CULVERWELL, M. D., author of the "Green Book," &c.

The world-renowned author, in this admirable Lecture, clearly proves from his own experience that the awful consequences of Self-Abuse may be effectually removed without medicine, and without dangerous surgical operation, bougies, instruments, rings or cordials; pointing out a mode of cure at once certain and effectual, by which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

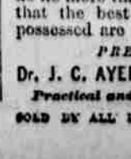
Ayer's Sarsaparilla



For Scrofula, and all scrofulous diseases, Erysipelas, Rose or St. Anthony's Fire, Eruptions and Eruptive diseases of the skin, Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys, Lungs, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Blotches, Tumors, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Ulcers, Sores, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Pain in the Bones, Side and Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucorrhœa, arising from internal ulceration, and uterine disease, Syphilitic and Mercurial diseases, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation, General Debility, and for Purifying the Blood.

This Sarsaparilla is a combination of vegetable alteratives—Stillingia, Mandrake, Yellow Dock—with the Iodides of Potassium and Iron, and is the most efficacious medicine yet known for the diseases it is intended to cure.

Its ingredients are so skilfully combined that the full alterative effect of each is assured, and while it is so mild as to be harmless even to children, it is still so effectual as to purge out from the system those impurities and corruptions which develop into loathsome disease.

The reputation it enjoys is derived from its cures, and the confidence which prominent physicians all over the country repose in it proves their experience of its usefulness.

Certificates attesting its virtues have accumulated, and are constantly being received, and as many of these cases are publicly known, they furnish convincing evidence of the superiority of this Sarsaparilla over every other alterative medicine. So generally is its superiority to any other medicine known that we need do no more than to assure the public that the best qualities it has ever possessed are strictly maintained.

Unbelief.

Unbelief in early conversion does not come from the history of the church. If the grace of God is seen in saving a little child that dies, is it not more gloriously displayed in the regeneration of a little child that is to grow up as a beautiful witness for Jesus? Dr. Fish, in his excellent work on revivals, mentions many such cases. Josiah knew the Lord at eight years. Jeremiah and John the Baptist were sanctified from birth. Timothy early became a student of the Scriptures and a subject of divine grace. The brave old martyr, Polycarp, died at ninety-five. He tells us that he served the Master eighty-six years. He was, therefore, converted at nine. Baxter became a christian when a mere child; Matthew Henry at eleven; President Edwards about seven; Dr. Watts at nine; Bishop Hall at eleven, and Robert Hall at twelve. Many have been converted so early that they cannot give any time. The great majority of the most successful ministers and teachers were converted in early youth.

Skepticism on this point comes from the culpable and wicked indifference of many unconverted parents. In the case of some Christian parents it comes from unbelief in God's power to convert and to keep the child. Parents often feel that it would be perilous presumption in a child to cherish a hope and to make a profession of faith in Christ. They act as if they thought they are more able to keep their children than God is. They are afraid to trust their child to Jesus, although he promised to keep that which is committed to him. Parents, teachers and preachers forget that they are not able to keep themselves, let alone their children. It is also true sometimes, that cold-hearted Christian parents do not like to have warm-hearted young Christians in the family.—Such children are a constant rebuke. We have all been guilty of want of of faith in God's saving power. No prayer is more suited to parents, teachers and preachers than that of Dr Bonar. "Lord, sharpen our sickles when we go to reap thy harvest among the young. For we have heard thee say, "Have ye not read, out of the mouths of babes and sucklings thou hast perfected praise?"

A WOMAN'S FRIENDSHIP.—It is a wonderous advantage to a man, in every pursuit of vocation, to secure an advisor in a sensible woman. In woman there is at once a subtle delicacy of tact, and a plain soundness o' judgment, which are rarely combined to an equal degree in man. A woman should be really your friend, will have a sensitive regard for your character, honor and repute.—She will seldom counsel you to do a shabby thing, for a woman friend always desires to be proud of you. At the same time, her constitutional timidity makes her more cautious than your mail friend. She, therefore, seldom counsels you to an impudent thing.

A man's best female friend is a wife of good sense and heart, whom he loves, and who loves him. But, supposing the man to be without such a helpmate, female friendship he must still have, or his intellect will be without a garden, and there will be many an unheeded gap, even in the strongest fence. Better and safer of course, are such friendships where disparity of years and of circumstances casts the idea of love out of the question.—Middle age has rarely this advantage; youth and old age have. We may have female friendship with those much older, and those much younger than ourselves. Female friendship is to a man the bulwark, sweetness, and ornament of his existence.

STRANGE FREAK OF NATURE.—The San Francisco Chronicle says: In this city, about three weeks ago, a child was born without eyes. Thinking that the eye-lids may have been merely closed, through some impediment, the family physician made slight incisions at the proper places, but strange to state, no pupil nor any indication of matter that forms the eye was discovered. The physician then carefully sewed the incisions, which have been healed, and the child is now hearty and doing well. Otherwise, there exists no deformity. As to cause of this phenomenon the doctors somewhat disagree, as they generally do on other matters. One thought it might have been occasioned by the mother thinking constantly of some blind person just previous to the birth of the child, or that she might have seen some blind monstrosity begging on the street-corners, which was impressed upon her mind. Being born blind is not an unfrequent sad occurrence, but in every instance except this there was a pupil in the eye and the formation of the eye matter developed to some extent, yet useless as an organ of vision. In this truly sad case there is not a trace of the existence of a pupil, or any indication whatever that the formation of any exists. It is simply one of those strange freaks of nature which no medical theories can account for and no human science fathom.

The Lock Haven Democrat says, John Bell, on Upper Jerry's Run, Cameron county, where he has a log camp, has in his possession eight live deer, one a fine buck, which he captured alive by running them down. He captured four inside of three hours and a half. The snow is so deep that deer cannot run, and Mr. Bell caught them by using snow shoes in the chase. He had a severe struggle with the buck which showed fight. By means of a noose thrown over his head, and through skill and main strength, he got the buck choked and down and after tying him to a tree, got his legs tied, and then got him on a bush and hauled his game into camp. When he captured the four he had to go back to camp for help to bring in the animals.

Is Your Hair Falling Out

OR TURNING GRAY!
If So Do Not Fail To Use
LONDON HAIR COLOR RESTORER.

The Great Reputation

Which it has attained and the large number of testimonials which are constantly being received are conclusive proof of its great value.

Proof Positive—A New Suit of Hair. Natural Color and Beauty Restored.

Dr. Swayne & Son—Some six years ago, I began to loose my hair, and continued to do so until the scalp became as bare as the palm of my hand, troubled also with a disagreeable itching fever, great heat and dandruff. small pustules would form, quite sore to the touch, and the remaining portion of the hair, on the side and back of the head, became quite gray. After using a number of Restoratives, (so called), without success, and my head nearly destitute of hair, I reluctantly commenced using the

"London Hair Color Restorer and Dressing."

Now, through its use, candor and justice compel me to say to all that I now possess a new and beautiful growth of hair, completely restored to its original dark and glossy appearance, and I venture the assertion, the world furnishes no preparation equal to this; and I do conscientiously say to all who are gray or bald hair dry and harsh or falling, to use at once this cleanly and delightfully perfumed article.

Dr. Dalton of Philadelphia, says of it: The London Hair Color Restorer is used very extensively among my patients and friends, as well as by myself; I therefore speak from experience,
