Henry Mink, was called away on Tuesday last to attend the funeral of a relative.

F. E. Bower, Esq., on Monday last left for Bristol, Indiana, to attend the funeral of the wife of C. C. Bower.

B. T. Parks, Esq., paid our stantant a visit on Tuesday last. Mr. Parks is an energetic worker in the Temperance cause. Call again.

A. W. Bowersox and J. P. Smith have received the contract for building a new school house in Franklin twp., where the old building now stands, known as Gift's School House.

The work of surveying the railroad from New Bloomfield, Perry county, to Danancon, has commenced. Twenty thousand dollars have already been subscribed toward the project.

The man who goes fishing and sits in a cramp-involting posture on a narrow plank from early morn till dewy eve, and calls it fun, is the same chap that never goes to church because the pews are comfortable.

ALL AFFIRMED.—In all the cases before the last term of the Supreme Court from Snyder and Union counties the decisions of his Honor, Judge Bucher, were affirmed, viz:

Kreger et al. vs Pa. Canal Co. Snyder do Beaver vs Kramer, do Sankey vs Watson, Union do Mall's Appeal, do Albright vs Sankey, do Overseers Lewisburg vs. Overseers of Milton, do

RUNAWAY.—Mackey, Singer S. M. agent, of Lewisburg, on Friday evening last was driving in Franklin and when near Bower's crossing an approaching train frightened his horse so that he ran away and was captured by John A. Forster after breaking the top off the buggy and doing other slight damages to the rig and sewing machine.

We are always pleased to receive reliable communications on either local or general topics.

And now the prudent man takes advantage of the low price of coal and lays in his winter supply.

Some persons complain that while butter is away down in price, milk and ice cream keep at the old figures.

A spokesman for a band of tramps near Harriburg recently said it was the intention of a majority of the tramps to settle down in shanties and steal their living and vote.

Ed. was fined for loyng his Band-book. He was teaching his little sweetheart music. If he persists in connecting he may get into a matrimonial-net next things he knows.

A car-load of White Sewing Machines, 50 in number, were received, on Saturday, by C. C. Seebold. The light running White seems to have thrown all other machines in the shade.

Graeco-Roman Wrestling Match. Fianna challenged John to wrestle—no rules—such as you can—a close contest—Fianna's stockings near the ceiling—John loses a bunch of hair—Fianna was too fat and John had been training—John holds the belt.

In a like manner with our exchanges we must chide some persons, who thoughtlessly tie their horses to shade trees along the thoroughfares and avenues of town. Many of these are choice young trees and to receive such treatment is almost sure to kill them.

Sweet-william, botanically, the Dianthus barbatus, a species of pink of many varieties, but that ain't the posie they were busting in the grass patch Saturday night—of course there was a sweet-william in the matter but a different kind of a root or vegetable from the one referred to above.

The Temperance Pic Nic, Adamsburg, Saturday 19th. Speakers—Hon. Chas. Wolfe, Major E. T. Scott, Wm. VanGezer, Esq., Eli Slifer, Jr., B. T. Parks, and other. All Ministers of the Gospel, in the county, are especially expected to be present. Lowest-rate excursion Tickets sold at all stations on the road. 8:30 evening train both ways. Several bands will be present. Everybody is invited.

STUNNED BY ELECTRICITY.—The Operator and his pupil at this station were somewhat stunned by lightning during the storm of Friday. The third pole from the station received the electric current which passed off at the pole near the Station—fortunately, they had cut off communication in due season, otherwise we would now be recording the departure to another climate, of two operators.

BADLY HURT.—On Saturday evening last Moses Fry, of Franklin twp., was re-arranging the joles of the mow above the threshing floor in his barn when he stepped upon one of the joles which being short slipped off and he fell to the floor below, the joles tumbling after striking him across the stomach causing, with the fall, very severe external and internal injuries—his injuries are serious and may result fatally. Inflammation is feared.

