

All communications, business letters &c., for this office, to secure prompt attention should be addressed as follows: This Post, Middleburg, Snyder County, Pa. Advertisements, communications, &c., must be handed in by Monday noon, to secure insertion in next issue.

By all appearance the chestnut crop will be large this year. The trees are loaded down heavy with blossoms.

The wheat crop in this county is decidedly a failure. Many fields were not worth cutting, they having been nearly destroyed by the fly.

The Democracy of this county will hold their delegate election on the 21st inst., and their County Convention on the following Monday, the 23d.

Notwithstanding the complaint about the potato bug, the potato crop in this State this year will probably be the largest for many years.

One people should examine all the money they handle, as at present there is a large amount of counterfeit 25 cent silver pieces out in circulation.

It is now lawful to shoot squirrels. It is a pity it is not legal to shoot the men who passed the law, putting the date of the shooting season so early.

G. C. Gutelius, the popular clothier and express agent of this place, is now provided with a No. 1. 'Bus, to carry passengers to and from the depot, rain or shine.

Miss Laura Pierce, the girl sent to the House of Refuge at the last court for setting fire to a barn, has been returned to our jail.

Huzza Huzzel.—On Saturday last we are informed, Mrs. Anna Hummel of Monroe township, this county, put her infant child, aged about six months to bed while sleeping.

SAUCERS.—We learn with regret that Samuel B. Miller, well known throughout the county, as an active and energetic tree agent, committed suicide by hanging on Saturday afternoon, in the wagon shed, on his brother's farm in Washington township, by tying a rope around the hay ladder, suspended in the shed, his feet resting on the ground.

ACCIDENT.—Last Monday evening a week, Amandes Schambach and Frederick Smith, of this place were returning home in a buggy, and when about a mile north of town, near the residence of Mr. Jacob Steininger, and where there had been a fire in the road, the horse took fright at a cow and made a sudden jump to one side upsetting the top buggy, down a steep embankment, and throwing the occupants out with great force.

DEATH FROM TIGRUS OF ACICORIS.—A death, which has naturally attracted the sympathy of the many friends of the deceased for her surviving parents, occurred at McAllisterville, Juniata county, on the night of the 8th ult. We abridge the report of the case as we find it, by way of interest to our readers.

TRAMPA.—While there are no doubt some honest men who would labor if they could get employment, on the road as "tramps" the average tramp is a vagabond and a criminal, and consequently an enemy of society.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.—It is almost sickening to read the repeated descriptions in detail of ladies' toilets to great public occasions. Is it then all the women aim, or aspire to, to excel, and rival one another in dress and diamonds? or is there something better beneath this surface display?

A BRACE OF HARRISBURG BLACKBERRIES BAGGED AT MIDDLETOWN.—The gambler is always ready to pluck the unsuspecting and entrap the unwary. A pair of these plunderers repaired to Middletown on the 4th of July, for the purpose of plying their game, and were there met by a certain certain point began operations. An usual, there was a victim ready to be imposed upon. The gamblers had recourse to the old game of three card monte—a stool pigeon was ready to bet and win—the advantage of the game seemed to be entirely against the gambler—he lost on every card. This tempted the rustic who was looking on, and for whose delectation the winning was done.

THE LONGEST DAYS.—We are now passing through the longest days of the year. They never dawn on a more beautiful picture or shone through a more genial atmosphere than those which now prevail where over the hills and valleys of Pennsylvania unfold their rolling landscape of living green.

THE CROSS AND THE CRESCENT.—A violent fire broke out in the village of Harrisburg, Pa., on the night of the 18th inst., and destroyed the Cross and Crescent, a religious and political tract, and a large quantity of other property.

OUR TIMBER.—No thinking man, truly says a contemporary, can pass through the country and see every here and there a beautiful grove of forest trees cut down, without feeling that just in proportion as the trees are cut down in that same proportion is the country injured. The absence of trees or shade causes the springs and wells to go dry, the soil becomes parched for want of rain and shade, and vegetation is ruined and stunted. Cannot a stop be put to it, should not our Legislature enact some law that would compel every farmer to have at least five acres of woodland to every hundred acres of his farm? We think it would be well to put a stop to this wholesale destruction of the beautiful and highly useful woods.—Ex.
