Pumpkin pies now tickle epicurean tastes. The Snyder county Teachers are instituting this week. The number of teachers in attendance is about fifty six.

Miraculous Escape.—On last Saturday E. A. Steingler, of Franklin, was threshing. He was doing something which brought him in contact with the tumbling shaft on which there is a double swivel—this caught his pant-leg and tore all the clothing from his body save the neck hand and wrist bands of his shirt.

Hon. H. G. Fisher is still poorly, and is confined to his bed chamber.—Huntington Globe, 15th inst.

Some of the farmers who did their seeding early, are regretting that they did not do so later.

Don't be known in the community as a busybody and meddler in other people's business.

Albright Swinford showed us two peerless potatoes weighing 5 lbs. in aggregate. Who can do better?

A man may be a splendid marksman and still miss the hickory nut and knock the nail off his thumb.

"Sellers' Liver Pills" are working more real good in one year than all other proprietary medicines. 25¢ per box.

It is not often persons having such a complaint of the heat, but there has been reason for such complaint this season.

It is simply marvelous how quickly constipation, biliousness, and sick headache are cured by "Sellers' Liver Pills."

We would call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of E. L. Buffington in another column of this paper.

Gum camphor dissolved in petroleum is now used as a remedy for diphtheria, being applied as a gargle or with a swab.

Some of the Cumberland County farmers have sowed their wheat over again, the fly and drought having used up the first sowing.

"Is a there a man with soul as dead who hath suffered the miseries of a cough or cold, yet neglected to try 'Sellers' Cough Syrup?'"

Hassinger, Walter & Co., sawed a log at their Steam Mill, in Wittenmyer's woods, which cut 347 feet of marketable lumber.

George F. Stettler's big tomato weighs 1 lb. 8½ oz. and measures 5½ inch diameter—that's so and can any one produce a larger one?

Squire Teats, of West Perry, raised a turkey which weighed 11 lbs. Squire Rev. J. G. M. Swingle dined with the Squire and verified this statement, but positively refused to say what proportion of the turkey he had favoured.

Hereafter, under a new law passed, at the last session of the Legislature Sheriff's inquisitions will be composed of only six men, instead of twelve, and the same will be the case on writs of partition of real estate.

It isn't right to send your children to school too young, just to avoid taking care of them. Schools are not nurseries, and teachers have something else to do than to attend to the physical wants of young children, whose proper place is under the mother's care.

The lumber from three Steam Saw-Mills is being hauled to this station for shipment and the lumber-men complain that they cannot get cars. The revival of all our industries has taxed the railroads to their utmost capacity and this accounts for the difficulty in obtaining cars. It is certainly no fault of our agent.

On Saturday last, Levi Ettinger was lodged in jail charged with the larceny of a pair of shoes. On Sunday he dug a hole in the jail-yard wall and was about to bid the Sheriff farewell. The other three prisoners who were witnessing his operations squatted and he was stopped from father proceedings and moved into more secure quarters on the second story.

Isaac Walter, aged about 10 years son of Jacob Walter of Centre township, on last Wednesday morning, went to the break-fast table and whilst eating got something in his throat and was immediately strangled to death. He had been a victim of the epidemic which prevailed in this vicinity a short time ago which in nearly all cases left an affection in the throat.

Rev. J. Jacobs, formerly a resident of Lebanon County, Pa., and now resident in Rockland, Michigan, with his wife, are visiting Albright Swinford of this place. Mrs. Jacobs is the sister of Mrs. Swinford and have not seen each other for 33 years. Mr. Jacobs and family left Penna. 25 years ago—he has a brother residing in Shannandoah, Bohyckell county, Ohio State, whom he has not seen since he left this place, but intends to visit him. The Rev. gentleman will preach in church, 1st day, this day.
