Church Dedication at Adamsburg

On Sabbath Nov. 10th, it was our privilege to participate in the Dedication of a Lutheran Church at Adamsburg Snyder Co., Pa. The church is a beautiful Brick edifice 37 x 62 feet with a pulpit recess of 4½ feet. The basement is neatly finished and divided into men's and Infant Class rooms.

The audience room is neatly painted, grained, frescoed, carpeted, and matted. The spire which is one hundred feet high, acts as a pointer to point the careless to God, in it hangs one of Meneely & Kimberly's best 800 pound bells, that we hope may call many who now stand idle, in the Vineyard of the Lord, there to labor with a will.

On Saturday evening Nov. 9, Rev. H. C. Shindle of Port Royal preached from the text "What mean ye by these Stones." Josh IV chapter 6 verse, after which prepartory services were held. On Sabbath morning every available spot in the church was occupied by attentive listners while, Rev. S. G. Shannon of Milroy preached the Dedicatory Sermon from the text in 2 Chron., VII Chapter 16 verse. "For now have I chosen and Sanctified this house, that my name may be there forever." The church cost 5,000, and on the morning of dedication there remained $1,000 to be provided for. After the Morning Sermon, Rev. H. C. Shindle and the writer presented the claims and solicited funds, when near $300 was raised. In the evening before preaching another appeal was made and the whole amount was provided for. When this was ascertained the whole congregation joined in singing "Praise God from whom all blessings flow." Then the church was set apart to the Service of the Triune God. The Pastor loci performing the Litargical Services. On Sabbath afternoon there was a grand childrens jubilee held, which was addressed by Rev. H. C. Shindle and the writer of these lines. On Sabbath evening, Rev. P. Sheeder of New Bloomfield preached from John, XXI Chapter, 16 verse, "Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me?" after which the Sacriment of the Lords Supper was celebrated for the first time in the new church,

The writer preached on Monday evening from the text "For we walk by faith not by sight," 2 Cor., V Chapter, 7, verse. The Clergymen were present: Rev I Sheeder, Rev. H. C. Shindle, Rev. S. G. Shannon, Rev. J. E. Honeycutt, Rev. I. Irvine and Rev. ——Romich.

Truly this was a day of rejoicing for the Church going people of Adamsburgh. The people there are warmly attached to their pastor Rev. W. R. Wieand, as they may well be, not every one would have done for them what he has, evidently he is the right man in the right place.

HIGH LIFE IN THE WEST.

MR. POST.—Very few of your readers can form the least idea of the various modes of living, that we see daily through the West and especially along the Frontier. When you get over 20 miles from Rail Road, you see very few good commodious dwellings, as the houses are generally sod or dug out's or if in a region where there are building stone they erect their mansions of stone, and splendid stone you see in some sections. On one of the Stage routes from this R. R. up to the Kansas Pacific, all of the Post Offices with the exception of one are sod houses. One of them, where were several young ladies, was the model of neatness, which is more than can be said truthfully of some of which are run exclusively by the male faction. "Batching it," is a very common mode of living through newly settled country, and the young fellow who cannot throw off his coat, roll up his sleeves, the latter at his own option, and get up a good meal, wash the dishes &c., without smashing things up, is considered a very poor excuse indeed. It is understood the tables are not quite spread quite so daintily as you find them through your own county, as a table cloth is an article which has never been spread in the majority of these ranches. A more kind and liberal set of Boys I question if you find them there. As they will willingly divide with you, what they have, even down to a jonnie cake, or the last morsel of flitch. There are men who have lived a life of this kind, for 7 and 8 years and never a woman crossed the trhreshold of their shanty. Just imagine one of these happy human beings living in a building 10 by 12 with nothing between him and high heaven but a clab-board roof. One half the room is taken up with his wheat bin, on top of which he sleeps, cannot tell you how he gets into Bed, as it is 5 feet from the floor, ot course getting out is done, easily enough. his table occupies one coroner, and that with the exception of a very small space is piled up with rubbish that should be out doors, then put a stove in the centre of this room and then fill the remainder up with anything from old harness down to the small bucket, and you have a rough sketch, and a true one. As soon as he vacates the room the mice take possesion of eatibles that have been left, so that dish washing is unnecesary. but there is an exceptional way of living, probably the next shanty you enter is a building 12 by 14 feet in size, The first object you see on entering is a very handsome home made bedstead about 4 ft high in one corner, on a second view you will see there is another good bed and bedding on the floor under bed no. 1, then take in table, stove, chairs, cupboard and five trunks and you are surprised how neatly arranged and clean every thing is. As you would scarcely expect it from the appearance of the boys' who are running it, and should you stay for dinner you would find sweet potatoes, cabbage, beefsteak and good warm biscuit served up "not so bad." Think it would be well to advise the emigration of some of your young ladies west, say between the age of 30 to 40, of which plenty can be scared up—as they can command good wages and probably wind up with M——money. It looks rather rough to see a young fellow attempting to cook for a dozen of hard working men, especially if he is rather green in the biz, yet he receives his green back dollar a day. Where are woman's rights that they let men infringe upon their domestic duties in this way. But such is life.

Carey, thou hath left us. Though dead you only sleep. We bow in humble submission to the will of our Divine Master, and it is our fondest hope to meet you where little angels are. Sleep little Carey and meet us, parents and friends, at the hour when the Great Judge shall open the Book. You know no sin—and peaceful be your slumber.

Unveil thy bosom, faithful tomb;
Take this new treasure to thy trust,
And give these sacred relics room
To slumber in the silent dust.

Nor pain, nor grief, nor anxious fear,
Invade thy bounds; no mortal woes
Can reach the peaceful sleeper here,
While angels watch the soft repose.

So Jesus slept; God's dying Son
Passed through the grave and blest the bed;
Rest here, blest saint, till from his throne
The morning break and pierce the shade.

Break from his throne, illustrious morn;
Attend, O earth, his sovereign word;
Restore thy trust; a glorious form
Shall then arise to meet the Lord.

Every process of manufacture, from the raw cotton to the finished spool, is conducted there. To the largest and best DOLLAR WEEKLY PAPER printed in the country.

It is the paper that meets the wants of the farm and the fireside more fully than any other, as will be seen by a careful examination of the following facts, and a comparison of the paper with any other of the city weeklies:

The STAR is handsomely printed on pure white paper from clear cut type, that makes it easily read, even by a poor light. Its clear and open print is a joy to old or young eyes.

The STAR is free from political bias, and gives all the news with fairness and honesty, so as to enable its readers to form a correct judgment on whatever is passing; and it discusses questions without prejudice, but always in the interest of the producing classes.

It is in no sense sectional or partisan, directed in its news or opinions, and can be read with the same real pleasure and interest from Texas to Maine, and from California to Delaware. Its stories are thrilling; its news is late, comprehensive, and correct; its market reports reliable; and all its departments are fully up to the requirements of American journalism.

We give no chromos, hand-books, or almanacs with the STAR, believing that the greatest inducement we can offer is to mail a FIRST-CLASS NEWSPAPER, putting the money which such things would cost to the better use of improving the paper, and leaving the chromo business in the hands of patent dealers, where it properly belongs.

We, however, fully appreciate the appreciative work done by club agents, and reward them liberally, as will be seen by referring to our terms, which we think will commend themselves to all as equitable. Agents' outfit free of charge. Get a good club for the STAR.
