Communications reflecting on the character of private persons are not looked at in this office, further than to learn the contents. We never publish such communications.

Our financial system is the best in the world. The return of better times, the resuscitation of all our industries are the legitimate results of our financial policy.

SEWING THE SEED.—Farmers are busy sewing—the ground is in excellent condition—and apparently the usual amount of territory will be seeded, in this vicinity, judging from the fresh plowed fields within our observation.

The meanest cuss that walks this earth and deserves to be choked to death either by the hangman's rope or by his stealings is the cuss who went into Mrs. Pfahler's cellar on Monday night and stole all her bread and pies. Aunt Kate was writing letters and heard the villain in the cellar and called to Mrs. P. which alarmed the sneak thief and he departed.

U. K. (Telegrapher) was smitten by Rebecca and has "gone back" on Fianna.

Fianna says" He's a "krooel kreecher" and so toctor Ed. says too. And in order to fix up Fiann's wounded phelings toctor Ed. talks sweet and escorts her to Camp. Bravo, toctor you have a good, big heart in your bosom and many good things are in store for you.

Murray, we thusly acknowledge the receipt of a copy of The Newton Republican. It is a big paper; ably edited; its mechanical make-up defies criticism and shows that a master hand is at the helm—it is bold, aggressive, truthful, comprehensive—those are the essential elements of a good paper. The Newton Republican should be found in every business place, work shop and dwelling house in Harvey county.

The Dog let loose.—John has been flirting with other gals and sort of jilting his old gal. Now that Campmeeting is over and the gals gone home, John will want to go back to his first love, but Mollie Ann says she has left that wiedich Aunt out of the collar with instructions to bite John until he swears by the shades of Julius Caesar that he, John, will never leave nor forsake her, Mollie Ann, anymore so longer as he lives, John will take the oath.

LATE WAR PENSIONS.—Any soldier or sailor who without fault on his part was disabled, to any extent, for manual labor, by disease, wounds or injuries incurred in the late war is entitled to a pension ranging all the way from $1. to $72. per month, according to the extent and severity of his disability, the average rate being about $8 per month. It begins from the date of his discharge from the service and continues as long as the disability exists.

If the pension be not applied for before next January the law requires it to begin only from the date of making the application, and as the average difference will be over $100. it is very important that all these applications be filed this year.

If the soldier died in the service, or if he has since died of the disease, wounds, or injuries that he contracted in the service, his widow, if any, or if she be dead or remarried, his children while they were under 16 years of age are entitled to a pension. Many soldiers now in receipt of a pension are entitled to have it increased, their disability having grown worse since their pension was granted.

Charley Buff's reading Blackstone with a view to the practice of law. He will locate his office near Dunkelberger's in a gap of the Shade mountain on the main road leading from Middleburg to Fremont.

As one of the preliminaries he went out the other night to boil apple-butter—he and his duleinea looked into the kettle several times during the process of boiling and the butter is so disagreeably sweet that it must be cooked over again. Charley proposes to use alum or Crab-apple cider—he brought a crock-ful along to the Washington House, but the Proprietor refuses to feed it to his guests unless Charley procures the services of an Indian Doctor in advance.

As soon as the news from California and Maine confirmed the reported success of the Republicans the opposition began to howl the usual excuse for defeat, namely, unscrupulous methods, crookedness, use of money, alliance with monopolies and soulless corporations.

Pshaw! That's not it. The last Congress demonstrated to the American people the utter inability of the Democracy and their allies to run this Goverment successfully.

A GOOD-NIGHT CLOCK.—A lover's alarm clock is the latest inventing which is said to work like a charm. At ten o'clock it strikes loudly, two little doors open, and a man with a dressing gown and cap on glides out sliding in his hand a card inscribed "good night." At ten he bows and retires back into the clock, the young man takes the hint, says "Good night" to the fair daughters and departs.

STRAY SHEEP.

About the first of June 7 sheep—4 white, two of which have small horns—3 black, one of which is a Buck, strayed away from the premises of the undersigned residing in Franklin twp. All of them have a slit in the left ear. Any person giving information concerning their whereabouts will be liberally rewarded. P. O. Address.

Cathartic Pills

Combine the choicest cathartic principles in medicine, in proportions accurately adjusted to secure activity, certainty, and uniformity of effect. They are the result of years of careful study and practical experiment, and are the most effectual remedy yet discovered for diseases caused by derangement of the stomach, liver, and bowels, which require prompt and effectual treatment. AYER'S PILLS are specially applicable to this class of diseases. They act directly on the digestive and assimilative processes, and restore regular healthy action. Their extensive use by physicians in their practice, and by all civilized nations, is one of the many proofs of their value as a safe, sure, and perfectly reliable purgative medicine. Being compounded of the concentrated virtues of purely vegetable substances, they are positively free from calomel, or any injurious properties, and can be administered to children with perfect safety.

AYER'S PILLS are an effectual cure for Constipation or Costiveness, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Foul Stomach and Breath, Dizziness, Headache, Loss of Memory, Numbness, Biliousness, Jaundice, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Dropsy, Tumors, Worms, Neuralgia, Colic, Gripes, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Gout, Piles, Disorders of the Liver, and all other diseases resulting from a disordered state of the digestive apparatus.

As a Dinner Pill they have no equal.

While gentle in their action, these PILLS are the most thorough and searching cathartic that can be employed, and never give pain unless the bowels are inflamed, and then their influence is healing. They stimulate the appetite and digestive organs; they operate to purify and enrich the blood, and impart renewed health and vigor to the whole system.
