

Middleburg Dec 25, 1879.

L. SAJISE, Editor & Proprietor.

U. S. Senator J. Don Cameron is the Chairman of the Republican National Committee, and Chicago the place of holding the next National Convention, etc.

Out of an aggregate vote of 85,473 cast for the mayoralty of Boston, King, the Greenback candidate received 357. The party in contest...

Congress is laying a good foundation for some red hot debates after the holiday season is over. More than two hundred bills were introduced on Tuesday.

We don't want to give any advice to the Congress of the United States, but would just like to leave to remind the members that business is booming and the people don't want it disturbed.

The members of Congress who complain that they are unable to carry about with them the ten per cent of silver paid them in salary, should remember that the average American citizen would willingly take the burden off the hands of his Representative and do it with out grudging either.

Disputes from Augusta, Maine, say that the Democratic Governor and Council have counted out the Republican majority in both branches of the Legislature.

It is probable few people have noticed the initials that are marked on the United States silver coins, and few will be aware that those stand for the man whose that particular coin was manufactured.

The Democratic leaders are still loudly shouting that the Democracy has always been a hard money party, notwithstanding the fact that the last Democratic National Convention denounced the resumption clause of the act of 1875.

The greatest political crime ever committed in this country is on the point of commission in the State of Maine. It will eventually destroy the Democratic party in that State.
