Thanksgiving to day.

1879 is on the home stretch.

Now for the champion porker.

Take extra precautions against fire.

Gum shoes have advanced thirty per cent.

The weather has been wintry the past week.

Provide your shutters and doors with good fastenings.

Advertise, and let the people know what you have for sale.

Get that present ready—only a month till Christmas.

Middlecreek is frozen over and the youngsters are skating.

Winter bonnets are to be small, but the cost of them is not.

The pupils of the Indian school at Carlisle all wear uniforms.

Counterfeit silver dollars are said to be in circulation. Look out for them.

Now is the time to subscribe for the Post. The long evenings are here.

One secret a man can keep—If he has a balky horse he must either keep the secret or the horse.

People who stop their local newspaper invariably expect to borrow it from their neighbors.

Farmers are laying in their winter fuel, and the more grown-up daughters they have the bigger the pile.

Twenty-five thousand live quail are being imported from England, to be set at liberty in Pennsylvania.

Aching heads and clouded brains are cured by "Sellers' Liver Pills." Try them. Sold by druggist. 25c. a box.

The season has been advantageous for turkey raising, and large flocks are seen about nearly every farm house.

The new postal law states that each post-office box must be restricted to the use of one family, or firm, corporation.

After all, a gentle purgative is the best means of curing headache, liver complaint, biliousness, &c. Use "Sellers' Liver Pills."

The time is coming when a buffalo robe will cover two hearts that beat as one. And four soles with but a single thought, to wet, how cold!

Keep your family well supplied with "Sellers' Cough Syrup," use it in time, you will avert bronchial and pulmonary affections. 25 cents.

Lost.—One day last week an overcoat between Limbert's Hotel and the Red Hill. The finder will please leave the same at this office.

Beavertown and Adamsburg erected more new dwelling houses and other buildings the past summer and fall than all the other towns in the county aggregated.

The coming year of 1880 will be rather peculiar in some instances. Three holidays, come on Sunday, as follow: February 22, Decoration day, July fourth.

The long trestle between this and Beavertown a defunct institution. The trains run over the new road. The iron and ties will soon be removed and the timber taken away.

For the prosperity of our land there is an universal feeling of thankfulness, but upon the appointed day for thanksgiving, few are the thoughts that get higher than the stomach.

Moses Specht and Tric. McManus his foreman finished their work on the rail road some time ago, and the work has been pronounced by R. R. men as No. 1. All trains now run over it—the fear of the old trestle is past.

The mistaken notion prevails with some sportsmen that the sign boards forbidding hunting, fishing or trespassing on private lands are of little account, and that they can be disregarded with impunity.

Justic Gifts Court.—On Monday night at 10 o'clock the jury retired to the Jury room to make up their verdict. About eleven the jury returned a verdict of acquittal as to one of the defendants and guilty as to four.

The courts have decided that the owner of an adjoining property may cut the branches of a tree hanging over his land and may dig up the roots running into his land, but he has no right to the fruit even when it falls upon his property.

J. B. Hutchinson, Superintendent Sunbury & Lewistown R. R. was over the road the other day. Mr. H. is one of those men who hold position and exercise authority by virtue of actual merit and hence, as is always the case with such men, he exercises them in a becoming manner—unless you should be in a business way connected with him you cannot tell that he wields the authority he does—this is an excellence which few possess.

Ladies Coats of all kinds at S. Weis' Selinsgrove.

The price of coal the coming winter is likely to be such as to make late sparking a costly luxury, where there are large families of attractive daughters. Young men of good principles should take knowledge of the fact, and talk business. Remember, life is short and fuel costly.

What we heard in Franklin. The other morning, just in the early morn when birds do sing, we passed through Franklin on our way to the Depot, and when opposite the residence of P. Z. we heard a bird-ee warbling a beautiful melod-ee and it sang thusly: "O, my whole soul is CHARLEY-bound."

Postmasters who don't know their duties and responsibilities under the postal laws are altogether too numerous.

They have no business to return a paper because it is not liked. The law provides them blanks and stamps to notify the publishers, and failing to send such notice allowing a paper to continue renders them liable for the subscription price. In some cases P. M's return a paper without even putting their office stamp on it leaving the publisher to guess where it comes from. This not only is a positive violation of law but is very apt to make the printer forget himself towards a man who is profane, when provocation is great.

Manhood: How Lost, How Restored!

Just published a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure (without medicine) of Spermatorrhœa or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, Dyspepsia, Consumption, Epilepsy and Fits, induced by self indulgence or sexual extravagance &c.

Sent Free, in a sealed envelope, only six cents.

The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.

Sent, under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, post paid, on receipt of six cents or two postage stamps. Address,

THE CULVERWELL MEDICAL CO.
