Give the poor work. There are always little jobs about the premises, indoors and out, that boys, girls, men or women can do, and be helped thereby. Besides, it is practical christianity.

Would you hurry those who are near and dear to you to their graves; and would you mete out the same fate to yourself for the price of a bottle of Dr. Haas' Expectorant for coughs and colds? 25 and 50 cents a bottle.

The Lewistown "Gazette" says:—'John W. Shaver lost a valuable horse, recently, which was found in the field penetrated by a rifle ball. It is not known whether it was a spent ball from a hunter's rifle, or done purposely for revenge.'

—A large variety of Hats just received at Weis & Oppenheimer's Selinsgrove

Amidst strife, contention, uproar and commotion, a magnificent opportunity is some time afforded to gain a correct knowledge of the 'true inwardness' of men who are very nice and cleaver while everything is lovely, but who unmistakably exhibit the cloven foot at a time when friendship should bear the severest test.

Lack of Appetite and Acidity of the Stomach.—Use lime water to correct acidity of the stomach, and the following tonic bitters: Gentian-root, two ounces; dried orange peel, one ounce; cardamon seed, half an ounce—all to be bruised, and the same placed in a quart of whisky or diluted alcohol; let it stand for two weeks; dose, one or two tablespoonsful in water two or three times a day. This is good for dyspepsia, loss of appetite, and general weakness or debility.

The Law of Estrays.—Many people are unfamiliar with the law in regard to estrays, and for the benefit of such, we print the following information:

The first duty of any one taking up an estray is to place a description of it on the books of the township clerk, and to advertise the same in a news paper within ten days thereafter. A failure to do this lays such person liable for damages. It is a foolish as well as a dangerous thing to take up property of this kind and hold it awaiting an offer of a large reward.

Robbery at Northumberland.—On Saturday evening while Mr. Wm. Burkenbine and family were attending church, their house was entered by burglars who stole bonds, said to be school bonds, to the amount of $2,200—and $300 in money. The bonds and money were secreted in an envelop placed under the carpet under the stove. No clue has been discovered as to the parties cummitting the robbery, who cooly partook of a supper before leaving the house.—Daily American Dec. 25.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT.—On Friday a week William Wertz, residing at Linnville, was accidentally shot. He was hunting on the mountains northwest of this place. In stepping over a log one of his feet slipped. In falling the hammer of the lock caught on the log, which struck the cap and discharged the gun. The ball entered his leg in the groin rendering a painful but not dangerous wound. After being injured Mr. Wertz, with the assistance of two comrades, walked four miles to a wagon and was then hauled home.—Lewisburg Journal, 9th inst.

Great Bargains in FURS are now offered at S. Weis', Selinsgrove.

FUEL WASTED.—A common mistake is made and much fuel is wasted in the manner of replenishing coal fires in furnaces and grates. They should be fed with a little coal at a time and often; but servants, to save time and trouble, put on a great deal at once, the first result being that almost all the heat is absorbed by the newly put on coal, which does not give out heat until it becomes red hot. Hence, for a while, the room is cold, but when it becomes fairly aglow the heat is insufferable. The time to replenish a coal fire is as soon as the coals begin to show ashes on the surface; then put on merely enough to show a layer or black covering the red. This will soon kindle, and as there is not much of it, an excess of heat will not be given out.

ATTEMPT AT MURDER.—A bold attempt was made on the 27th ult., to murder a young man named Wm Ruhl, son of Henry Ruhl, of Buffalo twp. He had been to Lewisburg and was leisurely driving home in a buggy at about 7½ p. m. When in the vicinity of the public school house near Vickeburg, he met two men who ordered him to stop or they would shoot him. Instead of halting, however, he whipped up his horse. They immediately fired after him, one of the balls passing through his hat, but doing him no injury. It is not known who the would-be murderers were. There seems to have been no attempt made to capture them.—Lewisburg Journal.

