The Post.

Middleburg, Nov. 20, 1879.

L. CROUSE, Editor & Proprietor.

Once more Ben Butler tumbles from the pinnacle of his hopes to the lowest depths of the Slough of Despond.

The Pennsylvania railroad company is introducing a new coal car, which will carry almost double as much freight as the old car.

There is a proposition to appoint Gen. Garfield as the successor of the late Zach Chandler, as Chairman of the National Republican Committee. No better selection could be made.

Gen. Butler leaves an estate valued at $1,000,000. He made a shrewd investment in Cincinnati gas stock during the electric light panic, and the subsequent rise realized handsomely.

A meeting of the Republican National Executive Committee has been called to be held in Washington December 17th. The Committee will select a Chairman in the room of Sen. Chandler, deceased a Secretary in place of R. C. McCormick, resigned, and will also choose a place for holding the next Republican National Convention.

The unprecedented drought and cold weather has dried up all the wells in Petersburg, Virginia, and all the springs and streams of the surrounding country. The mills in neighboring counties being stopped, farmers in some instances have been compelled to travel forty or fifty miles to Petersburg to get breadstuffs for their families and have their grain ground. Some of the railroad companies have been supplying their tanks at different stations with water carried from the river at Petersburg.

Another insurrection has broken out in Cuba. Whatever may be the cause of discontent among the creole mountaineers, who are said to be the leaderders in the revolt, it is quite certain that the negro slaves are determined to be free. The echos of gradual abolition now in progress is too slow to suit the bold spirits who have survived the rebellions and insurrections of the last fifteen years. They have grown up amidst the alarms and terrors of war and it is not in the nature of things that they should be contented slaves. They have before them the hope of emancipation, but it is too remote to satisfy their longings for liberty. The Spanish Government is preparing to reinforce the Cuban army, but a decree of absolute emancipation would be far more effective in suppressing the insurrection a hundred thousand soldiers. Slavery can be no longer maintained in the West Indies, and the sooner Spain adapts her policy to the sentiment of the Christian world the sooner will she have peace in Cuba.—Phila. Press.

Gov. Hoyt's Proclamation.

Gov. Hoyt has issued the following proclamation: In devout recognition of the God of States who has ordered peace, health and abundant prosperity to the people, I, Henry M. Hoyt, Governor of Pennsylvania, do appoint Thursday the 27th day of November next, in pursuance of the recommendation of the President of the United States, as a day upon which the good people of this Commonwealth laying aside all secular occupations, may meet together in reverent thanksgiving for mercies received and prayer for a continuance of divine favor,

Given under my hand and the great seal of the State at Harrisburg this 7th day of November, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, and of the Commonwealth the one hundred and fourth.

HENRY M. HOYT,

By the Governor:

M. S. QUAY,

Secretary of the Commonwealth.

Address of Congratulation from the Republican State Committee.

To the Republicans of Pennsylvania: The State Committee tenders to every Republican in the State and to all others who aided in securing the victory of November 4th, thanks and congratulations. You have given the greatest majority ever cast in Pennsylvania for a Republican candidate, save that cast for Gen. Grant in 1872, and you have done this in a campaign the seeming apathy of which at first alarmed the timid and doubtful. You have given Pennsylvania a proud place in the phalanx of States, demanding that our revised prosperity shall not be destroyed; that our currency shall not be debased; that the public credit shall not be tarnished, and that the rights and privileges of the citizens shall not be crushed out; and all this you have done by your stern protest against continuing in power the Democratic party, which assails prosperity by collusion with foreign capital to break down American labor and home industries; which seeks to destroy sound financial policy by a crazy theory of paper currency; which prostrates public credit thro' State, corporate and muncipal repudiation, thus leading certainly to the repudiation of our National debt; and which suppresses by violence in the Southern States those rights of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, without security for which governments are contemptible and existence a curse. By your voice these wrongs and dangers to the nation are averted and the rights of all our citizens will be redeemed.

F. C. HOOTON, Chairman.

Remarkable Presence of Mind.

Remarkable presence of mind was recently shown by a miner near Pottsville, Pa. He was employed in a shaft on Sharp Mountain. He had lighted a fuse and was climbing to the surface by means of pegs in the side of the shaft. When within a few feet of the top one of the pegs gave way and the unfortunate man fell to the bottom, thirty feet below. One of his thighs was broken and the splintered bones were pushed thro' two pairs of pantaloons. Notwithstanding his terrible injuries, he had sufficient presence of mind to crawl to the lighted fuse which had burned within a few inches of the charge and to smother it. If he had not done this he would have been blown to pieces when the explosion took place. He then crawled back to one of the earth buckets, got into it without assistance, and was hoisted to the surface.
