Grand Republican Victory!

TUESDAY'S ELECTRIC LIGHT.

PENNSYLVANIA AT THE FRONT. HOYT'S Majority, 30,000. Pennsylvania has done far better than Ohio.

NEW YORK. New York, Nov. 6.—The Brooklyn Eagle, Deen, says the election in that city yesterday was a decided Republican victory.

MICHIGAN. Detroit Nov. 6.—Returns come in slowly, but from present indications the Republicans have undoubtedly elected the entire Congressional delegation.

NEW HAMPSHIRE. Concord, Nov. 6.—The House, as returned, stands 138 Republicans, 75 Democrats, and 7 Greenbackers.

LOUISIANA. Louisiana goes Democratic as was expected.

CONNECTICUT. Connecticut has elected a Republican Governor and a Legislature.

TENNESSEE. Returns from Tennessee show a large Democratic majority.

KANSAS. A despatch from Kansas City, says: The Congressional contest is very close in the Eighth district.

ILLINOIS. Chicago, Nov. 6. The K-political majorities range from 3,000 to 10,000. The indications are that the Republicans have a fair working majority in the State Legislature.

MINNESOTA. St. Paul, Nov. 6. The Republicans gain several Congressmen. Returns are too meagre for an estimate of the Legislature or majority in the State.

MASSACHUSETTS. Boston, Nov. 6.—Talbot, for Governor, carries every district in the State by a handsome majority.

FLORIDA. SAVANNAH, Nov. 6.—Democratic gains are reported from Alachua and Madison counties, which were formerly R-Republican.

NEW JERSEY. The Republicans gain three Congressmen.

MISSOURI. St. Louis, Nov. 6.—The Democratic ticket received an average plurality of 2,800. In the Second Congressional District, Wells, Rep., has a plurality over Cole.

SOUTH CAROLINA. CHARLESTON, Nov. 6.—All the Republican Candidates for Congress in South Carolina declared defeated.

NEVADA. San Francisco, Nov. 6.—The returns from the Nevada election are meagre, and it is difficult to form an opinion as to the result.

The Chicago school census shows a population of 188,000 between the ages of 6 and 21 years.

No less than thirty barns, with their contents, have been burned in the Wallamette valley, Oregon, during the past six weeks.

Snow to the depth of nine inches fell in the northwestern part of Ontario on Sunday night a week, doing great damage to fruit and other trees.

The President has pardoned Jacob Carver, late postmaster at Warsaw, Ky., convicted of opening letters and sentenced six months ago to prison for one year.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—The President has issued the usual proclamation, setting apart Thursday November 28th, as a day of thanksgiving.

Rev. Dr. Talmage, of Brooklyn, is preaching practical sermons against the sins of New York. He has gone round to visit the gilded palaces of iniquity in the city, and finds the city a whitened sepulchre.

A man in Marksville N. Y. don't smoke as much as formerly and this is the reason: He took a smoke while riding on a load of straw. Not even the wagon was saved, and the horses were badly burned.

Thomas Gordau, a carpenter, while repairing a roof Thursday at Waterford, Ct., stepped backward off the staging, and fell twenty feet to the ground, breaking his neck. He died in a few minutes.

The Grand Army of the Republic of the Department of Pennsylvania will celebrate the twelfth anniversary of its organization by a Grand Soldiers' Reunion in the International Exhibition Building at Philadelphia, on Tuesday, the 12th of November.

Congress will meet on the 2nd day of December next. Thirty days from that date the resumption act will go into effect.

War.—The opinion has been expressed within a few days at one of the Legations at Washington, most likely to be informed in regard to the condition of affairs between various foreign governments, that war between England and Russia cannot be avoided nor very long delayed.

The yellow fever scourge is at last on the decline in the South. Heavy frosts have been experienced in some sections, which have had the effect of destroying its fatal effects to some extent.

Mrs. Irsel Halter, of Newton township, Cumberland county lost a pig some time ago, and having vainly searched the country for miles around, gave it up as lost for good.

The New Penitentiary.—The Philadelphia Inquirer of the 24th ult. says:—The commission appointed by Governor Hartranft, under an act of Assembly, to select a site for and supervise the erection of a penitentiary for the recently created Middle District, met at the Continental Hotel, in that city, the previous day, and agreed upon Huntington county, as the site for the projected institution.

The Manhattan Saving Institution of New York was robbed of nearly three millions of dollars in securities and money Sunday morning the 27th ult., by a band of masked burglars.

UP WITH THE FLAG

FALL SEASON, 1878. Hurrah for another Large Business!

There is nothing dingy or forbidding about OAK HALL this Fall. The personal attention of Mr. Wanamaker has brightened up everything about the place, and the Fall buyers with a GRAND SEND-OFF!

$700,000 in Clothing and Cloths is under the broad roof, and The Star about the Place shows that the people have discovered that Oak Hall is "Home," and that, after all, it is best to "Stick to Old Friends." The fact is, we have outstripped every former effort, and put forward, this season, BETTER STOCK, BETTER CUT, BETTER MADE.

We rely on our TRUE and TRIED GOODS at TRUSTWORTHY PRICES, and, on the basis of low prices, good goods, and thorough satisfaction to our customers, propose to do a larger business than ever.
