Rev. J. Jacobs, of Michigan, who has spent several weeks in our town as the guest of Albright Swinford started for his home on Tuesday afternoon. He preached several sermons to full houses during his stay and made many warm friends whose prayers and best wishes for his and his wife's safe return to their western home follow them.

The Lutheran Congregation at Middleburg, voted unanimously to retain Rev. I. Irvine.

Right here we may say that Rev. Irvine is highly esteemed for his many virtues and especially for his fearless and aggressive warfare against Satan and his host—he is always on the offensive—never on the defensive—and his people have learned his tactics and appreciate his efforts as an unflinching Minister of the Gospel.

BURGLARY. - On Friday night Wittenmyer's store was entered by burglars, entrance was effected through the window on Sugar Street at the north end of the store room. The dog which was in the room made an unusual noise and Waldo tried to quiet him by calling to him from the bedroom—this undoubtedly frightened the burglar or burglars so that a hasty retreat was the best policy as the old gentleman, having heard the noise, was on his way down-stairs with revolver in hand to see what was up, Peter Specht's brace and bit were left in the store—his screw-driver was taken and no doubt was used to unscrew the Keeper from the office door.

The same night the rescues entered John Norman's cellar and would have been captured, but Mr. Norman fell over the rocking chair and the game took flight and it was well for John as the pluck of a "frontiersman" and would have made it hot.

Since the above occurrence the people of town generally have armed themselves and thieving will be made a dangerous business to follow in Middleburg.

No more hanging over the front gate this fall. There will now be a fire in the parlor, and she will invite him in.

Sugars and coffees have made a remarkable advance in price. Both crops are short. The advance in both is full 8 cents per pound.

It will be welcome news for farmers to learn that corn and wheat have recently advanced in price. This rise, too, is not merely the work of speculators, but the necessary effect of the great foreign demand for breadstuffs, during the past six weeks wheat has advanced thirty-eight cents and corn fifteen cents per bushel.

Overcoats! Overcoats! Weis & Oppenheimers, Selinsgrove, can supply the whole county with overcoats. They have a large variety of them in stock and are receiving new ones daily. Give them a call and you will find that you can save money by buying your clothing of Weis & Oppenheimers.

"Peterson's Magazine" for December is on our table in advance, and is a marvel of beauty, even for "Peterson." There are two steel engravings, one called "The Pea Pigeons," an exquisite affair, and the other a title page, representing a beautiful little child, asleep in his crib, with a rose bud in his hand, after a picture by the celebrated English artist, Millais. Two colored fashion plates, also a steel plate, is one of the loveliest we have ever seen. Then there is a treasured catalogue pattern, in Berlin work, for an Ottoman, or Chair Seat, a Christmas gift given extra, to the subscribers of "Peterson." The literary contents are even better than usual, and this is saying a great deal. Now is the time to get up orders for next year. Address, CHAS. J. PETERSON, 803 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Ehrich's Fashion Quarterly Monthly stands at the head of the periodical literature of Fashion; and indeed, in its own peculiar field, it may be said to be absolutely without a rival. Containing the features of a catalogue, a fashion review, and a price current, it tells the readers what goods are most in vogue, in what assortments they are offered, and at what prices they can be produced; and the claim of its publishers, that it is a thoroughly reliable Purchase's Guide has certainly a strong foundation of truth. The Winter number is, of course, devoted largely to holiday goods, although the current fashions of the season in dress are by no means neglected, and space is also given to china and silverware and other household articles. A novel and most useful feature is the classification under proper headings, of presents suitable for gentlemen and ladies, a reference to which exhibits at a glance the different items of masculine and feminine necessity, and enables intending givers to avoid that dreadful vacancy of mind so apt to overtake them when they sit down to consider "what they shall give."

The literary portion of the magazine is also excellent, and abounds with interesting tales and sketches, and useful articles on household subjects. Miss Corson, of the New York Cooking School, contributes some of her experiences; and the lessons in dressmaking, and the art of lace work will be welcome to every lady reader.

Physicians Prescribe It. It is giving excellent satisfaction. Our doctors prescribe it. Send three dozen Barossa by express. Hurry! Hurry! We sold our last bottle this morning and have orders for six more. I have also sold several bottles to a physician living several miles from here. He gives it a good recommendation.

This is a sample of orders we are getting from druggists every day throughout the country. Barossa, or Buchu, Backache, Liver and Kidney Cure, is prepared by E. K. Thompson, Titusville, Pa. For sale by John A. Moxie, Middleburg Pa.

The Phoenix Pectoral. Has proved itself to be particularly adapted to old persons, consumptive children, it breaks a cold, it stops a cough, it gives protection. It gives instant relief. It gives strength. It gives rest. It has made more cures than any other medicine. Thousands of the citizens of Eastern Pennsylvania have used it for years past and testify to the relief and cure secured.

Prepared by Levi Steinhilber, M. D. and sold by John A. Moxie, Middleburg, and Simons, Middleburg, Pa. April 2nd, 1879.
