

The Post
Cleveland, Feb. 5, 1880

Secretary Schurz lectures the Indians will not be unfriendly dealt with.

Burgardt has issued a pigeon shooting challenge to any man in the world.

The Massachusetts State gave a reception to Senator Blaine Friday at Boston.

A bar of gold worth $4,670 is the given week's yield of a Nova Scotia mine.

The Davison-Sherman battle is going on furiously with thousands of thousands of thousands.

Efforts are being made to reconcile the family differences between the Russian Czar and Queen.

A Schuykill paper wants all the Republicans of that county to go to Harrisburg to assist in equesting one lemon.

Parrell addressed an audience of 5,000 people at Cleveland on Saturday night. The sum of over $2,000 was realized.

The cabinet decided that Minister Christianity should use his own judgment as to recognizing the present government of Peru.

Miss Cora Myers, aged 16 years, died at Bradford, Pa., on Saturday, from the effects of malpractice by Dr. L. Read. Read has fled.

The front wheels of the Tharman boom are on the track again. John G. Thompson is now tugging away at the hind wheels.

When the Grant boom struck Cuba it caused an earthquake, which shook up Havana and frightened the inhabitants badly. Grant rather enjoyed it.

Congress is feeling along weak after week without accomplishing anything in the way of getting through with the necessary business of the session.

A colored boy named Eli Jackson, aged sixteen, employed as a servant in the family of Mrs. Ella Andrews, Harrisburg, hanged himself in the ceiling last night.

Dr. Augustus Schultz, of Mexico, claims before a Philadelphia court that he has been the victim of a conspiracy to imprison him in the Pennsylvania insane asylum.

Testimony taken before the select committee investigating Cayenne affairs indicates that it is true the Indians were in a starving condition when removed from their agency.

The Kalley lamb has got the Tilden wolf by the tail, and appears to know very well that it would be death to let go, so he keeps hold and bleats.

The New York Herald has a fresh sensation in the political line. It says Grant's formal withdrawal from politics will be officially announced about next Monday.

The brigadiers in the United States Senate will be reinforced when General Gibson of Louisiana and General George of Mississippi take their seats in that body.

Senator Bayard has delivered his great speech in support of his anti-slavery resolution, and is now considered quite dead as a Presidential candidate, in the West.

There is not a single man in the present Congress who does not feel that the adoption of his financial views alone can save this great and glorious country from destruction.

The friends of Messrs. Cox and Horr in Congress should see to it that they are not let loose again. The country cannot be expected to survive many such outbursts of wit.

The New York Sun advises the Democrats to change their base by dropping New York and falling back on Ohio. The prospect is not inviting; they fell on their backs in Ohio last fall.

Every Democratic United States Senator who has a son over fifteen years of age has him snugly planted in some succulent clerkship in the Senate. Youth has three of them thus provided for.

President Hayes has once more apologized to the Pennsylvania Republican Congressmen for overlooking the State in making his appointments to Cabinet offices and foreign missions.

If Congressmen Horr and Cox would hire out as end men to a first class company of minstrels they could command a much larger salary than they are receiving as members of the American Congress.

Secretary Schurz appears to be rather slow in coming to an understanding with the Utes. In the end the guilty savages will probably escape and the innocent ones be compelled to move from their reservation.

Delegate Cannon, who represents Utah in Congress, is now being persecuted by the Gentile women of Salt Lake City, who are petitioning Congress to expel him because "he has four wives and over so many children."

At Pottstown, Pa. last Saturday Officer Charles Clark, while attempting to arrest a crowd of drunken ruffians, was severely beaten. He drew a revolver and fired into the crowd, shooting Edward Motta, and probably wounded him fatally. Six of Clark's assailants were arrested.

Alex. Stephens' plan: Set up a focus or a score of mine, coin silver by the ear load, and pay the bonds as they mature. There is just one little difficulty in the way, viz. when the mine is exhausted, the bonds will be worth nothing.

"Could General Grant, as President, ruin his country, if he tried?"
—Boston Herald.

There is no one man, nor a dozen men, nor a thousand men, who can ruin this country. That thing has been tried by half a million of men in the field backed by a dozen millions of people at home, and it failed in a wretched failure.

Statistics lately published at San Francisco, show that the Chinese population of California is rapidly decreasing by the return of Chinese to their own country. The Chinese Government is also said to be instituting stringent measures to prevent emigration, and in order to induce Chinese to return to their native land, the Chinese Government is publishing and scattering broadsides, the details of outrages upon the Chinese in California are being published and scattered broadsides. Trade with foreign countries is also being discouraged by the government of China, and the old spirit of exclusiveness is again asserting itself.
