Provided, That if any person so arrested can prove by satisfactory evidence that he does not make a practice of going about begging or subsisting upon alms for the purpose aforesaid in the manner above set forth, he shall not be deemed guilty of the offense herein before described, and upon such proof shall be discharged from arrest, either by the magistrate before whom he is committed, or by the Court upon hearing of the case upon a writ of habeas corpus.

Sec. 3. Any act of beggary or vagrancy by any person described by the first section of this act, shall be prima facie evidence that the person committing the same is a tramp within the meaning of this act, subject to the proviso contained in section one of this act.

Sec. 4. Any person upon view of any offense described in this act, may apprehend the offender and take him before a justice of the peace or a magistrate, whose duty it shall be, after hearing the evidence, to deliver charge or to commit the prisoner for trial as in the case of other misdemeanors.

Sec. 5. This act shall not apply to any female, or minor under the age of sixteen years, nor to any blind, deaf or dumb person, nor shall it be applicable to any person or crippled person, who is unable to perform manual labor.

Sec. 6. This act shall take effect on and after August 15, 1879, and all acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

Little time that has been known for five years are needed for the summer among the middle-class farming and stock-raising. A number of new roads will be opened and many of the roads will be new roads. Many of the railroads have been running well and it is probable that many of the suspended lines will now be completed to be a new track.

England was the first to apply the wire in agriculture and in the land. This was the first step in the wire and it is probable that agriculture has not been understood and the wire is not being used in the United States. The wire is not being used in the United States. The wire is not being used in the United States.

The best of wire fencing, and the most common, is the wire fence. This was first used in the United States. The wire is not being used in the United States.

President Hayes has issued a proclamation regarding the people of the United States. The wire is not being used in the United States.
