If Jackasses could talk now-a-days as they could when Æsop's fabels were written, and a very common and ill-bred Jack were to declare that it looked like a well-developed, cultured statesman, would any one take time to inquire whether the Jack was sane or insane, or whether its pretensions were real or fancied.

BANNERVILLE, Feb, 6th, 1880

MR. ED.:—We had the pleasure of being present at the last meeting of the Literary Society at Bannerville, which was organized several months ago, meeting once a week. The exercises consist of Drawing, School-work, Essays, Debates, Orations, Readings, etc.

The society is organized and conducted according to parlimentary rule, with all necessary officers, and especially that of Editor, has been a success; bringing before the society news, information and fun. As this is the first attempt to organize a society at this place, and we can assure them it has been a success. SPECTATOR.

FOR THE POST:

MR. EDITOR,—Would it not be bestowing a well merited honor on the Hon, Charles Miller to tender him the nomination for Representative to the Legislature. Let every unselfish voter of Snyder county, think carefully over the events of the past Two Terms, during which Mr, Miller, has served them as their Representative, and ask themselves whether they can confide their trust in any safer hands. Although he has been severely tried yet he has ever been faithful, which should be a full guarantee for the future. It might be well, to allow a public expression at the polls. JUSTICE.

THE ORE BUSINESS IN SNYDER COUNTY.—Moses Specht, of Beavertown, it is said, is shipping more iron ore than all the other operators along the line of the Sunbury & Lewistown Rail Road. He shipped, last week, 24 carloads or 271 tons, and is prepared with men, means and material to ship monthly two thousand tons, or more, of the very best ore of the different qualities found in this part of the great ore-belt which extends from northern New York to the Potomac,

The ore-lands he now controls will supply a first class furnace for a hundred years, still he is prospecting south of Middleburg. This last field of operation is convenient to the railroad and promises well. Besides these things, ex-sheriff Specht is a thorough, reliable, safe business man.

Could any rational creature even imagine the above photograph, from the N. Y. Rogue's Gallery, to resemble the intellectual giant, Daniel Webster?

West Beaver Items.

ED. POST.—Frederic Stimley near McClure sold his property to Mr. Samuel Bowersox of Mifflin County for $670 he also sold his timber on the farm he lately bought to Walter, Hassinger & Co. for $700.

John Ulsh, sr. also sold part of his timber to the same party for $1725 the same party are also prospecting to purchase a tract of timber of John Felker, Jr.

C. P. Swengle has struck a rich vein of Iron Ore upon the lands of John Felker, Jr.

Dr. A. M. Smith & Co. have leased a great deal of Ore land along the Shade Mountain and are at present engaged at several places digging for Ore.

Those who have ice houses are at present busily engaged in filling them after patiently waiting a long time for ice—it is about 11 in. in thickness.

Feb. 9, 1880. REPORTER.

Miss Ida Frain of Millersburg, Pa., is visiting her grandparents in this place.

Quite a number of papers have advanced their subscription price on account of the great advance in paper.

A wide-awake newspaper has already announced the total failure of the peach crop for 1880. That is enterprise, indeed. The report always comes, but not until the buds have had a chance to start.

It should be remembered that with the opening of spring there will be plenty of opportunities to obtain labor at fair wages to those willing to do an honest day's work. Of course, the one who stands on the street corner with his hands in his pockets and blows about hard times will not be wanted. It's the willing one that is wanted, and he will most always be able to find opportunity to honestly earn his bread in the sweat of his brow.

Talked of Improvements.—Franklin is crowing over a contemplated big improvement next summer. Azariah Kreeger has sold one half of his farm, in Middlecreek, with the improvements, for $8,500 and some time ago disposed of his entire interest in the valuable mill property at Selinsgrove. He has rented in Franklin and intends to erect dwelling house, Warehouse, Steam Merchant and Grist Mill, Store house, Coal yard, and put a Siding on his lots adjoining the Depot.

Mr. Kreeger has, not only plenty of the ready John Davis, but is an experienced Grain Dealer; a practical Miller, and altogether an active, energetic, clever business man.

AN OLD LANDMARK GONE.—Capt. Leroy N. Holmes, more familiarly called "Doc." Holmes, a character well known in this part of the State in connection with the old time mode of traveling, died suddenly at Gratztown, Dauphin county, on Monday of last week, aged about 55 years. He was engaged at the time in carrying the U. S. mail between Millersburg and Gratz. He left the former place apparently in good health, and when near Gratz was taken with a paralytic stroke, in the conveyance in which he was carrying the mail. He partially recovered from this attack, but on Sunday had another stroke and died on Monday. "Doc." Holmes had been a stage driver for 35 years, driving on the turnpike between Harrisburg and Pittsburg, before the Pennsylvania railroad was built, and was also employed on the packet boats running on the Pennsylvania State canal. After the railroads put out of use the old turnpikes and canal as means of traveling, he was engaged in driving stage and carrying the mails on local routes. He was a powerful man, six feet and four inches in height, and built in proportion. In every respect he was a conspicuous object to travelers in this part of the state when the old modes of traveling prevailed. With his other duties on the packet boats, it was his business to sound the bugle when the boats were entering or leaving the towns along the canal, and many a time the valley of the Susquehanna echoed with the merry notes of his horn. He was also always on hand when a fight took place, and his immense strength was serviceable on such occasions. His funeral took place on Thursday of last week at Selinsgrove, of which town he was a resident.—Sunbury Gazette-American.

CATARRH.

BROCKVILLE.

C. B. LITCHFIELD & Co.—DEAR SIR:—I have been troubled with Catarrh in all its forms for 20 years, and have used all remedies recommended to cure, but received little or no benefit, until I tried the CONSTITUTIONAL CATARRH REMEDY. I have only used one bottle and a half and I am so much better that I can say it has cured me. My daughter-in-law has also been afflicted for the last four years. She is now using the remedy with the same result. I can truly say it is a wonderful medicine, as I know from experience that it will cure any case of Catarrh. I formerly lived at Napanee, Ont. Hoping that you will introduce this medicine through the Dominion thoroughly, so that my fellow sufferers may have an opportunity of getting cured of this disease.

Yours respectfully
NELSON SHOREY.

N. B.—I have always been subject to headache; since taking the Constitutional I have not been troubled in the least. It will cure headache in two or three hours

A great and good thing. I have discovered a simple process and compound that in one hour 500 pounds of Bread from a barrel of flour, and the bread is better, lighter and more wholesome than it made otherwise. This may seem impossible to some but it is true, and no humbug about it. The Post Master here has tried it, if you have doubt, you can write to him. From 40 to 50 pounds of Bread can be made from 25 pounds of flour and will save you at least ¼ in a barrel of flour, which is an item in every family at the present high prices of flour, and it is just a great thing for pies, cakes and cookies of all kinds. I will send a process and a box of the compound, sufficient for 5 barrels of flour, with directions, by express prepaid, for $1. If you wish to economize and save money, send for it at once while I send it prepaid, for the price will be higher as soon as ordered. Send by express or mail and address P. C.
