THE POST.

Middleburg, Dec. 4, 1879.

Local News, &c.

Quarter Sessions Courts.—The Courts of Snyder County are held on the fourth Mondays of February, May, and September, and second Monday of December.

☞ All communications, business letters &c., for this office, to secure prompt attention should be addressed as follows: THE POST, Middleburg, Snyder County, Pa. Advertisements, communications &c. must be handed in by Monday noon, to secure insertion in next issue

Constipation, sick headache, and biliousness cured by "Sellers' Liver Pills." Try them. 25c. per box.

Notwithstanding the late advance in goods, Weis & Oppenheimer Selinsgrove are selling just as cheap now and really cheaper than ever. Call and see their large stock.

At Home.—Theodore Walter is at home only for a short stay. We understand Theo. likes his new place of business first-rate. Glad to hear it—Theo. is a No. 1. fellow.

To regulate the liver, stomach, and bowels use only "Sellers' Liver Pills." Take no other. 25c. a box. All druggists sell them.

Buffalo Robes at Weis & Oppenheimer's, Selinsgrove. Call and examine them and learn the prices, before you purchase somewhere else.

Overcoats ! Overcoats !

Weis & Oppenheimer, Selinsgrove, can supply the whole county with overcoats. They have a large variety of them in stock and are receiving new ones daily. Give them a call and you will find, that you can save money by buying your clothing of Weis & Oppenheimer.

Home From Kansas.—J. Murray Lupfer, of Beavertown, Jacob and Horace Bonfer, sons of Henry Bonfer, Esq. of Paxtonville, all looking and feeling well. Glad to see you, gents.

Murray Lupfer brought with him samples of the present growing wheat crop which measure about fifteen inches in length. That is tall wheat at this season of the year.

Happy homes and smiling faces are invariably the result of what parents constantly keeping "Sellers' Cough Syrup" on hand. Price 25c.

Saxton.—H. Wilson Vish, a West Beaver teacher, who has taught his eighth successive term at N. Union School reports for that month of the present term as follows, viz.:

No. of pupils on roll 41, average attendance for; per cent of attendance 95; average age 9 years; number in classes 16. He wishes to hear from other parts of the county.

Jubilee Singers.—The Tennessee Singers gave one of their excellent entertainments in the U. B Church in this place on Tuesday evening and will give another this (Wednesday) evening. Those who failed to hear them missed a great musical treat. They are excellent singers and should be greeted with crowded houses wherever they go.

If you wish to buy a carpet, call at S. Weis' Selinsgrove; he will show you a large line of samples and you can make your selection; he represents one of the largest carpet houses of New York.

A Social Club.—If such a society were to canvass its members, and they in turn carry on the work of introducing the Home Cook Book, we would feel that cookery was soon to be all that health could possibly wish, or the palate crave. Right here we will say that the publisher, Mr. J. Fred. Waggoner, Chicago, is desirous of securing a worthy and intelligent agent in this vicinity, to whom liberal pay is promised; and his pamphlet, "Practical Hints on Canvassing," specially adapted to this book, is mailed to all applicants.

A stout backbone is as essential to physical health as to political consistency. For weakness of the back and disorders of the liver and kidneys, the tonic and moderate dietetic action of the Bitters is the one thing needful. Remember that the stomach is the mainstay of every other organ, and that by invigoration, the spinal column and all its dependencies are strengthened.

For Hostetter's ALMANAC for 1880 apply to Druggists and Dealers generally.

Elegant Hair is woman's crowning beauty. When it fades she fades as well. While it is kept bright, her personal attractions are still maintained. By preserving the hair fresh and vigorous a youthful appearance is continued through many years. Those who grieve over their fading hair turning gray too early, should know that Ayer's Hair Vigor prevents it, and restores gray or faded hair to its natural color. It is a clear and healthful preparation, containing neither oil, dye, nor anything deleterious and imparts to the scalp what is most needed—a sense of pleasant and delightful freedom from scurf or dandruff.—N. Death of Philip Gross.

New Berlin, Pa., Nov. 22, '79.

There departed this life, near this borough, on Tuesday, the 18th inst, one who by reason of his long residence in our midst and his sterling traits of character, deserves more than the ordinary notice of your paper.

Philip Gross was a man whose long life was never clouded by a word unfitly spoken or a deed of which his friends need be ashamed. He was a son of Henry Gross, a veteran of the Revolution and one of the original settlers of this section. He was born on the 29th of December, 1757, in Centre township, of what was then Northumberland and now Snyder county, and moved to New Berlin from M'Kees Half Falls in 1812. In May, 1819, he married Elizabeth Schoch, with whom he enjoyed over sixty years of domestic happiness. There were born to them fourteen children, seven of whom survive with his widow to mourn the death of one in early years acquired, and during a lifetime of honesty and integrity held and deserved, the respect of this community.

General Gross always took an active interest in the public affairs of this county and on several occasions was called upon to serve his fellow citizens in positions of trust and honor. He was elected treasurer of the county as a Democrat, having received over one thousand majority in a strong Whig county, which fact is merely cited as an evidence of the esteem in which he was held by his fellow citizens. He also filled acceptably, for the period of thirty-eight years, the office of Justice of the peace all declined to accept a commission for a further period of five years. He served in the enrolled militia of the State, being successively promoted until he attained the rank of brigadier general. In all respects his life is worthy of the confidence of the people of the community and his character as a Christian and a man deserves the emulation of the good and virtuous.—Lewisburg Journal.