Any kind of soap, no matter how good, is injurious to the face; it will, if used constantly, cause the skin to get coarse and rough, often causing moth patches; use only clear water softened with a little pulverized borax.

—Monopolies in Mourning! The White triumphant! The unprecedented success, attending the introduction of the White Machine has proved the death-knell to high priced sewing machines. For sale by C. C. Seebold, Middleburg, Pa.

Take a Paper.—No household should be without a family newspaper. If the parents cannot read, let it be gotten for the children. There is a remarkable difference in the general intelligence of children, whether they are raised in a family where a newspaper is a weekly visitor or not. It will create in their young minds a taste for general reading, which grow in them as they grow in years.

CONSUMPTION CURED.—An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure of consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections also a positive and radical cure for nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderfuly curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relive human suffering, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe in German, French, or English with full directions, for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp naming this paper, W. W. Sherar, 126 Powers' Block, Rochester, N. Y.

FARMERS' CLUBS.—The long nights are with us again to remain for several months, and we would suggest that in no other way can one of them each week be employed to better advantage by farmers than in discussing questions relating to agriculture. We do know, however, that a live farmer's club is a rare thing to find. There ought to be one in every school district, where there is not one in the county. Wherever a Grange exists, that, of course, answers the same purpose, so far as its own members are concerned, but unless most of the farmers in a neighborhood belong to the grange, the latter cannot take the place of the club. If there is no organization in your neighborhood reader, whose object is discussion and investigation of farm topics, we urge you to go about forming one at once. You cannot devote a day or two's time to better advantage to yourself or the community.

—Oppenheimer of the popular Clothing Firm Weis & Oppenheimer, has just returned from the City with another large stock of clothing. He has purchased his stock at such low figures which will enable him to offer great bargains to his customers. Call at Weis & Oppenheimer's above the Keystone Hotel, Selinsgrove, if you wish to buy cheap clothing.

SENSATION IN SHIPPENSBURG.—A month or so ago a school-book agent, who wore a white necktie and took a stand at temperance lecturing, lit down in our neighboring town of Shippensburg, where he was introduced to Mrs. Hollabaugh, the widow of a deceased United Brethren preacher who had formerly lived at Orrstown. The lady and gentlemen were so well pleased with one another that a marriage followed, after which the book agent and sold water sprinter (whose name is given to us as Rice) obtained from his newsmade wife $1800 in money and a power of attorney under which he expected to sell some Chambersburg Water Bonds of which she was the fortunate possessor. He is said to have represented to her that the bonds were rather unsafe investments, a representation not very flattering to the people of this town. But before he succeeded in marketing the bonds and decamping, as he pretty certainly intended to do, the friends of the lady got from some quarter the interesting information that he was, at the time of his marriage to Mrs. Hollabaugh, a married man with a living wife and two children. Thereupon two uncles of Mrs. Hollabaugh hunted Keller—one a resident of Franklin and the Cumberland county—got out a warrant and had Rice arrested on Friday last. Failing to furnish bail, he was put in jail at Carlisle. It is said that his wife was formerly of this State, though we have not heard what part of it, but is now in Iowa, taking care of her father, who is in bad health.—Valley Spirit.

A HEALTH ALMANAC.—We have just received from the publishers the Illustrated Almanac of Phrenology and Health Almanac for 1878, 64 pages, ten cents. This publication has now come to be a necessity in many well-regulated families and well it may, for it is full of valuable reading matter relating to Phrenology, Physiognomy Health, Hygiene, Diet, &c. This number, in addition to the usual astronomical notes, monthly calendars, etc., etc. States seasonable Suggestions for the use of the Health, Diet, etc., for each month of the year; Spectacles, and how to use them; Biographical Sketches and Portraits of R. T. Trall, M. D., John L. Motley, and President Hayes; Faces and their Influence; Wasting Capital; Do What You Can; Principles of Phrenology; Recipes and Hints for the Family, etc., and all for only ten cents. It is handsomely printed, with many Illustrations, and should have a wide circulation (and we would say, send ten cents in postage stamps at once to the publishers, S. R. Wells & Co., 737 Broadway, New York.

