A GREAT SPEECH.

REPUBLICAN MASS MEETING AT TOLEDO.

Speech of Senator Thurman in Reply to Senator Sherman at the Republican Mass Meeting at Toledo, O., August 23, 1878.

There was a large meeting of the Republican Party at Toledo, Ohio, on the 23rd of August. It was the largest meeting of the kind that has ever taken place in that city. It was held in the evening, and the hall was crowded to the doors. The speaker was Senator Thurman, who was opposed to the resumption of specie payments. He spoke for nearly two hours, and his speech was well received. The following are some of the main points of his speech:

When I was asked to address you, I was naturally very glad to express my own opinion. It is my duty as a Senator to do so. I have been in the Senate for twenty years, and I have seen many things. I have seen the country in a state of peace and prosperity, and I have seen it in a state of distress and poverty. I have seen the people of this country in a state of ignorance and superstition, and I have seen them in a state of enlightenment and freedom. I have seen the country in a state of weakness and dependence, and I have seen it in a state of strength and independence. I have seen the country in a state of corruption and injustice, and I have seen it in a state of purity and equity. I have seen the country in a state of decay and ruin, and I have seen it in a state of vigor and life. I have seen the country in a state of despair and gloom, and I have seen it in a state of hope and cheer. I have seen the country in a state of darkness and night, and I have seen it in a state of light and day. I have seen the country in a state of confusion and disorder, and I have seen it in a state of order and harmony. I have seen the country in a state of anarchy and chaos, and I have seen it in a state of peace and tranquility. I have seen the country in a state of war and bloodshed, and I have seen it in a state of peace and friendship. I have seen the country in a state of slavery and bondage, and I have seen it in a state of freedom and independence. I have seen the country in a state of poverty and want, and I have seen it in a state of wealth and abundance. I have seen the country in a state of sickness and suffering, and I have seen it in a state of health and happiness. I have seen the country in a state of death and decay, and I have seen it in a state of life and growth. I have seen the country in a state of darkness and night, and I have seen it in a state of light and day. I have seen the country in a state of confusion and disorder, and I have seen it in a state of order and harmony. I have seen the country in a state of anarchy and chaos, and I have seen it in a state of peace and tranquility. I have seen the country in a state of war and bloodshed, and I have seen it in a state of peace and friendship. I have seen the country in a state of slavery and bondage, and I have seen it in a state of freedom and independence. I have seen the country in a state of poverty and want, and I have seen it in a state of wealth and abundance. I have seen the country in a state of sickness and suffering, and I have seen it in a state of health and happiness. I have seen the country in a state of death and decay, and I have seen it in a state of life and growth.

and is paid only when demanded or when it is not. So the only thing to do is to issue more money. It is not the money that is the problem, it is the quantity of money.
