E. B. TAYLOR, Superintendent.

Spring elections next.

Have you had a sleigh ride?

Adjourned court on the 28th.

Always read the advertisements.

The days are considerably longer.

Very high narrow back combs are worn.

The sun is gradually making his way northward.

Washington's Birthday will be the next legal holiday.

The snow shovelers were out in force on Thursday morning.

27 inches of snow, is now covering the ground in this section.

The best way to prevent catching cold is to keep your feet warm.

Don't growl—there is a colder country than this. Alaska, for instance.

The temperance meetings at Hassinger's Church have been well attended.

Everybody sympathizes with the railroad men during this severe weather.

Old King Frost embellishes the window paines very beautifully every night.

Our "devil" and "jour" attended the inauguration at Harrisburg this week.

Isaac Erb, a resident of Ohio, we notice is at present visiting his friends in this county.

M. Z. Steininger's stable roof broke down a few days ago, from the weight of the immense body of snow on it.

J. F. Riehl dropped in to see us on Tuesday. He is now located at Selinsgrove, engaged in the sale of the Singer Sewing Machine.

It doesn't seem as if there could be much pleasure in sleigh-riding without any bells on the horses, and yet many persons seem to enjoy themselves with no bell accompaniments.

A series of revival meetings were commenced in the town Hall in this place under the auspices of the Evangelical Association, on Sunday evening ast.

As the time for holding public sales is approaching we would remind our friends and the public generally that we are prepared to print bills at reasonable rates and on short notice.

Is any body keeping account of the snow storms? Thirty of them have been predicted, and there ought to be interest enough taken in the subject to ascertain definitely whether the prophet lied.

The officers and members of West Beaver Grange No 726 of P. of H. upon the retirement of the old officers, presennted the late master, J. J. Mattern, and his wife, each with a handsome set of furs. A nice testmonial of regard.

Give prompt attention and treatment to all affections of the throat and lungs. coughs, colds, &c. at this season. By using Dr. Haas' Expectorant, you will obtain immediate relief, and soon drive all such complaints from the system.

A lady said to us, "Dr. Haas' Expectorant has done myself and family so much good, that I feel like urging everybody to use it. Please tell all poor sufferers to try it for their distressing coughs. All druggists in town sell it.

A COUNTERFEIT five dollar gold piece is in circulation. It is gold on the outside, is full weight, and rings well. It is a little defective in the milling, and the S initial for San Francisco mint, is imperfect, yet the imitation is good and only an expert is able to detect the counterfeit from the genuine.

ADAMSBURG.—From a private source we learn that the Temperance Union is active and thorough. Ten more signers, all adults, enlisted in the Blue Ribbon army last Saturday evening. A full Regiment of 135 recruits, armed and equipped with efficient officers in command, is ready to "go forward" and do battle against King Alcohol.

Folks who in church keep their eyes turned toward the door, as often as toward the pulpit, can read with profit the following remark of a Kentucky preacher. Said he: "Ladies and gentlemen, this will close the [illegible]

Potatoes are selling at $1 per bushel in this place.

Both saint and sinner are now standing on slippery places.

We seen you fall and then get up and look around.

James P. Smith is about to erect a house, in this place.

Skating is our gespeilt. The ice being covered with snow.

John Limbert will take possession of the Washington House, April 1st.

Quite a number of our citizens attended the inauguration at Harrisburg last Tuesday.

The M. E. Church of Selinsgrove, will be dedicated on next Sabbath, the 26th inst. Rev. D. S. Monroe, D. D., of Lewisburg, will officiate. Services morning, afternoon and evening. A hearty invitation is extended to all.

Our friend "Solly" he of cheap clothing fame, entered into a new partnership on the 8th inst., which adversity in business success and competency in life, will not dissolve. He was married on the above date to Miss Harriet Burgauer of Philadelphia. We can only say that as he has succeeded in business so we hope he may find the new venture a happy and profitable one.

TEMPERANCE.—Mr. E. T. Scott, the temperance evangelist, gave two of his fine addresses to large and respectable audiences at the Hassinger Church on Sunday and Monday evenings. Short and well received remarks were also made by District Attorney Arnold, J. C. Shoch, J. S. Hassinger, and quite a spirited little closing speech by Rev. I. Irvine. Large delegations went up from Middleburg, giving evidence of the hold that the cause of temperance has on the minds of our citizens. Keep the ball rolling.

BERGIN HANGED.

POTTSVILLE, PA., Jan. 16.—Martin Bergin was hung at 10:40 this morning. He retired at 12 m. and slept comfortably until 4 a. m. Bergin left his cell about 20 minutes to 11, the Sheriff and Deputy Snyder in advance. Being asked by the Sheriff if he had anything to say, he replied: "I have nothing to say; I shall die like a true man, is all I have to say." He turned to the Sheriff smiling and said, "Good-by." The cap was drawn down over his head. Deputy Snyder retired from the scaffold, and the drop fell at 10:40. He died in 7 minutes.

West Beaver Items.

The Daniel Webster Debating Society met and organized on Jan. 14th. It is to be held in Moyer's school house. The following officers were elected: E. Snook, Pres.; L. W. Reigel, Vice Pres.; G. Lambert, Sec.; R. Riegel, Treas. Sides were chosen on the following question: Resolved, that man will venture more for the love of women that for the love of money, for the next meeting. Society then adjourned.

Wild turkeys are driven out from the mountain through this cold weather in search of food. I hope no body will molest them. REPORTER.