We take the following from the Northumberland Press:—Mr. A. E. Knapp called upon one of the Penitentiary authorities at Philadelphia, a few days ago, for the purpose of obtaining permission to see the prisoner who promised to tell Mr. K. all about the bank robbery at this place a few years ago. Mr. K. was refused admission on the ground that the person was the most dangers character in the penitentiary. That he had made several (almost successful) attempts to escape, and that he was now confined in an iron dungeon, and that none but the jailor was allowed to see him. In one of his scientific attempts to escape, he had gathered the salt from his victuals, from day to day, and applied it to an iron bar for the purpose of cutting it with rust. The process was a success, and on the eve of making his escape, he was detected. The chap is serving a thirteen years' sentence. At the time our bank was robbed the burglars had their head quarters at Williamstown, Dauphin county.

Phrenology

The public are being educated to a better knowledge of Phrenology by the efforts that are constantly being made by the publishers of the PHRENOLOGICAL JOURNAL, that staunch old monthly which has been published now in New York for forty years, and during all this time has lost none of its vigor, and has attained a much wider circulation than at any period since it was first started. The publishers announce now a great reduction in price—from three dollars to two dollars a year—and in connection with this a PHRENOLOGICAL BUST as premium to each subscriber. This Bust is a model symbolical head, made nearly life-size, of plaster of Paris, so labelled as to show the exact location of all the Phrenological Organs. It is a handsome ornament, well adapted for the mantle-piece, centre-table, library, or office. With the aid of this and the key which accompanies it, together with the series of articles commenced in the January No. of the PHRENOLOGICAL JOURNAL on Practical Phrenology, each person may become quite familiar with the location of the different phrenological organs. It is sent by express, carefully packed, to any express office of the JOURNAL he sends in addition to two dollars, the subscription price, twenty-five cents extra for boxing and packing, or No. 2, a smaller size, will be sent by mail, post paid, on the same terms. Readers who desire a more complete description, together with prospectus of the PHRENOLOGICAL JOURNAL, should send address on a postal card, or accept the publishers' offer, and send ten cents—half price—for a sample number of the JOURNAL to S. R. WELLS & CO., Publishers, 737 Broadway New York.

It is now an acknowledged fact that CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED. It has been cured in a very great number of cases (some of them apparently desperate ones) by Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup alone, and in others by the same medicine in connection with Schenck's Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills, one or both according to the requirements of the case.

The old supposition that "Consumption is incurable" for many years deterred Physicians from attempting to find a remedy for that disease, and patients afflicted with it reconciled themselves to death without an effort being made to save them from a doom which was considered inevitable.

Dr. Schenck himself was supposed at one time to be at the very gate of death, his physician having pronounced his case hopeless and abandoned him to his fate: he was cured by the aforesaid medicines and afterward enjoyed uninterrupted good health for more than forty years. Thousands of people have used Dr. Schenck's preparations with the same remarkable success.

Schenck's Almanac, containing a thorough treatise on Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia &c., can be had gratis of any druggist, or of J. H. Schenck & Son, Philadelphia. Full directions for the use of Schenck's medicines accompany each package.

Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Sea Weed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills are for sale by all druggists.

Health is an inestimable jewel. The cough that deprives you of it may take your life too. One bottle of HALE'S HONEY OF HOREHOUND AND TAR will avert the evil, and save you from consumption. Will you weigh Life against a half-dollar? Sold by all Druggists.

Pike's Toothache Drops cure in 1 minute.

Auctioneer.—George H Hackenburg, of Middlecreek, P. O., would announce to the people of Snyder county, that he will cry sales for real and personal property, at short notice and on the most reasonable terms. He guarantees satisfaction. [Mar 15.77-tf.
