief, incendiary or libertine; we say, if you want to be a scoundrel of the deepest dye; if you want to have every vice that can possibly be imagined, be a miserable beer-barrel of a drunkard. But if you want to be an honest, upright and God-fearing man, one condition is, "touch not, taste not, handle not" the sparkling poison.

The Bible says, "No drunkard shall inherit the kingdom of heaven," therefore touch not the maddening bowl. If you would live forever with God in heaven, touch not, taste not, but dash it down. Young man you now see the end of a temperate life. Take your choice. Your friends love you. You are loved by your Creator. He stretches out to you a helping hand, and would rescue you. O drunkard, grasp that loving hand ere it be too late; grasp it else you die. One more step may ruin you and you will be lost to all that is pure and good. Rise in the strength of your manhood, dash the tempting cup from your polluted lips, and resolve never to drink another drop of rum. Remember, if you die a drunkard, you sink into the burning depths of hell, but if you die a sober, temperate, and God-fearing man you will forever live in that beautiful paradise "beyond the hills of Jordan."

Take your choice; and, oh, do not forget that on that choice hangs your eternal destiny.