FESTIVAL.—The Band intends holding another Festival on Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings, July 31, Aug. 1 and 2, in the Court House. A programme will be gotten up with a view to entertaining the public in a pleasant manner. Let your native pride stimulate you to one more generous effort to place our Band on an equal footing with other Bands in this and neighboring counties, and we hope to reciprocate by establishing a reputation for proficiency at home and abroad.

Exposition of 1876.—Wandering thro' the United States section of this truly wonderful Exhibition, hyper-orientated and over-displayed as the most of it is, I came upon an elegant glass case, whose modesty was the more conspicuous for its neighbors' sner, surmounted by the motto DIXIT PAENITIA and displaying in neat packages, the medical preparations of the house of Dr. J. C. ALEX & Co., Lowell, Mass.

I was aware of the world-wide reputation of this eminent firm, for the character and quality of their goods, and remember well their agents in London, Messrs. Newbann, in St. Paul's Church-yard. Having a leisure hour, I determined to examine the contents of this case, myself, and I was surprised to see the delicate perfection to which they have brought their household remedies. I was chagrined at the reflection that, while we have at home the most skilful and pre-eminently the best physicians in the world, these Yankee doctors distance us so far in the line of popular medicines for family use. They have the sharpness to take advantage of the high scientific discoveries among us and make pills and potions as palatable as they are salutary.

I was told by a leading druggist in Philadelphia, that Dr. ALEX'S manufactory was the largest in America, giving employment to hundreds. I must go to Lowell and see it, on my way home.—[Continued in the London (Eng.) Telegraph.

CAN'T BE EQUALLED.—Mrs. Jacob Reichley, of Centre township, who is 83 years of age made a full hand in binding wheat after the cradle during the whole of the past grain harvest on the farm of Henry K. DRAFT OF REAPERS & MOWERS.

Taken from Official Report on Group 23, International Exhibition, Philadelphia.

The question, which Mower or Reaper is the lightest? Is a great interest in farmers. To settle the matter definitely and by reliable authority we give below the draft of the principal machines, constructed from the report of the judges (five American and five foreign) of the great Reaper and Mower trial that took place near Philadelphia, under the auspices of the Centennial Commission. At that trial there were twenty different machines tested by the dynamometer. As several of the manufacturers of the machines there tested have since failed and gone into bankruptcy, we quote the draft only of such machines as are made now, and in quantity sufficient to enable them to notice

Table with columns: EXHIBITOR, Distance Run, Height of cut, Width of cut, Total Draft, Share Foot of Grass cut, NAME OF MACHINE. Rows include Wader, Mitchell & Co., C. W. Otis, Haymaker, Adrians, Pratt & Co., C. Antman & Co., Johnston, Miller & Co., Johnson & Co., Osborne & Co., Osborne & Co., Osborne & Co., McCormick & Co., Walter A. Wood.

It will be seen from the above that where the Champion draft was 348, that the Osborne machine in cutting the same quantity, would draw 504; Buckeye 427; Johnston 484; McCormick 467; Adrians 470 and Wood 316.

JUDGES. American.—John P. Reynolds, Chicago, Ill.; James S. Grinnell, Greenfield, Mass.; James Bruce, Corvallis, Oregon; Forester.—John Coleman, Great Britain; Fermin Rosillo, Spain; Pedro D. G. Pass Leano, Russia; Ekoka Keaso, E. Obednorff, John Bradford, assigned from Group IV, and Geo. E. Waring, Jr., from Group XXXV.

As we have compared the above table, of the comparative drafts of the several mowing machines exhibited at the Centennial trial in 1876 with that published officially in the general report of the judges of group XXXIII, which included agricultural machines, implements of agriculture, horticulture and gardening, and find the same agree with the figures therein given. The judges at this trial were eminent men, experts in their line, and the results given are interesting and valuable. It is unnecessary to add that, as the table shows, they were on this trial very favorable to the Champion machine.—American Farmer. Any person in need of a good Reaper and Mower should call on or address the Agent for the Champion Machine, J. L. RICH, Jan 19, 1879, 1m.
