—All communications, business letters &c., for this office, to secure prompt attention should be addressed as follows: THE POST, Middleburg, Snyder County, Pa. Advertisements, communications &c. must be handed in by Monday noon, to secure insertion in next issue

Local News, &c.

Chas. P. Ulrich, Esq., of Selinsgrove, has located at Middleburg. Office in the Court-house.

The new Mosler safe was put into the Court House on Friday and the old one moved into the Commissioner's office.

Temperance meeting in the U. B. Sunday School room Friday evening. Election of Officers and other important business.

The Fairmount Hotel, in Franklin, kept by Killian Rothermel is clear of diphtheria and his old customers need entertain no fears of the disease.

G. C. Gutelius, the invincible and go-ahead-ative Clothier, Grocer, Confectioner, &c., has just received a fresh supply of Goods—come and see—Prices reduced—never were so low before.

C. C. Seebold's new sign, "White Sewing Machines," was flung to the breeze on Tuesday. Charley wants the people to know exactly where they will find him and the White.

THE UNFORTUNATES.—Charles Boyer of Paxtonville hired Suwarrow Bowersox's horse and drove to Port Treverton on business, one day last week, and while there the horse became sick and died.

MARTHA'S BOQUET.—How exquisitely beautiful. How like those blooming roses on your cheeks! How beautifully and tastefully arranged! How fragrant! Accept our h e a r t—hearty thanks, Business called us to Beavertown a few days ago and we met our friend Samuel Lupfer. We take this means and this occasion to thank the Judge for some of the finest peaches we have seen for a long time.

I wish to give notice to the public that my family is well of the prevailing Diseases, Diphtheria, or affections of the throat, as my customers were backward to call on account of this Disease.

KILLIAN ROTHERMEL.

Adam Showers one evening last week was the owner of a valuable living cow and the next morning he was the sad owner of a dead cow. She had eaten corn husks, thrown out by some person in the alley or on the street. A. J. Specht made the post mortem examination.

Wm. H. Beaver shipped a car-load of Horses to New York on Monday evening last. At Harrisburg the car containing the horses was run into and considerably damaged. The horses were badly damaged also. The Penn'a. Railroad Company, however, promptly makes such matters right and Mr. B. will sustain no loss.

Charley Hoffman still has some prime melons on Nigger, Baratavia Island near Selinsgrove, sweet potatoes and cabbage in abundance. Now is the time to purchase—don't delay or you will be too late. Charley has counted his shiners and is in a good humor and you can buy cheap, Move right along.

Dr. A. M. Smith, of Adamsburg, very kindly tendered us a seat in his buggy in order that we might reach the Black Oak Ridge Church and burial ground where the remains of Charles Krebbs were deposited on Monday last.

The doctor has abandoned all other business to attend solely to a large, lucrative and increasing practice in which he has been pre-eminently successful.

A new two cent return postal card is out. It is provided with a stamp on each end of the card, and room for writing two messages. If the sender desires an answer he must take care not to occupy all the space. One stamp is cancelled at the office from which the card is sent, and the second from the point where responded to. These convenient postals will soon be in general circulation.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.—George Shindel is the owner of a purp—and the purp went over to the jail for some purpose only known to the purp—but that is was disappointed in something is certain and thereupon hanged himself at the top pickets of the front-yard fence. George saw his dieing kick and heard his departing song and at a 2-40 gait went to the rescue and just in the niche of time released the felo dese.

Mrs. Susan Gemberling, wife of Philip Gemberling, deceased, of Penn township, died August 31st at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. John S. Snyder, in Florence, St. Joseph county, Michigan, aged 75 years and 4 days.

Mrs. Gemberling was for many years a resident of this county and was well and favorably known in Selinsgrove and Penn township where there are many of her relatives residing.

Charles Krebbs is dead, and on Monday last his remains were taken to the Black Oak Ridge burial grounds where they were deposited in their last resting place on earth forever. He was in the eighty-first year of his age. From youth to ripe old age he had lived a life wholly above suspicion in all respects. He was a good citizen, an excellent neighbor; a valuable friend and wise counselor, and a consistent, orthodox member of the Lutheran church. For unquestionable integrity; fairness in all his business transactions; unbending honesty and purity of motives and purposes he was esteemed by all who knew him. Whilst he was accurate and exact in business affairs he was equally scrupulous in fair-dealing. He was generous, hospitable and cultivated and nurtured charity as the noblest of human virtues. In a word, he was an exceptional man and an exemplar whom it were profitable to imitate. He was an exceedingly kind man and always had a cheering word for the distressed. His long life of usefulness in business and in the church affords a valuable lesson from which we may learn much that will profit us through this life and the life to come. As a matter of course when such a citizen is called away a large concourse of relatives and friends attend the last sad rites which are paid the dead.

Moses Specht, of Beavertown, is known far and wide as a man of remarkable energy. His whole life has been one continuous and successful effort to accomplish the end for which a fair-minded, active, energetic, honest, industrious and intelligent citizen has been created and in this he has been eminently successful. With due regard for truth he may be said to be 'the architect of his own fortune.' Our readers are aware that the Penn'a R. R. Company awarded him the contract to make the bed for the rail road to avoid the trestle this side of Beavertown; and it has turned out to be very considerable of a job. From early morning until evening twilight he is on the grounds urging the work forward and handles the pick and shovel the spade with as much energy as any one of his employees. When he returns home in the evening he looks over the business transactions of the day in his store and foundry. He is known as a careful business man—has been ever since he pushed his small boat out in the ocean of life—and his success in life is the proof positive. His life furnishes an example for young men which if strictly followed would lead them on to honorable success.

THE GAME LAW.—Rabbits may be killed from October 15 to January 1.

