THE GREAT CAUSE OF HUMAN MISERY.

Just Published, in a Sealed Envelope. Price six cents.

A Lecture on the Nature, Treatment, and Radical cure of Seminal Weakness, or Spermatorrhœa, induced by Self-Abuse, Involuntary Emissions, Impotency, Nervous Debility, and Impediments to Marriage generally: Consumption, Epilepsy and Fits; Mental and Physical Incapacity, &c —By ROBERT J. CULVERWELL, M. D. author of the "Green Book," &c.

The world-renowned author, in this admirable Lecture, clearly proves from his own experience that the awful consequences of Self-Abuse may be effectually removed without medicine, and without dangerous surgical operation, bougies, instruments, rings or cordials; pointing out a mode of cure at once certain and effectual, by which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

This Lecture will prove a boon to thousands and thousands.

Sent under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, on receipt of six cents or two postage stamps.

This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.

Its effects are as wonderful and as satisfactory as ever.

It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color.

It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff. It gives the head a cooling, soothing sensation of great comfort, and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.

By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.

As a dressing, nothing has been found so effectual or desirable.

A. A. Hayes, M. D., State Assayer of Massachusetts, says, "The constituents are pure, and carefully selected for excellent quality; and I consider it the BEST PREPARATION for its intended purposes."

Price, One Dollar.

Buckingham's Dye FOR THE WHISKERS.

This elegant preparation may be relied on to change the color of the beard from gray or any other undesirable shade, to brown or black, at discretion. It is easily applied, being in one preparation, and quickly and effectually produces a permanent color, which will neither rub nor wash off.

Manufactured by R. P. HALL & CO., NASHUA, N. H.

Christian Charity.

...those toil-hardened, tender-hearted chaps often read of in romance made his appearance on the Campus Martius yesterday, and his sympathies were at once aroused by the sight of three or four old men standing around with their buck-saws and waiting for work.

'I'll be hanged if it isn't tough,' he replied when they told him that they hadn't had any work for a month.

'How would you like some oysters?'

They smacked their lips by way of reply, and he gathered up a crowd of eight, marched them to a restaurant and he ordered oyster stews for each one.

'It just does my soul good to see them eat!' he said to the owner of the place as the eight got to work.

'Yes; it's a beautiful sight,' was the reply.

'It makes me feel good in hear,' continued the stranger, laying his hand on his heart.

'A good deed brings its own reward,' was the soft answer of the restaurateur as he calculated his profits.

'I can't rest here. I must do further good,' said the big-hearted stranger, and he rushed out and brought in three negroes, a chimney-sweep, two boys, and an old woman, and ordered more oysters.

The fifteen people went for oyster soup in a manner to amaze, and their guardian nudged the restaurateur in the ribs and said:

'See the gentle lambs! Oh, that I could feed the poor of all America!'

'You are a good man, and heaven will reward you,' replied the proprietor, as he filled the dishes up again.

The stranger said he wanted to bring in just five more, so as to say that he had fed an even score, and he rushed out after them, while the restaurateur sent after more oysters and crackers. The stranger didn't return. He was last seen climbing into a farmer's sleigh on State street and guiding his team to the west. The fifteen in the restaurant licked their plates clean and departed in joyful procession, and the last one had passed out before the man who furnished the soup had got through waiting for the return of the big-hearted stranger. There were oaths and slang phrases and watchwords and expressions, delivered in the purest of English, but what mattered it to the fifteen soup-devourers. —Detroit Free Press.

RELIGIOUS TRUST.—A good woman was visiting among the poor in London one cold winter's day. She was trying to open the door of a third-story room, in a wretched looking home, when she heard a little voice inside say, 'Pull at the string up high—pull the string up high.' She looked and saw a string. She pulled it when it lifted the latch, and the door opened into a room where she found two little half-naked children, all alone. They looked cold and hungry.

'Do you take care of yourselves, little ones?' said the good woman.

'No, ma'am, God takes care of us,' replied the elder of the children.

'You have no fire on this cold day. Are you not very cold?'

'O! when we are very cold we creep under the quilt, and I put my arms round Tommy, and Tommy puts his arms round me, and we say, 'Now I lay me,' and then we get warm,' said the little girl.

'And what do you have to eat, pray?' asked the visitor.

When granny comes home she brings us something. Granny says we are God's sparrows, and He has enough for us; and so we say, 'Our Father,' and 'daily bread every day.' God is our Father.'

Tears came into the eyes of this good woman. She had felt sometimes afraid that she might be starved; but these two little 'sparrows,' perched alone in that cold upper room, taught her a sweet lesson of trust in the power of God, which she felt that she should not forget.—Rev. Dr Newton.

HOW BOB INGERSOLL'S JOKE SAVED HIS LIFE.—A correspondent of the Chicago Times gives the following graphic account of Col. Ingersoll's capture by the rebel general Forest. The real facts in the case are curious and characteristic. Ingersoll was reconnoitering with a small detachment. Before they were aware of any danger they came upon a nest of sharp shooters gaeatly outnumbering them. To fight or retreat was alike impossible. The first intimation was that Ingersoll noticed a Butternut drawing a bead on him. With a readiness that has saved him from defeat in many a lawsuit, he cried out: "What do you want to shoot me for? I've been waiting to acknowledge your old Confederacy for the last two seconds.' The fellow heard it and appreciated the joke; of course didn't shoot. The squad was lead to headquarters. The joke was soon circulated through the camp, and the rebs would flock about the prison tent, curious to catch a glimpse of the Yank. Forrest treated him very kindly, offering him especially good accommodations; but the Col. declined on the ground that what was good enough for the rest of the boys was good enough for him.' The next day they were all exchanged, at parting General Forrest returned to Ingersoll his horse with a note addressed 'to the man who saved his life by a joke in the face of death.'"

The surest way to fill a private apartment, whether in a printing office, a cotton factory, or sausage shop, with visitors is to place over the door a placard bearing the inscription, "No Admittance!" No person ever read that prohibition over an entrance without instantly being attacked by an ungovernable desire to rush right in.

TO ALL!

Is Your Hair Falling Out OR TURNING GRAY!

If So Do Not Fail To Use

LONDON HAIR COLOR RESTORER.

The Great Reputation

Which it has attained and the large number of testimonials which are constantly being received are conclusive proof of its great value.

Proof Positive—A New Suit of Hair, Natural Color and Beauty Restored.

Dr. Swayne & Son—Some six years ago, I began to loose my hair, and continued to do so until the scalp became as bare as the palm of my hand, troubled also with a disagreeable itching fever, great heat and dandruff, small pustules would form, quite sore to the touch, and the remaining portion of the hair, on the side and back of the head, became quite gray. After using a number of Restoratives, (so called), without success, and my head nearly destitute of hair, I reluctantly commenced using the "London Hair Color Restorer and Dressing."

Now, through its use, candor and justice compel me to say to all that I now possess a new and beautiful growth of hair, completely restored to its original dark and glossy appearance, and I venture the assertion, the world furnishes no preparation equal to this; and I do conscientiously say to all who are gray or bald, hairdry and harsh or falling, to use at once this elegant and delightfully perfumed article.

ISAAC N. MARSHAL,

Dr. Dalton of Philadelphia, says of it: The London Hair Color Restorer is used very extensively among my patients and friends, as well as by myself; I therefore speak from experience,
