THE INAUGURATION.

Programme of the Inaugural Ceremonies at Harrisburg, January 21.

The indications are that the inauguration of Gen. Hoyt, which will take place on the 21st of this month at Harrisburg, will exceed any similar event in the point of brilliancy and the numbers in attendance.

The programme for the inaugural ceremonies has been announced as follows:

On Monday night, January 20, a full dress reception and hop, tendered to Gen. Hoyt by the Young Men's Republican Club of Harrisburg, will take place in the Opera House. Gov. Hartranft and staff will be present with Governor-elect Hoyt.

On Tuesday morning at nine o'clock the military and civic organizations will form on Market street ready for parade, under direction of the Chief Marshal, whose headquarters will be at the Lochiel Hotel. At ten o'clock precisely the parade will move, passing over a short route to West State street, where the line will be reviewed by the outgoing and incoming Governors on their way to the grand stand at the main entrance to the Capitol building. Here the inaugural services will be concluded with the inaugural address and the administration of the oath of office to the Governor-elect by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court.

At three o'clock in the afternoon the Senate and House of Representatives will vote for United States Senator in their respective halls.

In the evening a grand display of fire works will take place in the Capitol park, after which Gov. Hoyt will hold a public reception at the Executive Mansion.

PAR.—The country is to be congratulated that the period when our paper money is equal to gold has arrived. No one but a lunatic would desire to see an irredeemable and unreliable currency maintained as our circulating medium, unless it be one of those money-getters who fatten through speculation on the masses. The Lancaster Era truly says that this equality between our circulation and gold will most likely put an end to the era of speculation and inflation that has prevailed so many years, to the great detriment of the people. Profits will in many cases be smaller, but they will also be more certain. Business men, especially importers of foreign merchandise, can now operate with confidence. With a staple currency, there is no danger of the old time fluctuations. The public have been in earnest to aid the plan of resumption, and by their action have anticipated the time by several weeks. Let there be generous support of the scheme, and we shall not only see its wisdom triumphantly vindicated, but a new era of prosperity such as our country has not known within the last ten years.

During the year 1878 that "insatiate archer Death" reaped a rich harvest among the prominent men of earth. Among the dead for the year were Victor Emanuel, King of Italy; Pope Pius IX; Earl Russell, the champion of English parliamentary reform; Secchi, the astronomer; Petermann, the geographer; Benjamin F. Wade and Gideon Welles, the statesmen; Joseph Henry, the scientist; Charles Hodge the theologian; Bryant, the poet; Bayard Taylor and Samuel Bowels, journalists; Lewes, the author; Cruickshank, the caricaturist, and Boss Tweed, the champion ringster of the century.

Switzerland and France are suffering from the heaviest fall of snow that can be remembered by the oldest inhabitants. The wolves have penetrated as far as the gates of Metz. In Geneva a large force of workmen are engaged in clearing the streets of the snow, and railroad travel has been suspended. The weather is severe throughout Great Britain. All the railways in the north of Scotland are blocked up. Two London mail trains are snowed up twelve miles from Aberdeen, and five other trains are in the same condition in other localities, so that traffic is suspended. The snow in some places is over twelve feet deep.

There is evidently a hitch in the proposed contest of the election of Yocum by Curtin, in the Twentieth Congressional district. It involves work, swearing, &c., &c., according to the M'Clure style of doing such things, from which the decent men of Centre and Clearfield counties shrink in horror, and may, before it is ended, reveal the projectors in this intrigue in a light which will not be very enviable in view of their past claims to respectability.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

It is about time that the business of executing criminals was placed in the hands of men who possess at least a smattering of brains and a spark of humanity. A band of hoodlum ruffians with a hemp rope, an old wagon and a convenient tree at their command, would have put to blush the two Sheriffs who made such bungling attempts at hanging Hunter and Farrell, on Friday last.

Hon. A. J. Hoyt was elected president pro tem of the state senate and Hon Henry M. Long speaker of the House, at Harrisburg last week.

Hunter Hanged.

Benjamin Hunter who last summer was tried at Camden, N. J. for the murder of John M. Armstrong a music printer of Philadelphia expiated his crime on the gallows on Saturday last. During his trial and confinement up to within a few days of his execution he maintained the utmost fortitude and bravado. But the consciousness of guilt led him one day last week to attempt suicide by cutting an artery in his leg with a piece of tin procured by tearing apart a cup he had secreted a few days before. The night before his execution he slept none and groaned aloud continually. He took nothing to eat for breakfast and when the hour for the execution had arrived, he was unable to walk to the place of execution but was carried there by four of the Sheriff's assistants. When under the noose he was placed on his feet, but sank to the floor a limp mass. He was then supported while the noose was placed around his neck and the cap drawn over his face.

There was no gallows—but an arrangement of rope with a pulley, and a heavy weight (360 pounds) attached to one end thereof.

When all was in readiness the sheriff with a sharp hatchet cut the rope that held the weight, and the body of the condemned man was lifted about a foot from the floor where he stood. The rope had clogged in the hole through which it passed and the sheriff and assistants with their hands pulled the body to the required height. After a suspension of 50 minutes, the body was cut down.

FARREL HANGED.

QUEBECK, Jan. 10.—Michael Farrell was hanged in the Jail yard at 8:10 this morning for the murder of Francis Conway last August.

His execution was conducted in a shockingly awkward manner, as the rope caught under his pinioned arms and he slowly choked to death. He was fifteen minutes dying.

THERE are one hundred and twenty-two attorneys in actual practice in what is now Luzerne county.

IMPORTANT TO FARMERS.—We are now prepared to deliver this justly celebrated Marl at points along the S. & L. R.R. at $10 per ton. An analysis of 100 pounds of this Marl taken from a uniform shoe cut from the face of the bank, made by George H. Cook, State Geologist of New Jersey, shows as follows:

PHOSPHORIC ACID,	2 8-10 lbs.	ARGILLA,	8 9-10 lbs.
SILICIC ACID,	49 5-10 lbs.	PROTOXIDE OF IRON	17 1-10 lbs.
POTASH,	6 7-10 lbs.	WATER,	8 1-10 lbs.
LIME,	2 5-10 lbs.
MAGNESIA,	2 3-10 lbs.	Total	100 lbs.

The West Jersey Marl Company have their Marl cut from the top to the bottom of the bed, and thoroughly mixed, and they pledge themselves to supply Marl equal to the sample analyzed.

This Marl is adapted to all classes of soil and crops, and numerous testimonials can be shown from farmers and tradesman of its remarkable worth as a

PERMANENT FERTILIZER.

Its constituents of Phosphoric Acid and Potash alone make it at once the cheapest and best of manures, and of equal value to the farmers of over $1 per bushel or $20 per ton.