Squirrels, from September 1 to January 1.

Woodcock, from 4th of July to January 1.

Partridges or quails, October 15th to January 1.

Pheasants, October 1 to January 1.

Trout, during April, May, June and July, with hook and line only.

Bass, from June 1 to January 1.

All kinds of net fishing prohibited, except with hoop or set nets of a mesh of two inches, in streams containing bass or trout.

DIPHTHERIA.—The reports, throughout the county, and far and wide beyond, concerning the diphtheria at Middleburg are outrageously exagerated. The stories of the people running away; the unburied dead; want of coffins and grave-diggers and all that kind of stuff is worse than nonsense. If one half the floating stories were true, yellow-fever-stricken Memphis would be safer than Middleburg. Don't credit these outlandish stories. That we have diphtheria here is true, but it is confined to children several of whom have died.

A. S. Gensemer of Union township seems to be quite successful in grafting and raising fruit trees. Several weeks ago we spoke of several large grafts that he put out in the spring. We are again informed that he has now plum graft that is but a few months old whose length is nine feet and four inches. He also has a young pear tree twenty seven inches high bearing six large pears. A variety of cherries he has do not become ripe until in August.

Countless sufferers find the balm of relief, and the fountain of their health and strength, in AYER'S SARSAPARILLA. It is the most potent of all the alteratives to purify the system and cleanse the blood. It possesses invigorating qualities, so that it stimulates the faded vitalities and purges out the corruptions which mingle with the blood, promoting derangement and decay. We are assured by many intelligent physicians that this medicine cures beyond all others of its kind, and we can fortify this statement by our own experience.—[PENNSYLVANIAN (PA.) Argus.

About the first of June 7 sheep—4 white, two of which have small horns—3 black, one of which is a Buck, strayed away from the premises of the undersigned residing in Franklin twp. All of them have a slit in the left ear. Any person giving information concerning their whereabouts will be liberally rewarded. P. O. Address.

Tell your Neighbors.

For two years or more I could find nothing that would cure me of a smothering feeling in my chest. The doctors said I was too far gone with dyspepsia and torpidity of the liver, and medicine could do me no good. I was very much distressed with a weak back; pain most of the time; could hardly walk. A lady advised me to use the Baroona, Backache Liver and Kidney Cure, and before two bottles were used I was nearly cured, and have not been troubled with the same complaint for more than two years. It is the best medicine I ever saw.

Hospitality is a characteristic peculiar to the Middleswarth family, and whether Mrs. Judge Middleswarth imbibed this peculiarity from the Judge through a third of a century of married life or whether it is a part of her inheritance matters not, but it matters not when you get to their home you are so cordially and urgently solicited to enjoy their hospitality that resistance is impossible.

The Judge showed us through his lots about his residence and the fine varieties of fruit, especially the choice varieties of grapes, bear testimony of the Judge's excellent taste and judgment in making selections and care and attention bestowed upon them.

Taking Time by the Forelock.

Coming events cast their shadows before, and already, though the mists of months, the gladsome holiday season looms clearer day by day, filling the youthful mind with pleasing speculation and causing masterfamilies to consider in what direction she can exercise a little additional economy, whereby the money for presents may be forth coming when required. And just in the nick of time there comes to hand a suggestion of how Johney, and Annie, and Flossie, and Charley may secure for themselves and by their own exertions, the jack knives and work boxes, and writing cases, and tool chests, for which their souls are longing; of how mamma may get that book or parlor ornament she has talked about so often; and of how, by their united exertions they may obtain a present wherewith to surprise and gladden the soul of papa.

For the publishers of Ehrichs' Fashion Quarterly are in the field with the new premium list of their magazine; and all that mamma or children (or papa either for that matter) need do, is to send name and address on a postal card to Messrs Ehrich & Co., of 267 Eighth Avenue, New York, when a copy of the list will be mailed them free, and they can appreciate for themselves the advantages offered.

The Fashion Quarterly so exactly fills its place as a guide to economy in the household, and its subscription price, only 50 cts. a year, is so very trifling, that little difficulty should be experienced in securing subscriptions, and we have no doubt that thousands will gladly avail themselves of the opportunity thus presented of securing some useful article at a very moderate expense of time and trouble.

Is a compound of the virtues of sarsaparilla, stillingia, mandrake, yellow dock, with the iodide of potash and iron, all powerful blood-making, blood-cleansing, and life-sustaining elements. It is the purest, safest, and in every way the most effectual alterative medicine known or available to the public. The sciences of medicine and chemistry have never produced so valuable a remedy, nor one so potent to cure all diseases resulting from impure blood. It cures Scrofula, and all scrofulous diseases, Erysipelas, Rose, or St. Anthony's Fire, Pimples and Face-grubs, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter, Humors, Salt Rheum, Scald-head, Ringworm, Ulcers, Sores, Rheumatism, Mercurial Disease, Neuralgia, Female Weaknesses and Irregularities, Jaundice, Affections of the Liver, Dyspepsia, Emaciation, and General Debility.

By its searching and cleansing qualities it purges out the foul corruptions which contaminate the blood, and cause derangement and decay. It stimulates and enlivens the vital functions. It promotes energy and strength. It restores and preserves health. It infuses new life and vigor throughout the whole system. No sufferer from any disease which it arises from impurity of the blood need despair, who will give AYER'S SARSAPARILLA a fair trial. Remember, the earlier the trial, the speedier the cure.

Its recipe has been furnished to physicians everywhere; and they, recognizing its superior qualities, administer it in their practice.

For nearly forty years AYER'S SARSAPARILLA has been widely used, and it now possesses the confidence of millions of people who have experienced benefits from its marvellous curative virtues.
