

The Post. Middleburg, Aug. 23, 1879. J. CROUSE, Editor & Proprietor. REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET. For State Treasurer, SAMUEL BUTLER, of Chester county. REPUBLICAN TICKET. Probationary, JEREMIAH CROUSE, of Middleburg. Register & Recorder, JAMES M. VANZANT, of Middleburg. District Attorney, HENRY H. GRIMM, of Freeburg. Jury Commissioner, ALVIN A. ULSH, of West Beaver.

The National Bank circulation was increased over $2,000,000 during the first week of August. This is a sure indication of reviving business. Only about 15,000 arrears of pension claims, of the $5,000 to be settled, yet remain, and these, it is stated, will be attended to before the first of November.

When it was announced that Nellie Grant Sartoris was dead, there was deep and universal grief throughout the United States. Now that the report of her death has been contradicted, the rejoicing is both general and hearty. In both appears the profound regard felt for the daughter of our great captain.

The Secretary of War has ordered the contracts for headstones for soldiers' graves to be awarded to D. W. Whitney of Troy, N. Y., and Samuel G. Bridges, of Keokuk, Iowa. The price of the headstones, furnished and erected, will, under these awards, average about $2.28 each.

The large machinery hall of the Philadelphia exhibition has been torn away. It was bought by a speculative firm for $24,000 and it is estimated they will multiply their money. The tin roofing realized nearly the entire purchase money. The speculators gave the two cupolas to the Philadelphia Old Ladies Home for summer houses.

The New York Herald insists that Mr. Tilden shall decline to be a candidate for the Presidency. It declares that a Republican victory is inevitable, and if he is wise he will get out of the way and avoid the mortification of a second defeat. The advice is good, but the sage of Gramercy Park will not heed it. He is determined that his party shall take him again, and he will once more cause it to go down in ruin. He thirsts for revenge, and he will have it.

A special law, enacted at the last session of the Legislature, provides that no quail shall be shot within the limits of the State for one year from November 1st, 1879. This law was enacted in response to an urgent call from sportsmen, because of the growing scarcity of this species of game, caused by the ravages of persons who have no regard for the game law. A heavy penalty is inflicted for its violation, and we should like to see it enforced.

The President has expressed a determination to carry out, at all hazards, the law relating to polygamy. Foreign governments are to be requested to cause the arrest of agents who are engaged in enticing women to come to the United States as converts to this heresy, in order to suppress that kind of emigration. Notwithstanding that some opposition is threatened on the part of the District Attorney, the indications are that the question in Utah will be disposed of in a satisfactory manner, as the decisions of the leaders have succeeded Brigham Young will facilitate the measures taken to enforce the statute.

The Internal Revenue Bureau has the happiness of announcing that, for the first time in its history, every dollar of the assessments and collections is satisfactorily accounted for. This is a wonderful showing for any department, and especially for one having such immense collections to account for as this one. It must be remembered, also, that our internal revenue system has had to be created—built from the ground up, in a new country, full of continually changing conditions, which present obstacles not found in older countries where business matters have settled down into a permanent shape. No party, except the Republican could ever have made such a showing for the honesty and capacity of its officials.

The Pennsylvania Railroad company have determined to erect an elevated Railway in Philadelphia, and it will be seventeen feet high, and at this height will pass over the streets. The railway will front Fifth street, and will occupy the lots, all of which have been purchased, where the houses now stand. The cost of the new enterprise is estimated at $2,000,000. At Fifteenth and Market streets a grand depot will be erected, the passenger rooms being on the second story. The freight cars will be lowered by machinery. The Reading Railroad company also propose to build an elevated railroad from near the junction of the Germantown and Norrisburg branches to Market street, where they will erect a depot.

Yellow Fever. MEMPHIS, August 22.—Nine cases in all were reported to the Board of Health to-day, four of whom were colored. Eleven deaths have occurred. Within the past few days several business houses and private dwellings have been broken open. As additional protections there will be organized tomorrow a white military company, which, if necessary, be placed on active duty to assist the authorities in maintaining the law. It has been raining steadily since 7 o'clock.

An agreement has been entered into between the Pennsylvania Railroad Company and the Duncannon and Bloomfield Company to secure the construction of the new road in Perry county. The new company is to grade the road, and lay the ties; the Pennsylvania Railroad will then take stock equal to the cost of grading and tying, and in addition advance whatever money is necessary to equip the road, taking a mortgage on the property. The Pennsylvania road will then operate the line, pay the interest on the mortgage out of the earnings, and the surplus, if any, will be divided among the stockholders.

The State Fair offers $50,000 in premiums. Sixty-five telephones are in use in Williamsport. Pennsylvania traps are flocking to New Jersey. Railroad ties of iron are to supersede those of wood.

Reading manufactured 47,000 barrels of multi liquor last year. 2,408 emigrants landed at Castle Garden, N. Y., last week. Over $100,000 were paid to the miners around Shoshone on Saturday.

There was a light snow storm in the mountains, near Somerset, on Friday, August 8. The Pennsylvania railroad will tunnel under West Chester and lay an underground track.

Rolland, the Chambersburg bank robber, is feigning insanity in the Eastern penitentiary. Paper bags are now manufactured in the Sunbury jail, and the business promises to be a success.

The largest furnace of the Reading iron company blew in on Tuesday, after a rest of four years. Western bound freight over the Pennsylvania railroad is heavier now than it has been for many years.

It is stated that there are in the United States over 400,000 railway cars of all kinds, also 16,000 engines. One day last week Joseph Bishop of Canby county, killed twenty-five rattlesnakes on the Shenkel farm near his home.

Thomas H. Cox, of Huntingdon, wants information of his wife and daughter, who left their home on the 23d ult.

The Hon. Franklin B. Gowen, President of the Philadelphia and Reading railroad, has arrived at home. It is stated that a Jerseyman cleared two hundred dollars on an acre of cucumbers; it is not stated how much each the doctors cleared.

Mrs. Margaret Turry, of Finishing, N. Y., celebrated her 110th birthday on the 16th. She is still active in knitting at which she spends most of her time. A hole cut in the boot of an Ohio farmer made it fit easier, but it also gave an opportunity to a copperhead snake that he stepped on in his barn. He was bitten upon the exposed spot and killed.

The shortest passage across the Atlantic on record, was made by the Arizona, of the Union Line, which left New York July 22, and arrived at Queenstown July 29, having made the voyage in 7 days, 8 hours and 8 minutes.

A new ferry boat in San Francisco is four hundred and twenty-four feet long and one hundred and sixteen wide, has four rudders at each end, and eight boilers, and will carry twenty-four railroad cars at one time.

The carpet covering the floor in an adjacent room of the San Francisco Mint was taken up a few weeks ago for the first time in five years, and buried to secure the accumulation of gold and silver filings. The operation netted about $2,500. The Sporting Life says that forty-four contestants have already entered for the pedestrian match for the long distance championship of the world, which will commence on the morning of the 23d of September, at Gilmore's Garden in New York.