About seven o'clock, on Tuesday evening of last week a rap was heard at the door of Mr. Daniel Miller a resident of Buffalo Valley in Union County, the call at the door was answered, when four men rushed into the house, presented a pistol and threatened the life of Mr. Miller if he made any noise. The robbers then took a cord off a bed stead and tied Mr. Miller to his chair he was then asked for all his money. He handed them fifteen dollars all the money he had. Mrs. Miller was forced to conduct them through the house when after a fruitless search for more booty they bound and gagged her in a barbarous manner. The house was then ransacked from cellar to garret. Bureaus closets &c. were emptied—provisions cider and &c. appropriated. Mr. Miller succeeded soon after their departure to free himself and release the other inmates of the house.

$100 reward is offered for the apprehension of the robbers.

The Phrenological Journal for February is an excellent number of this sterling and popular magazine. It opens with a life-like portrait and phrenological and biographical sketch of Senator John P. Jones, of Nevada. It contains also portraits sketches of the late Bayard Taylor, American Minister to Germany, and also of the Marquis of Lorne and Princess Louise.

The chapter on Brain and Mind discourses on Organic Quality, its nature and influence, illustrated with nearly a dozen fine engravings. Strange Plants are also illustrated. The Unfolding of Mind through Conflict and Sin is an interesting paper.

The Health Department is well sustained by the admirable articles on Dietic Delusions: Experiments in Magnetism, and the Proper Position in which to Sleep, while our social relations as men and women are discussed in Single-Blessedness; Can the Sex of the Human Cranium be Determined? A new Scientific Expedition around the world, etc. There is also a great amount of valuable information in the Editorial department, Answers to Correspondents, etc. The publishers of this Journal have kept abreast of the times by making a reduction in price, but maintaining the high standard of their magazine in its literature and usefulness. It is now published at $3.00 per year, with liberal premium offers to subscribers. Send 20 cents to [illegible]

Letter From Michigan.

THREE RIVERS, Mich., Jan. 16, '79.
EDITOR POST:

Believing that your readers would be pleased to hear of many of their former friends and fellow citizens who have settled in the West I pen this communication. I arrived at Akron, Ohio, Dec. 25th, (Christmas day,) where I soon met such old friends as Ex-Mayor L. S. Herrold, Wm. and Henry Moats, F. Glass and Elias Millhoff, who are in good spirits and succeeding well in their business. Akron is a very pleasant town of about 20,000 inhabitants and I would suppose a pleasant place to live. Leaving Akron I arrived at Elkhart, Ind., Jan. 3rd, where the little enthusiasm remaining in me was pretty well frozen out; for if the mercury at 24 degrees below zero don't cool off even a sanguine temperament I'll give it up. I met at this place Harrison Brouse formerly of Kratzerville, Wesley Dorn, of Middleburg, both now in the Mercantile business, besides the Kantz's, the Gemberling's and others all of whom seem to be doing well and pleased with the country. Leaving Elkhart I next stopped at Three Rivers, Michigan, where I arrived Jan 13th, in company with Mr. James A. Beaver, formerly of Snyder county. Among the former residents of Pennsylvania whom I met at this place, I may mention H. C. Fisher, Henry and Frederick Gemberling, Calvin Duck and others.

The ground here is covered with snow to a depth of 15 inches.

Times are not so dull here as they are in the East. Wheat sells at 85 to 88cts. per bushel, corn 25cts per bushel, Pork $2.80 per hundred weight, Beef 3 and 4 cents per pound, butter 12 cents per pound, &c., &c.

Yours &c.,
W. H. SNYDER.

Meeting of the Legislature—The Organization—An Attempted Bolt—The Senatorial Contest, &c.

HARRISBURG, Jan. 14th, 1879.

An unusual interest attended the organization of the new Legislature, and large delegations, from all sections of the state, were in attendance. Most of these were directly interested for themselves or friends, in the personnel of the organization, though many were here in the interest of various schemes of legislation which will be passed this winter.

The organization in both houses was carried by the Republicans, who have control of both branches. The strength of parties will be seen from the following recapitulation:

SENATE.

Republicans,	32
Democrats,	15
Greenbackers,	3

HOUSE.

Republicans,	107
Democrats,	78
Greenbackers,	16

TOTAL.

Republicans,	136
Democrats,	93
Greenbackers,	19
Republican majority	27

Hon. A. J. Herr, of Dauphin, was chosen President of the Senate. Thos. E. Cochran, of Lancaster, chief clerk; E. W. Smiley, of Venango, Reading Clerk; L. Rogers, of McKean, Journal Clerk, with the usual number of subordinate officers,

In the House Hon. Henry Long, of Allegheny, was elected Speaker, Dr. W. C. Shurlock, of Beaver, Chief Clerk, John A. Smull, Resident Clerk, Henry Huhn, of Phila., Reading Clerk, J. E. Allen, of Dauphin, Journal Clerk. The usual number of minor officers, all Republicans, were also chosen. Your Representative, the Hon. Charles Miller, secured the appointment of Messenger, for Dr. I. D. Conrad, of your county, which is regarded as a very good appointment.

Mr. Miller was honored by being chosen as one of the Slate Committee, whose duty it is to apportion the various positions among the several counties—a delicate and most laborious duty. Although one of the committee he claimed only the one appointment, for Mr. Conrad, and his honorable performance of his duty was awarded by its prompt approval, and Mr. Miller gained hosts of friends by his course.

Hon. J. D. Cameron was nominated for U. S. Senator on first ballot, by the Republican Caucus, having received 97 votes, against 3 for Senator Eberhart, of Chester, and 11 for Mr. Brown, of Allegheny, but his nomination was made unanimous, by a direct vote of every member of the caucus.

There has been much talk of the threatened bolt, but the best claim put forward lacks two votes to secure an election of the Democratic combination candidate. On the other hand Senator Cameron's friends confidently assert that more than enough, outside of the caucus, have personally pledged their support to insure his election, which is doubtless the true situation.

The Republicans have a clear and good working majority in both Houses and they are determined to make a good record for themselves.
